

We are a welcoming Christian community which embraces all people.
We support each other to grow in faith and create a loving and compassionate community.
We aspire to live as Christ's witnesses of God's unconditional love.

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION OF OUR LADY 15 - 8 - 21

This week: Rv 11:19; 12:1-6, 10; 1 Cor 15:20-26; Lk 1:39-56
Next week: Deut 4:1-2, 6-8; James 1:17-18, 21-22, 27; Mk 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

Today's feast is one of hope,
a touch of Easter in the midst of the year.

As Christians we honour Mary not for what she did,
but for what God did in her:

Mary is an icon, a reminder of what God's grace can achieve in a faithful disciple.

Her response to grace is our challenge to respond to grace.
Her sharing in the resurrection is a reminder of our hope of sharing in that same Easter life of Jesus.

Today we celebrate Mary as a reminder of what God's love can and will bring about in a receptive human heart. Fr Colin

We celebrate Social Justice Sunday on 29th August. The Australian Bishops' Social Justice Statement, Cry of the Earth, Cry of the Poor, invites us to join in responding to Pope Francis' invitation to take a journey towards total ecological sustainability guided by seven Laudato Si' goals. The Statement provides theological foundations to ground and inspire our efforts to care for creation while responding to the needs of the disadvantaged.

YOU CAN ACCESS THE DOCUMENT BY CLICKING ON THE SPECIAL HOTLINK BOX ON THE HOMEPAGE OF OUR PARISH WEBSITE.

Another online opportunity for nurturing faith and gathering with others online here in the parish

A group of parishioners has just finished another rich offering from Bishop Robert Barron's 'Word on Fire' series entitled 'Untold Blessing'.

The next opportunity we'll have to participate in one of Robert Barron's stimulating video series is an opportunity over 6 sessions to explore the very heart of our Christian faith, what it offers, how it shapes our Christian existence.

THE CREED :

Online sessions will take place on the first and third Wednesdays of the month from 7:30—8:30pm, commencing Wednesday 18th August.

If you'd like to take part please contact me before this Wednesday (colin@lindfieldkillara.org.au; 9416 7195) for the login details. Fr Colin

Would your kids like to be involved?

During this lockdown we want to make sure our young people know that they are the important part of our parish community that they are.

During this last week quite a few of our young kids helped to drop off a card of greeting and support from the parish to the letter boxes of our senior members of our community. In a few weeks' time we'd like to do a similar thing for our senior Dads for Fathers' Day.

We also have young people record the Prayers of the Faithful which are inserted into our weekly online Sunday Mass.

If your children would like to be involved in any of these ways please let Jean (youth@lindfieldkillara.org.au) or me know.

Fr Colin

Parish Life in week 8 of lockdown....

Mass

We continue to provide our parish Mass online via Youtube both on weekdays and Sundays.

Just go to our parish website (www.lindfieldkillara.org.au) and click on the box 'Online Mass'.

The page also provides a link to a booklet with the prayers, readings and hymns for the Mass. A text copy of the Sunday homily is also available.

Children and Youth

♦ During lockdown we are providing two alternative versions of Sunday Mass on YouTube - one of which has a homily directed at the younger children.

♦ There is a youth page in each edition of the parish bulletin.

♦ Online Catechesis for students in State Schools is available—see p.1.

Three ways that you can support our parish

1. What's NOT happening:

- with no public Mass we have no collections, no Tap Machines, and no rent for our parish halls and meeting areas which are normally rented.

2. What CAN happen:

♦ DIRECT DEBIT CONTRIBUTIONS from your bank account to our parish accounts can be made as follows:

1st Collection: (providing for Frs Colin & Thomas & also for retired & sick clergy of the diocese)

BSB 062 784 Acct 1116 8002
(Lindfield-Killara Parish Pastoral Revenue A/c)

Second Collection: (providing for all the operating costs of the parish)

BSB 062 784 Acct 1116 8001
(Lindfield Killara Parish Church Account)

OR

♦ YOU CAN HAVE A TAP MACHINE AT HOME (ALMOST!)

In lieu of our tap machines which are unavailable at this time, credit card contributions can be made by scanning this code and then selecting each of our two parish collections:

OR

♦ YOU CAN ARRANGE FOR PERIODIC PAYMENTS FROM YOUR CREDIT CARD: just click on the hotlink box entitled 'Supporting parish finances during the public health restrictions' on the homepage of our website (www.lindfieldkillara.org.au) and scroll down to 2 i.b. for the form. (or simply email Alison (alison@lindfieldkillara.org.au) for assistance.

Online opportunities to gather ...

Each week there are a variety of ways to gather using Zoom (if you are unfamiliar with Zoom just give Fr Colin a call on 94167195. It's very simple).

♦ Scripture study with Fr Colin - 2nd & 4th Wednesdays at 7:30pm and 1st & 3rd Wednesdays at 11am.

♦ Parish Book Club - on the fourth Wednesday of the month at 10am.

♦ Morning tea - a group gathers for a cuppa after the 8:30am Mass each week and this is now taking place online each Sunday at 9:30am. A fun and relaxing get-together and chat.

If you'd like to take part in any of these just let me know and I'll let you know how to log in.

Fr Colin

Can we help ?

If you would like a phone call and chat from time to time please let us know.

If you would be happy to have a phone chat with someone please also let us know.

Just contact Fr Colin or Fr Thomas (phone numbers on page 7).

Many thanks to the children of our parish and their families who delivered a parish card of greeting to our senior parishioners last weekend.

It was a lovely way of connecting the generations in our parish in a CoVid-safe way.

A few recipients have asked if they could write a note of thanks to the children who delivered their card. If you'd like to do that the parish can facilitate that (due to child-safety regulations there can't be direct contact). Just post your note to the Parish Office or send an email (parish@lindfieldkillara.org.au) and we'll make sure that it's passed on.

If you're 70 or over and didn't receive a card it may be that you're not on our parish list. Please let Alison know so that we can amend that. Fr Colin

Many of the children added their own creativity to the card we prepared. Pictured above are the young artists in one of our families.

One of our senior parishioners writes...

'Our envelope also contained a tightly closed Magnolia bud which was white in colour. We put the bud in an egg cup of water which was replenished each day. Over several days we watched the bud take up the nourishment from the water and develop into gorgeous colourful flower. May the children be nurtured by their parents and our parish community to continue to grow in faith, love and compassion. Blessings to all.'

Another of our young families on the letter-box drop. 'The kids said they loved doing it' wrote the parents.

OUR MEMORIAL WALLS

As you know we have a Memorial Wall in each of our two churches. A Mass is held each year in November for those whose names are recorded on the Memorial Walls.

Ordering New Plaques:

If you would like to order one or more Memorial Plaques for either church, please contact Alison (alison@lindfieldkillara.org.au). You can also find out more about the plaques and download the forms required for ordering the plaques by visiting our parish website and going to 'Our Parish' → 'Memorial Walls'. For the plaques to be in place for this November you would need to have your order in to Alison by Monday 6th September.

NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER IN THIS TIME OF PANDEMIC – SUNDAY 22 AUGUST

An ecumenical National Day of Prayer has been organised for Sunday 22 August, calling Australia to come together in prayer in light of the current COVID-19 crisis.

The theme is 'Lord have mercy', as we make this verse from Ps. 123 our own: "Our eyes look to the Lord our God till He shows us His mercy" (Ps. 123:2).

A Prayer Call on Zoom, from 9am to 9pm on Sunday 22 August, will feature Church leaders and Indigenous Christian Leaders. Participants can join for as long as they wish.

In addition, daily prayers will be offered in the week prior, from 16 August. For more information and to register, please visit: <http://www.nationaldayofprayer.org.au/LordHaveMercy/>

HELLLLLLLOOOOOO OUT THERE!

During this lockdown I've been writing a short note (by email) each Friday to everyone whose email address I have. I include the parish bulletin with the email.

If you haven't been receiving my weekly note and would like to please let me know (but before that just check your 'junk' folder to make sure it hasn't gone there as that can sometimes happen when a mail is sent to a large distribution list).

SEXUALITY AND CREATIVITY

Some time ago a friend of mine left the priesthood. He loved being a priest and was a good one. His problem? He was a man who worked with his hands and fashioned beautiful things out of wood. At a point, rightly or wrongly, he felt that he couldn't be really creative if he remained celibate: "I can't be creative without sex!" is how he put it. That was more than hormones speaking. He was an artist, with an artist's temperament. Most artists, I suspect, will understand exactly what he is saying, even if they don't necessarily agree that this necessitates his particular decision.

There's a creativity that is released by sex, just as there's a sterility ("dried-upness") that can come about by its suppression. Artists know this, too well in fact. It's one of the reasons they're so prone to artistic license in this area. Countless artists have expressed this: creativity and sexuality are linked at the very source of things.

Anne Michaels, for example, in her recent book, Fugitive Pieces, makes a virtual spirituality of creativity out of sex. Her two main characters, both male, have their personalities and creativity opened up only through sex. The intimation of course is that this is true for everyone. This is not a simplistic thesis. Artistic license in the area of sex is fired by more than hormones, ego, or irresponsibility, though one would have to be blind not to see that these often too play a role. What drives artists here is the connection between sex and creativity. There is a powerful link. And why shouldn't there be? All life is after all created through sex, in some fashion or other of that word.

Given this background, we see that Mary's question to the Angel, Gabriel, at the time of the Annunciation, is more than a simple query in biology: "How can this be since I am a virgin?" She had just been told that she was to be the most creative of all artisans, the artist of artists, the mother of the fountain of creativity itself. So her question is a good one, a deep one: "From what source can this life spring, given the limited way that I am living out my sexuality?"

This is indeed the real meditation for celibates like myself: "How can I be creative without sex?" It is also just as crucial a meditation for everyone else, even for those who do enjoy healthy sexual lives. Given our congenital propensity for polymorphous embrace, we still all have to live out a certain sexual asceticism. Ultimately everyone has Mary's question: "how can I truly bring forth new life, given that I can't sleep with the whole world?"

There's no easy answer to that question—for artists, for married people, for celibates, or for anyone else. Sometimes, in terms of Christian spirituality, we have been too simplistic in our answer. We're paying the price for that. Too prevalent is the artist who finds our theology of sexuality stifling and anti-life and has walked away from the church (and sometimes the faith) for just that reason. What is the answer? How can any of us be creative, given that we may not give ourselves irresponsible license in the area of sex?

I'm not sure that there is a theoretical answer, some clear spiritual formula that can be articulated, canonised, and then applied in each case. We have, of course, a few non-negotiable principles, like the ten commandments, but these only define the outside parameters. Inside, innate within the very concepts of love, sex, respect, and responsibility themselves, lies a deeper set of moral principles that are much less easy to name and codify. We learn these more by living morally than by studying anything. So how should we live so that our sexuality properly fuels our creativity?

The answer to that, I suspect, will involve three things: a certain grieving, a certain mysticism, and a certain trust.

Grieving: we can't be God, either in our talents to create or in our capacity to sleep with the universe. At a certain point, we have to accept limit. We're creatures, not God. And what we can't have, must be grieved or it will make us bitter.

Mysticism: Sex is earthy, real, and produces life. But there are other, real, forms of love-making. These too produce life. The Body of Christ is, at one and the same time, radically physical and radically mystical. Even as sex plays such a life-producing role in this world, there are deep, invisible embraces inside the body of Christ where seed and womb too meet and produce life in ways beyond what we can phenomenologically trace.

Trust: Maybe, as we see in Mary's response, the real answer is trust, faith that if we live out our lives according to what we deeply believe, no matter how far from human fertility that may seem at times, God will make us creative in ways that we cannot now imagine. The Holy Spirit too makes us pregnant.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Rebrand of CWF to Pastoral Works Broken Bay

We are delighted to announce the Charitable Works Fund (CWF) is rebranding to Pastoral Works Broken Bay from July 2021.

The purpose of the new name is to better reflect the authentic, life-giving pastoral work you are helping to support, and provide a name that uniquely connects it to our Diocese of Broken Bay.

Pastoral Works Broken Bay will play a vital role in building on the six Pastoral priorities for the Diocese, including giving vital support to life-changing ministries, nurturing families, and parish communities.

Each year, about 20,000 families and friends - those in hospitals, schools, parishes, and the wider community - will be assisted through the generous support of parish communities to Pastoral Works Broken Bay.

Thank you for your support of this important and historic initiative for the Diocese of Broken Bay.

My prayer is the change from CWF to Pastoral Works Broken Bay enables us to reach further and wider in helping our local community, and more deeply connects us to the mission of Jesus.

Most Rev Anthony Randazzo DD JCL,
Bishop of Broken Bay

HOW TO CONTRIBUTE ?

The first Pastoral Works Broken Bay appeal for this financial year takes place, as always, NOW in this month of August. We are still obliged to meet our quota so please help us to achieve that so that we don't have to dip into already challenged parish funds. And of course the pastoral works supported by this fund desperately need our help.

- ◆ As we cannot gather in church, donations can be made online here:
www.bbcatholic.org.au/pastoralworks (just tick our parish of Lindfield-Killara as part of the donation process).

OR

- ◆ just click on the special hotlink box entitled 'Pastoral Works Broken Bay' on the homepage of our parish website (www.lindfieldkillara.org.au)

OR

- ◆ scan this QR code and in the drop down menu select 'Pastoral Works Broken Bay'

Donations to Pastoral Works Broken Bay are 100% tax deductible.

常年期第十九主日 8.8.2021

讀經一(靠那食物的力量,他走到天主的山。)

恭讀列王紀上 19:4-8

那時候,先知厄里亞進入曠野,走了一天的路,來到一棵杜松樹下,坐下求死,說:「上主啊!現在已經夠了!收去我的性命吧!因為我並不如我的祖先好。」以後,他就躺在那棵杜松樹下,睡著了。忽然,有位天使拍醒厄里亞,對他說:「起來,吃吧!」他看了看,見在他頭的旁邊,有一塊用炭火烤熟的餅,和一罐水;他吃了喝了,又躺下睡了。上主的使者第二次又來,拍醒厄里亞說:「起來,吃吧!因為你還有一段很遠的路。」他就起來,吃了,喝了。厄里亞靠那食物的力量,走了四十天四十夜,一直到了天主的山曷勒布。——上主的話。

答唱詠 詠34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

【答】:請你們體驗,請你們觀看:上主是何等和藹慈祥!(詠34:9)

領:我要時時讚美上主;我的口舌不斷讚頌上主。願我的心靈,因上主而自豪。願謙卑的人聽到,也都歡喜雀躍。【答】

領:請你們同我一起讚揚上主,讓我們齊聲頌揚他的名字。我尋求了上主,他俯聽了我的祈求:由我所受的一切驚惶中,將我救出。

【答】

領:你們瞻仰他,要喜形於色;你們的面容,絕不會羞愧。卑微人一呼號,上主立即俯允,並且救拔他,脫離一切艱辛。【答】

領:在那敬畏上主的人四周,有上主的天使築營護守。請你們體驗,請你們觀看:上主是何等和藹慈祥!投奔他的人,真是有福。

【答】

讀經二(在愛德中生活,就如基督愛了我們。)

恭讀聖保祿宗徒致厄弗所人書 4:30-5:2

弟兄姊妹們:

你們不要叫天主的聖神憂鬱,因為你們是在聖神內,受了印證,以等待那得救的日子。要從你們當中,除掉一切毒辣、怨恨、憤怒、爭吵、毀謗,以及一切邪惡;彼此要以良善、仁慈相待,

且要互相寬恕,如同天主在基督內,寬恕了你們一樣。所以,你們應該效法天主,如同蒙受寵愛的兒女一樣;又應該在愛德中生活,就如基督愛了我們,且為我們把自己交出,獻於天主,作為馨香的供物和祭品。——上主的話。

福音前歡呼

領:亞肋路亞。

眾:亞肋路亞。

領:主說:我是從天上降下的、生活的食糧;誰若吃了這食糧,必要生活,直到永遠。(若6:51)

眾:亞肋路亞。

福音(我是從天上降下的、生活的食糧。)

恭讀聖若望福音 6:41-51

那時候,耶穌說:「我是從天上降下來的食糧。」

猶太人便對耶穌竊竊私議,說:「這人不就是若瑟的兒子耶穌嗎?他的父親和母親,不是我們都認識嗎?怎麼他竟然說:我是從天上降下來的呢?」

耶穌回答說:「你們不要彼此竊竊私議!凡不是派遣我的父所吸引的人,誰也不能到我這裡來;到我這裡來的,我在末日要叫他復活。先知書上記載:『眾人都要蒙受天主的訓誨。』凡接受父的教導而學習的,必到我這裡來。這不是說有人看見過父,只有那從天主來的,才看見過父。我實實在在告訴你們:信從的人,必得永生。「我是生命的食糧。你們的祖先在曠野,吃過『瑪納』,卻死了。這是從天上降下來的食糧,誰吃了,就不死。「我是從天上降下的、生活的食糧;誰若吃了這食糧,必要生活,直到永遠。我所要賜給的食糧,就是我的肉,為使世界獲得生命。」——上主的話。
