THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER 1 – 5 – 22
'The season of glad song has come' (Song of Songs 2:12)

This week: : Acts 5:27-32, 40-41; Apoc 5:11-14; Jn 21:1-19
Next week Acts 13:14, 43-52; Rev. 7:9, 14-17; Jn 10:27-30

There's a beautiful statement of God's endless love and compassion hidden in the longer form of today's Gospel passage:

three times Jesus asks Peter if he loves him, which gives Peter to affirm that love three times; and in turn Jesus takes the opportunity to call Peter three times to his mission of feeding and caring for the flock.

It's all meant to be a parallel of course – to Peter's three denials.

The Cross and Resurrection overflow with forgiveness and reconciliation.

The violence represented by the Cross is forever changed into compassion: 'Peace be with you' is the great greeting of the risen Jesus in the Gospels.

Peter would have felt a failure, a traitor.

Jesus gives him the loving opportunity to turn his denials into professions of love and calls him to the highest office amongst the apostles.

Are we an Easter people? Does peace break into people's lives because of us? Fr Colin

An Easter² Reflection

Amen, amen, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go” (Jn 21:18)

EASTER AS OPENING THE DOORS OF HELL

Henri Nouwen once commented that he used to be resentful whenever he was interrupted in his work until he realised that, often times, interruptions were his real work.

There's a lesson here: We're often resentful when our plans are interrupted. Sometimes these interruptions are minor, an unexpected phone call while we're working or watching television. Sometimes though they're major: an unplanned pregnancy that interrupts our career, an economic hardship that derails our plan for being a writer or an artist, a family situation that prevents us from pursuing a dream, or a loss of health that puts everything on hold.

Countless things, big & small, perennially conspire against our agendas & sabotage our dreams. Often we're resentful & think to ourselves: "If only! If only this hadn't happened! Now I have to wait to go back to school, to resume my career. Now I'll never have a chance to fulfill my dream." Sometimes in middle age, or even earlier, this resentment takes a more radical form: "I've wasted my life, been a victim of circumstance, given in to the demands of others, & now I'll never get the chance to do what I really wanted."

But the opposite is also true: sometimes instead of resentment there's gratitude because we realise that the interruptions, so unwelcome at the time, were really salvific and, far from derailing our real agenda, were our real agenda.

A couple of examples might help explain this: I'm sure all of us have known individuals or families where an unplanned pregnancy suddenly turned all plans upside down (economic, career, travel, new house). Initially there was resentment. Later on the unwanted interruption turned into a much wanted and loved child who helped create a happiness that dwarfed anything that might have resulted had original plans not been derailed by that interruption.

The British historian, AN Wilson, in a biography of CS Lewis, describes how Lewis' life as a teacher and writer was, during virtually all of his productive years, interrupted by the demands of his adopted mother who made him do all the shopping and housework and demanded hours of his time daily for domestic tasks. Lewis' own brother, Warnie, who also lived in the household (and who generally refused to let his own agenda be so interrupted) laments this fact in his diaries and suggests that Lewis could have been much more prolific had he not had to spend countless hours doing domestic chores.

Lewis himself, however, gives a different assessment. Far from being resentful about these interruptions, he's grateful and suggests that it was precisely these domestic demands that kept him in touch with life in a way that other Oxford Dons (who never had to shop and do housework) were not. Wilson agrees and suggests that it was precisely because of these interruptions, which kept Lewis' feet squarely on the ground, that Lewis was able to have such empathic insights into the everyday human condition.

As these examples illustrate, what initially is experienced as an unwanted interruption can, in the end, be our real agenda.

Of course, this isn't always true. Our lives are not meant to be left entirely to circumstance. We're meant too to make choices, hard choices at times, to actively shape our own destiny. It can be unhealthy, fatalistic even, to simply accept whatever happens. It can also lead to considerable bitterness and disappointment with our lives. We have God-given dreams and talents and must, in the name of the God who gave them to us, fight too for our agenda.

However, we must also look for the hand of that God in our interruptions. These often appear as a conspiracy of accidents through which God guides and tutors us. If we were totally in control of our own agendas, if we could simply plan and execute our lives according to our own dreams with no unwanted demands, I fear that many of us would, slowly and subtly, become selfish and would, also slowly and imperceptibly, find our lives devoid of simple joy, enthusiasm, family life, and real community.

Baptism means derailment. Christ baptises Peter on the rock when he tells him: "Your life is now no longer your own. Before you made a profession of love, you fastened your belt and walked wherever you liked. Now, others will put a belt around you and take you where you would rather not go." To submit to love is to be baptised, namely, to let our lives be forever interrupted. To not let our lives be interrupted is to say no to love.

CS Lewis once said that we'll spend most of eternity thanking God for those prayers he didn't answer. I suspect we'll also spend a good part of eternity thanking God for those interruptions that derailed our plans but baptised us into life and love in a way we could never have ourselves planned or accomplished. We do not live by accomplishment alone and sometimes what's best for us can only be learned forcibly.

ADDITIONAL HYMN: FOR 10:15AM MASS

Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now am found
Was blind but now I see

'Twas Grace that taught my heart to fear
And Grace, my fears relieved
How precious did that Grace appear
The hour I first believed

Through many dangers, toils and snares
We have already come
'Twas Grace that brought us safe thus far
And Grace will lead us home

4 The Lord has promised good to me,
his word my hope secures;
he will my shield and portion be
as long as life endures.

THE PRAYERS AND RESPONSES OF MASS

GLORIA:

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

THE PSALM Ps 29:2. 4-6. 11-13.

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me
and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.
O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave.

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love God,
give thanks to God's holy name.
God's anger lasts but a moment; God's favour through life.
At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn.

The Lord listened and had pity.
The Lord came to my help.
For me you have changed my mourning into dancing;
O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,

(all bow at the following words in bold):

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand
of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! Lord Jesus, make your word plain to us:
make our hearts burn with love when you speak. Alleluia!

FR RICHARD ROHR OFM'S MEDITATION . . . GOD SURRENDERS TO US IN LOVE

Franciscan teacher Ilia Delio sees the Incarnation as God surrendering to us in humble, human form:

Surrender [to God] expresses one's belief that God is love and love never fails. We would be remiss to think, however, that surrender is a movement in trust and love only on our part, as if God might be waiting for us to hand over the reins of control. Such an idea misses out on the tremendous mystery of God as love, for our surrender to God is based on God's surrender to us. . . .

The surrender of God in the person of Jesus Christ is the great mystery of God. God does not hold back and wait until we get things right; rather, God loves us where we are and as we are. In the Incarnation, divine love has found us and has surrendered to us. It has handed itself over to us to do as we please.

What do we do with this tremendous gift of divine love so freely given to us? Some of us are blind to this love, so we ignore it. Others do not believe that God surrenders—completely in love with us—and therefore reject it. Still others fear that a God of self-giving love could be weak, and so they question the divine love. But for those who breathe in the Spirit of God, the surrender of God in love is the greatest act of humility, and one can only receive this love in poverty and humility. Receptivity marks the person of surrender. [1]

For Father Richard, Saints Francis (1182–1226) and Clare of Assisi (1194–1253) are powerful examples of people who surrendered their lives to God, and discovered who they really were in God:

God is the only one we can surrender to without losing ourselves. It's a paradox. I can't prove it to you, and it sure doesn't always feel like that, but I promise it's true. Francis and Clare lost and let go of all fear of suffering; all need for power, prestige, and possessions; and all need for their small self to be important—and they came out on the other side knowing something essential: who they really were in God and thus who they really were. Their house was then built on "bedrock," as Jesus says (Matthew 7:24). Such an ability to really change is often the fruit of suffering, and various forms of poverty, since the false self does not surrender without a fight to its death. If suffering is "whenever we are not in control" (my definition), then we can understand why some form of suffering is absolutely necessary to teach us how to live beyond the illusion of control and to give that control back to God.

Francis and Clare voluntarily leapt into the very fire from which most of us are trying to escape, with total trust that Jesus' way of the cross could not, and would not, be wrong.

復活期第三日 1.5.2022

讀經一 (我們就是這些事的證人; 聖神也為此事作證。)

恭讀宗徒大事錄 5:27-32,40-41

那時候, 聖殿警官和差役, 把宗徒領來之後, 叫他們站在公議會前。大司祭審問他們, 說: 「我們曾嚴厲命令你們, 不可用這名字施教。你們看, 你們卻把你們的道理, 傳遍了耶路撒冷; 你們是有意把這人的血, 歸到我們身上!」伯多祿和眾宗徒回答說: 「聽天主的命, 應勝過聽人的命。我們祖先的天主, 復活了你們下毒手懸在木架上的耶穌。天主以右手舉揚了他, 叫他做首領和救主, 為賜給以色列人悔改和罪赦。我們就是這些事的證人, 並且, 天主賜給服從他的人的聖神, 也為此事作證。」公議會命令宗徒: 不可再因耶穌的名字講道, 然後, 釋放了他們。他們喜喜歡歡由公議會出來, 因為他們配為這名字受侮辱。——上主的話。

答唱詠 詠30:2,4, 5-6, 11-12,13

【答】: 上主, 我稱揚你, 因為你救拔了我。(詠30:2)

領: 上主, 我稱揚你, 因為你救拔了我。你也沒有讓我的仇敵, 向我誇耀。上主, 你由陰府中把我救出, 又使我安全復生, 免降幽谷。

【答】

領: 上主的聖民, 請向上主歌頌, 稱謝他的聖名。因為他的憤怒, 瞬息消散; 他的恩愛, 卻要終生綿延。晚間雖令人哭泣, 清晨卻使人歡喜。【答】

領: 上主, 請俯聽我, 憐憫我; 上主, 求你前來助佑我。你把我的哀痛, 化成了舞蹈。上主, 我的天主, 我要永遠稱謝你! 【答】

讀經二 (被宰殺的羔羊, 堪受權能和富裕。)

恭讀默示錄 5:11-14

我、若望, 看見和聽見在寶座、活物和長老的四周, 有許多天使的聲音; 他們的數目千千萬萬, 大聲喊說: 「被宰殺的羔羊, 堪受權能、富裕、智慧、勇毅、尊威、光榮和讚頌!」我又聽見一切受造物, 即天上、地上、地下和海洋中的萬物, 都說: 「願讚頌、尊威、光

榮和權力, 歸於坐在寶座上的那位和羔羊, 至於無窮之世!」那四個活物就答說: 「阿們。」長老們於是俯伏朝拜。——上主的話。

福音前歡呼

領/眾: 亞肋路亞。

領: 亞肋路亞。基督復活了; 他創造了萬物, 且憐憫了整個人類。亞肋路亞

眾: 亞肋路亞。

恭讀聖若望福音 21:1-14

那時候, 耶穌在提庇黎雅海邊, 又顯現給門徒。耶穌是這樣顯現的: 當西滿伯多祿、號稱狄狄摩的多默、加里肋亞加納的納塔乃耳、載伯德的兩個兒子, 同其他兩個門徒在一起的時候, 西滿伯多祿對他們說: 「我去打魚。」他們回答說: 「我們也同你一起去。」他們便出去, 上了船; 但那一夜什麼也沒有捕獲。已經到了早晨, 耶穌站在岸上; 門徒卻沒有認出他是耶穌。於是, 耶穌對他們說: 「孩子們, 你們有魚吃嗎?」他們回答說: 「沒有。」耶穌向他們說: 「向船右邊撒網, 就會捕到。」他們便撒下網, 因為魚太多, 竟不能把網拉上來。耶穌所愛的那個門徒, 就對伯多祿說: 「是主。」西滿伯多祿一聽見是主; 他當時赤著身; 就束上外衣, 縱身跳入海裡。其他門徒因離岸不遠——約有二百肘——就坐著小船, 拖著一網魚回來。當他們上了岸, 看見放著一堆炭火, 上面放著魚和餅。耶穌對他們說: 「把你們剛才所打得的魚, 拿一些來!」西滿伯多祿便上船, 把網拉到岸上, 網裡都是大魚, 共一百五十三條; 雖然這麼多, 網卻沒有破。耶穌向他們說: 「你們來吃早飯吧!」門徒中沒有人敢問他: 「你是誰?」因為知道是主。耶穌於是上前, 拿起餅來, 遞給他們; 也同樣拿起魚來, 遞給他們。耶穌從死者中復活後, 向門徒顯現, 這已是第三次。——上主的話。

EASTER OFFERINGS

Easter Offering envelopes are available on the pews in both our churches. These can be placed on the plate at Mass during this Easter Season. The Easter Offerings are not retained personally by the priests but are a vital supplement to the First Collection income which provides for the priests of the parish and for the health care of priests across the diocese and the retirement care of older priests. This fund depends very much on the income raised by Christmas and Easter Offerings. Whatever you can give will be most appreciated.

AUSTRALIAN CATHOLIC BISHOPS OFFER THOUGHTS AS THE ELECTION APPROACHES....

In the run-up to a federal election on May 21, Australia's Catholic bishops have urged voters to consider the nation's most vulnerable people.

In an election statement the Australian Catholic Bishops' Conference did not endorse any political party but said voters should consider candidates who might prioritise people who need palliative care, those in low-paying and insecure jobs, indigenous Australians, asylum-seekers and refugees.

Brisbane Archbishop Mark Coleridge, president of the conference, said no one political party fully embodies Catholic social teaching.

But he said Australian Catholic leaders "long for what Pope Francis calls a better kind of politics, one truly at the service of the common good".

"Since the last federal election, we have seen the impact and the challenges of a global pandemic, floods, summers of bushfires, wild weather events and a world on edge because of military conflict," Archbishop Coleridge said.

"Foremost in the minds of many will be Australia's economic recovery from the effects of Covid-19. The societal disruptions from the pandemic have revealed significant levels of poverty and disadvantage within Australia. We need a new social contract that focuses the economy more clearly on the common good."

In their statement, the bishops said the government should improve healthcare, especially the standards of aged care and palliative care, since human dignity requires that society give value to "the lives of all people, including those near the end of their lives".

Access to palliative care is essential, the bishops said, so that the dying are not pressured into opting for assisted suicide, which has now passed into law in five of Australia's six states.

The bishops urged an increase in minimum wage "to at least meet the poverty line" and advocated for "greater investment in affordable and social housing".

They also said religious agencies, including schools, need to be able to hire staff who support their mission. "We call only for the same level of protections against discrimination on the basis of religion that Australia already has on the basis of race, sex or age," the bishops said.

The bishops reaffirmed their endorsement of the 2017 Uluru Statement from the Heart and its call for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders people to be recognised in the constitution and given a permanent voice in the Australian Parliament.

They called for a greater intake of refugees from Afghanistan because of the support shown to Australian military forces.

"The situation in Afghanistan demands a special intake of at least 20,000 additional places," the statement says.

"We have a moral duty towards those who supported Australian military forces as interpreters or in other capacities." The statement also calls for a special intake of Ukrainian refugees, saying they require "similar mercy".

"Refugees and asylum-seekers fleeing persecution, violence or life-threatening poverty, and people who have been displaced by climate change, are our sisters and brothers."

The bishops called for a wider reassessment of refugee policies, saying the people fleeing violence or persecution have a "moral claim on our assistance, whether they fit legal definitions of a refugee or not".

COMMUNITY SAFETY AT OUR MASSES

- ◆ Health regulations suggest that it is advisable to wear a mask where physical distancing can't be maintained - so if it is possible for you please consider continuing to wear a mask for the sake of others.
- ◆ However, for the safety of your fellow communicants and of those distributing Holy Communion, in our parish we require that everyone wears a mask when coming forward to receive Holy Communion. When coming forward to receive Holy Communion (which will be given on the hand only) please keep your mask on, receive the Host on your hand, step well to the side and then lower your mask to receive the Host before replacing the mask and returning to your seat.

Just for Youth

It's widely known that volunteering helps not only those you serve but yourself as well. So helping out in our Youth Program could be good for your health!

We are looking for adults in the Parish to join our Youth Team and help us rebuild a strong program of activities for our kids (aged 2-20) at the Parish. Children who grow up with a strong sense of faith are less anxious and more likely to become strong, loving, productive members of society. Something that benefits us all! Join our team at Youth@LK today!
