BLESSING OF THE ADVENT WREATH AND LIGHTING THE FIRST CANDLE

Celebrant: Lord Jesus Christ, you are the Saviour of the world. We ask you to bless this Advent wreath, which we honour as a remembrance of your first coming at Bethlehem, your final coming in glory, & your daily coming amongst us in grace. Strengthen our hearts with the example of your love that we may receive you each day with joy and gladness, & be prepared to meet you on the glorious day of our death.

The wreath is sprinkled with holy water and the first candle is lit.

Celebrant: Lord Jesus, you are the light of the world come that we might have life in its fullness.

All: Come and let your light shine forth in our lives.

Celebrant: Lord Jesus, you are the Flower from the root of Jesse, the sign of salvation for all.

All: Come and let your light shine forth in our lives.

Celebrant: Lord Jesus, you were heralded by all the prophets as the one who would save the people from their sins.

All: Come and let your light shine forth in our lives.

Please resume singing the hymn

COMING TOGETHER AS A PARISH BEFORE CHRISTMAS AFTER OUR LONG SEPARATION

The Parish Pastoral Council is delighted to announce an Outdoor Mass, followed by a short time of Carol singing and then a sausage sizzle (with a glass of vino or a beer for the adults) in the outdoor covered undercroft play area of Holy Family School on Sunday 12th December at the earlier time of 5:30pm.

A wonderful opportunity to celebrate the Eucharist together, to sing some Carols, and enjoy a Covid safe social time and still have the kids well fed and home ready for bed by 7:30pm!

Please be there as we renew our parish community (see p.8)

END OF YEAR HEALING MASS AND LUNCH FOR SENIOR PARISHIONERS

Our Healing Mass returns on Friday 17th December (third Friday rather than the second Friday so that it's after the Dec. 15 easing of restrictions) followed by a LIGHT LUNCHEON FOR OUR SENIOR PARISHIONERS.

As it is a larger and airier (and therefore more Covid-safe) space the luncheon will be in St Brigid's Hall above Holy Family church (there is lift access) and the Mass (at the later time of 11:00am) will be in Holy Family church.

LOOKING AHEAD TO OUR CHRISTMAS CELEBRATIONS.....

As we all know plans are necessarily fluid at present as restrictions and public health orders continue to evolve. However, based on the presumption that capacity will still be determined by the one person per two square metre rule our plan at present is:

◆ Christmas Eve Children's Masses:

Killara 5:30pm

Lindfield 4:30pm and 6:00pm

At Lindfield the Masses will be celebrated in the church and live-streamed to the overflow congregation in MacKillop Hall. By necessity then BOOKINGS will likely be needed for our Christmas Masses. Places in the church at Lindfield will be allocated in the order that bookings are received. Later bookings would secure a place in MacKillop Hall. If advance bookings indicate that it would be needed an additional Children's Mass would be scheduled.

◆ Christmas Eve—Mass of Christmas Night:

10:30pm (preceded by a Service of Carols at 10pm) in Lindfield church (with overflow congregation in MacKillop Hall).

◆ Christmas Day: Lindfield: 8:00am & 10:15am } Please note slight Killara: 9:30am } change from last week

(once again bookings are likely to be needed as the celebrations at Lindfield will be in the church with overflow congregation watching by live-stream from MacKillop Hall)

Bookings will open on Wednesday 1st December at 10:00am. Please either use the special hotlink box on the homepage of our parish website (www.lindfieldkillara.org.au) or, if you are unfamiliar with online bookings, please call Philita in the Parish Office during office hours.

ECUMENICAL SERVICE FOR ADVENT

The next gathering of our Roseville-Lindfield-Killara Interchurch Fellowship will be our Advent Interchurch Service on Wednesday 8th December at 7:45pm at Holy Family Church at Lindfield

(with Rev. Chris Goringe as preacher)

Where we are . . .

- ◆ Sunday Mass at Lindfield is now back in the church rather than MacKillop Hall.
- ◆ There is no need to book for Mass.
- ◆ The Public Health Order still requires:
 - that masks be worn in church
 - that everyone 'signs in' using a QR code if you don't have a smartphone to scan the code DON'T WORRY—our welcomers will have access to a phone which will be able to sign you in. You don't need to obtain your own QR code from Services NSW. Just turn up.
 - that everyone sanitises their hands upon entry
- ◆ Singing is still not permitted, though we of course ensure that music is provided at our celebrations as we have done in the past.
- ◆ Please note that the parish no longer provides face masks. Please don't forget to bring your face mask with you to Mass.
- ◆ The Parish Office: will re-open physically on Thursday 16th December.
- ◆ Parking: There is now reduced parking on the Coles carpark but at Lindfield there is also the following parking:
 - ⇒ in the church grounds as usual
 - ⇒ in the school playground (enter just inside our Balfour Lane gate)
 - ⇒ in Highfield Rd
 - ⇒ Lindfield Uniting Church (cnr Provincial Rd) have kindly made their grounds available to us for parking for the Vigil & Sun. 6pm Mass (they require their grounds for their own Services on Sunday mornings). Enter from Pacific Hwy.

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEOPLE WITH DISABILITY (December 3.) Bishop Sproxton, the Bishop Delegate for Disability Issues on the Australian Catholic Bishops' Conference urges parishes to be a hospitable place for all.

Our parish can be proud of the Woods Cottage project, with the parish owned cottage providing transition to independent living for people with mild disabilities. The Cottage was purchased in the early 1980s, with Woods Cottage Trust established in about 1984 to manage the project. The service continues with four adults living in the cottage, supported by professionals 24/7. Initially the Woods Cottage Trust Board, consisting of members from the parish, provided the full service with funds from the NSW government. Under NDIS the service is now provided by CatholicCare Broken Bay. The parish's Trust Board continues to hold responsibility for maintenance of the cottage, using investment proceeds from funds raised by the parish. The investment is managed by the Woods Cottage Foundation.

If you would like more information please contact Adrienne Connaghan connaghanad@hotmail.com or Margaret Frater mmfrater@gmail.com

Please also note that our annual diocesan Mass of Inclusion for people living with disabilities, and their families, will be celebrated by Bishop Anthony Randazzo at Our Lady of the Rosary Cathedral at Waitara at 9:30am on Sunday 5th December.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY CHRISTMAS APPEAL: WEEKENDS OF 5TH AND 12TH DECEMBER

Sadly the Society's Winter Appeal, taking place later than usual and in the midst of lockdown, had a very very poor result.

Please help Vinnies in our parish to raise the funds they need as we prepare to celebrate the Lord's birth.

Contributions (tax deductible) can be made in one of three ways:

- ◆ There will be envelopes in the church on the weekends mentioned above—allowing for contributions by cash, cheque or credit card
- ◆ On those same two weekends members of St Vincent de Paul will be in the church foyers with machines to allow for tap and go contributions

GIFTS FOR WATERLOO

For many years our Parish, through the St Vincent de Paul Society, has provided Christmas gifts for children in the Waterloo area.

The pressures of daily life are a constant grind for the sick, or those living on very low incomes.

Please help us again to brighten their hearts by taking a tag from the Christmas tree and buying a suitable gift. Each tag shows the age and gender of a child for whom we hope to provide a gift.

There will also be a box near the tree if you wish to donate some Christmas goodies for our friends at Waterloo.

The trees are up in both of our churches .
To assist distribution will you please return your gift to either of our churches by Sunday 5th December.

Peace and Joy to you all.

CANA CHRISTMAS STALLS

Our Social Justice and Youth Ministries are once again hosting Christmas Stalls to support Cana after Masses this Sunday and next Sunday 5th December.

The Cana Christmas Stalls will sell beautifully packaged:

- * Christmas cakes
- * Honey
- * Olives
- * Small candles
- * Jams
- * Chutney
- * Olive oil

They are a great gift from the heart for our family and friends and benefit those in our local community who are in need.

Cana Farm and Enterprises are a charity, run by volunteers, who have identified the needs of disadvantaged and marginalised people. 100% of profits raised go toward providing employment or educational opportunities for people. Purchasing these products provides sustainable opportunities for people transforming their lives.

Please join in and support the Cana Christmas stalls, purchase a gift and share Christmas blessings.

Bad grammar has its consequences I

At Oxford Circus Station, at the end of a platform, is a blue door of iron with massive hinges and a handle the size of a plate, like a wheel for closing a bulkhead in a submarine. Pasted to the door is a notice: "Under NO circumstances can anything be stored in this room."

A photo of the door provoked much interest on Twitter. Soon 30,000 had seen it and quite a few commented. The use of "can" on the notice, instead of "must", suggested to one Tweeter that any object left there simply disappeared into a parallel universe.

ADVENT—A TIME TO LEARN HOW TO WAIT

Carlo Carretto, the renowned spiritual writer, spent many years living alone as a hermit in the Sahara desert. He wrote a number of books from that place of solitude, including one entitled, Letters from the Desert. In that book, he has a message for those of us who live busy lives in the world. "What is God trying to say to us in our busy lives?" He suggests this:

Be patient! Learn to wait—for each other, for love, for happiness, for God!

Learn to wait! That's not something we do easily and many of our problems flow from that. We often don't wait properly for things.

Annie Dillard shares this story about proper waiting: She had been watching a butterfly emerge from its cocoon and was fascinated by the process until she grew impatient with how long it was taking and, to speed things up, took a candle and heated the cocoon, albeit very gently.

The experiment worked, but it was a mistake in the long run.

The butterfly emerged more quickly; however, because adding heat violated something within the natural process, the butterfly was born with wings too weak to fly. Haste and prematurity had stunted and deformed a natural process. Some things can't be rushed.

Dillard understood immediately what had gone wrong. A certain chastity had been violated. Impatience had triggered an irreverence that had interfered with and damaged the natural order of things. In essence, the Christmas gift had been opened too early; the bride had been slept with before the wedding; a process that needed an allotted period of time had been short-circuited. There hadn't been enough advent.

Advent means waiting. Among other things, it celebrates the idea that the messiah must be born from a virgin. Why? Is sex something unworthy of God? If Jesus had been born in a natural way, would that somehow have given him less dignity? This is a dark underside in some spiritualities, but Jesus' birth from a virgin has nothing to do with that.

Scripture and Christian tradition emphasise that Jesus was born of a virgin to underscore the fact that he had no human father and also to teach an important truth, namely, that in order for something sublime to be born there must, first, be a proper chastity, a proper time of waiting, a season of advent.

Why?

The answer lies in properly understanding chastity. Chastity is not, first of all, something to do with sex. Chastity has to do with how we experience reality in general, all experience. To be chaste is to have proper reverence—towards God, towards each other, towards nature, towards ourselves, towards reality in general, and towards sex.

Lack of chastity is irreverence, in any area of life, sex included. And reverence is a lot about proper waiting. We can see this by looking at its opposite: to lack chastity, to be irreverent, is to be impatient, selfish, callous, immature, undisciplined, or boorish in any way so that our actions deprive someone else of his or her full uniqueness, dignity, and preciousness. And we do this every time we short-circuit waiting.

Thus, it is understandable why the prime analogate for chastity is proper reverence in the area of sex. Sex, because it so deeply affects the soul, speaks most loudly about chastity or lack of it. Sex is only chaste when it is not short-circuited by impatience, selfishness, or lack of respect. Sadly, because sex is so powerful, these things are often short-circuited. We violate chastity in sex whenever there is prematurity, unfair pressure, subtle manipulation, crass force, taking without giving, posturing an intimacy we don't mean, lack of respect for previous commitments, disregard for the wider relationships of family and community, or failure to respect long-range happiness and health.

Annie Dillard's metaphor basically captures it: There is a fault in our chastity when we put a candle to the cocoon so as to unnaturally rush the process.

Chastity is about proper waiting and waiting is about patience in carrying the tensions and frustrations we suffer as we live the unfinished symphony that constitutes our lives.

There are some wonderful refrains in apocalyptic literature around the importance of waiting. Before the messiah can be conceived, gestated, and given birth to, there must always be a proper time of waiting, a necessary advent, a certain quota of suffering, which alone can create the proper virginal space within which the messiah can be born:

God is never in a hurry! Every tear brings the messiah closer! It is with much groaning of the flesh that the life of the spirit is brought forth! (Nikos Kazantzakis)

All of these phrases say the same thing: What's sublime depends upon there first having been some sublimation; a feast can only happen after there has first been some fasting; love can only be a gift if the gift is fully respected; and (as Carretto so poignantly puts it) we must learn to wait—for God, for love, for the bride, and for Christmas.

Can you sing or play?

Due to some health concerns a number of our cantors/choristers/musicians are unable to return to Mass at this stage and so we are greatly in need of more people to lead and to accompany the singing (when it returns in December) either individually or as part of a small group.

Please let me know if you could help. This is a vital way that you could help us to renew our parish life in these changing times. Please help us to enhance our praise of God.

THE PRAYERS AND RESPONSES OF MASS

We abstain from the joyful words of the Gloria during these days of Advent as we prepare our hearts and our community to celebrate once again the birth of the Lord Jesus

THE PSALM Ps 24:4-5. 8-9. 10. 14. R. v. 1

Lord, make me know your ways.
 Lord, teach me your paths.
 Make me walk in your truth, and teach me:
 for you are God my saviour.

The Lord is good and upright.
 God shows the path to those who stray,
 the Lord guides the humble in the right path;
 God teaches his way to the poor.

God's ways are faithfulness and love for those who keep his covenant and will.
 The Lord's friendship is for those who revere him;
 to them God reveals his covenant.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God,
 the Father almighty,
 Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
(all bow at the following words in bold):
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the Holy Catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting. Amen

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

We proclaim your death, O Lord,
 and profess your Resurrection,
 until you come again.

FR RICHARD ROHR OFM'S MEDITATION
 CARL JUNG AND THE GOD ARCHETYPE

Father Richard shares the importance of archetypes for the soul's encounter with God, which Jung explored in great depth.

Depth psychology tells us that our lives are guided by subconscious, ruling images which Jung calls archetypes. Jungian archetypes include the father, the mother, the eternal child, the hero, the virgin, the wise old man, the trickster, the devil, and the God image. These worldwide archetypes just keep recurring in different ways and form part of what he called "the collective unconscious." These fundamental patterns show up in dreams and behavior in every culture, fascinate the soul, and appear in symbols and stories that go as far back in time as we can go.

For Jung, the God archetype is the soul's whole-making function that drives us toward giving ourselves totally to something or someone, and initiates our desire for the absolute. It says to us: "Become who you are. Become all that you are. There is still more of you to be discovered, forgiven, and loved." In the journey toward psychic wholeness, Jung stresses the necessary role of religion or the God archetype in integrating opposites, including the conscious and the unconscious, the one and the many, good (by embracing it) and evil (by forgiving it), masculine and feminine, the small self and the Big Self. I call this deep centre of the psyche the True Self, the Christ Self, which has learned to consciously abide in union with the Presence within us (John 14:17).

Jung sees the unconscious as the seat of the "numinous," where the God archetype lives. The Latin word numen is actually another word for the Divine. Something numinous is an awesome, wondrous experience that pulls you into a transcendent moment. Jung thus offers a foundation for rediscovering the soul and recognising that soul both as within and yet shared with a much greater reality. God is not just out there! This essential insight overcomes the gap between transcendence and immanence.

Augustine (354–430) said much the same: "God is more intimate to me than I am to myself." [1] Meister Eckhart (1260–1327) preached: Between God and the soul "there is neither strangeness nor distance." [2] Yet most people have never been told there is a place to go to that's called the soul. Soul is the blueprint inside of every living thing that tells it what it is and what it can still become. When we meet anything at that level, we will respect, protect, and love it. Much of religion, I'm sorry to say, doesn't teach us or give us this essential light. It doesn't help us understand the deep character of the Incarnation and how God has chosen our soul as God's enduring dwelling place. We would have done much better to help other Christians discover their souls instead of always trying to "save" them.

Pope Francis wants . . . YOU !

Pope Francis is passionate about shaping 'a more synodal church' - that is, a Church which involves more consultation and discernment under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

As a major step in this direction he has postponed the next gathering of the worldwide Synod of Bishops until 2023 to enable a world-wide consultation to which every member of the Church is invited to contribute.

Here in our parish we will follow the Australian model of having three distinct consultations, in December and in February.

For the first consultation our parish will have two options the week after next:

Tuesday 7th December 7:30pm

Saturday 11th December 4:00pm

They will take place on ZOOM to make it easier for people to take part and will go for no longer than an hour and a quarter.. We'll advertise the Zoom links next weekend.

For background information go to:

(you can also make individual submissions)

Please be part of this opportunity Pope Francis puts before us to shape the future journey of our Church.
