SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A

FEBRUARY 14 & 15 2026

ENTRANCE ANTIphon

Be my protector, O God,
a mighty stronghold to save me.
For you are my rock, my stronghold!
Lead me, guide me, for the sake of your name.

OPENING PRAYER

Let us pray.
O God, who teach us that you abide in hearts that are just and true,
grant that we may be so fashioned by your grace
as to become a dwelling pleasing to you.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever. Amen.

SELF-REFLECTION: PURE INTENTIONS

This Sunday's Gospel, Matthew 5:20–22, 27–28, 33–34, 37: Jesus teaches that holiness begins in the heart. We are called to examine our thoughts, intentions, and words. He invites us to let go of anger, choose purity, and speak truthfully, so our lives reflect integrity and love.

I Reflect:

1. What is in my heart that needs healing?
2. Do my thoughts honour others?
3. Are my words honest and kind?
4. Do I hold onto anger?
5. How can I grow in integrity today?

Choose Truth & Love

Prayer

Teach me to live with a pure heart, truthful words, and loving intentions. Help me to let go of anger, choose honesty, and act with integrity. May my thoughts, words, and actions always reflect Your love. Amen.

First Reading: Sirach 15:15-20 (JB)

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus

He never commanded anyone to be godless.

If you wish, you can keep the commandments,
to behave faithfully is within your power.
He has set fire and water before you;
put out your hand to whichever you prefer.
Man has life and death before him;
whichever a man likes better will be given him.
For vast is the wisdom of the Lord;
he is almighty and all-seeing.
His eyes are on those who fear him,
he notes every action of man.
He never commanded anyone to be godless,
he has given no one permission to sin.

*The word of the Lord.Thanks be to God."Keep the Commandments."*Responsorial Psalm: Happy are they who follow the law of the Lord!*Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:6-10 (JB)

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

God in his wisdom predestined our glory before the ages began.

We have a wisdom to offer those who have reached maturity: not a philosophy of our age, it is true, still less of the masters of our age, which are coming to their end. The hidden wisdom of God which we teach in our mysteries is the wisdom that God predestined to be for our glory before the ages began. It is a wisdom that none of the masters of this age have ever known, or they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory; we teach what scripture calls: the things that no eye has seen and no ear has heard, things beyond the mind of man, all that God has prepared for those who love him.

These are the very things that God has revealed to us through the Spirit, for the Spirit reaches the depths of everything, even the depths of God.

*The word of the Lord.Thanks be to God."Whoever is angry with his brother will answer for it before the court."*Gospel Acclamation*Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL Matthew 5:20-22, 27-28, 33-34, 37 (JB)(SHORTENED VERSION)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Such was said to your ancestors; but I am speaking to you.

Jesus said to his disciples: I tell you, if your virtue goes no deeper than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never get into the kingdom of heaven.

'You have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not kill; and if anyone does kill he must answer for it before the court. But I say this to you: anyone who is angry with his brother will answer for it before the court.

'You have learnt how it was said: You must not commit adultery. But I say this to you: if a man looks at a woman lustfully, he has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

'Again, you have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not break your oath, but must fulfil your oaths to the Lord. But I say this to you: do not swear at all. All you need say is "Yes" if you mean yes, "No" if you mean no; anything more than this comes from the evil one.'

The Gospel of the Lord.Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

"Let all your words be simple, faithful, and without duplicity (dishonesty)."
Rule of St. Benedict, Chapter 4

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Readings: Sirach 15:15-20, 1 Corinthians 2:6-10, and Matthew 5:20-22, 27-28, 33-34, 37

Today's readings remind us that God gives us both freedom and responsibility.

In Sirach (15:15–20), we are told that we are free to choose: life or death, good or evil. God does not force us—He invites us. Our choices matter.

In 1 Corinthians (2:6–10), St Paul speaks of God's hidden wisdom, revealed through the Spirit. True wisdom is not worldly success or appearance; it is seeing with God's eyes and living according to His truth.

In Matthew 5, Jesus takes this even deeper. He moves beyond external law to the condition of the heart. It is not only about avoiding murder, adultery, or false oaths—but about anger, lust, and dishonesty within us. The heart is where real discipleship begins.

Key Thought:

God gives us the freedom to choose—but Jesus calls us to choose holiness from the inside out.

Take-Home Challenge:

This week, pause before reacting.

Before speaking, deciding, or responding—ask: Is this coming from love, truth, and a pure heart? Choose one area (anger, speech, or thoughts) and consciously invite the Holy Spirit to guide you.

Prayer

Lord, You place before me life and goodness. Fill me with Your wisdom and purify my heart. Help me choose what is right and live with integrity each day. Amen.

Father Robert Rieger
from Medjugorje –

Lenten Reflection on Eucharistic Adoration

Father Robert Rieger from Medjugorje will be visiting Our Lady of Dolours Chatswood parish on 23 February. Come along and hear Father Robert's Lenten reflection on Eucharistic Adoration.

Father Robert is a Kiwi priest who first visited Medjugorje some 36 years ago – and it changed his life forever. Father Robert now welcomes thousands of pilgrims to Medjugorje every year from all around the world – including our own pilgrims from across the Broken Bay Diocese.

Father Robert leads the Marian Community Oasis of Peace in Medjugorje, and their chapel offers Adoration around the clock, 24 hours a day. But as Father Robert will tell us, Adoration is not about the hours. It's about opening our hearts to the Lord and letting Him do something within us and for us – rather than just assuming that it's all about us doing something for him. It's His work within us that will truly change our lives.

Please join us to meet Fr Robert and hear him speak.

CATHOLIC CARE BROKEN BAY

Volunteer with CatholicCare and have a meaningful impact

There's nothing quite like giving your time and skills to support those in need. Research shows that volunteering not only benefits the people you help but also improves your own wellbeing, supporting better mental health, stronger social connections, and a deeper sense of purpose.

At CatholicCare, our volunteers contribute across a wide range of programs - helping individuals, families, and communities thrive. Every hour you give makes a difference, and in return, you'll find connection, growth, and fulfillment along the way.

Visit www.catholiccaredbb.org.au/careers/volunteer-with-us to find out more about volunteering at CatholicCare or call us today on 1800 324 924.

VALENTINE'S DAY - February 14

"Let all that you do be done in love." – 1 Corinthians 16:14

This Valentine's Day, we are reminded that love is more than a feeling—it is a way of life. Every word we speak, every action we take, and every choice we make can reflect God's love when done with care, compassion, and generosity. Whether in our families, friendships, or communities, love has the power to heal, bring joy, and strengthen bonds.

May this day inspire us to live intentionally in love, letting it guide all that we do and share, and to reflect the boundless love God has for each of us in every encounter.

ITALIAN ROSARY GROUP

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

Seven Holy Founders of the Servite Order

Feast Day: February 17

c. Thirteenth Century

Invoked to aid in the imitation of the charity and patience of Our Lady of Sorrows

Quote:

I have chosen you to be my first Servants, and under this name you are to till my Son's Vineyard. Here, too, is the habit which you are to wear; its dark colour will recall the pangs which I suffered on the day when I stood by the Cross of my only Son. Take also the Rule of Saint Augustine, and may you, bearing the title of my Servants, obtain the palm of everlasting life. ~From a vision of the Blessed Virgin Mary Reflection: Bonfilius, Alexis, Manettus, Amideus, Hugh, Sostene, and Buonagiunta were seven successful cloth merchants from Florence, Italy. As members of a lay organization dedicated to the Blessed Mother, they were each devout in their faith. Their comradery, centred around their faith, not only united them more fully to God, but also to each other with a holy bond and a holy mission.

At that time, Florence was a bustling city wrought with conflicts, due to competition between the noble rulers and the populists who sought to govern by the will of the people. Florence's economy was also booming, due to the new merchant class whose financial worth was counted in coins rather than in the amount of land and servants they possessed. Within this context, these seven holy men of Florence desired an escape from the lust for money and power, and from the conflict that continued to grow.

Around the year 1233, it is reported that all seven of these devout men individually experienced an apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary, calling them to withdraw from the world and to devote themselves entirely to the service of God. They obeyed, and on September 8, the Feast of the Birth of the Blessed Virgin Mary, they gave up their careers and property and moved into a dilapidated house outside the city wall. They embraced the mendicant life of begging, poverty, and prayer. Many were drawn to them and found in them men of wisdom and virtue. As a result, they received many requests for spiritual counsel and moral guidance. Though they were drawn to this form of charity, they soon discovered that their first calling was to a life of prayer. Their close proximity to the city of Florence hindered the solitude to which they were called, so they moved to a dwelling eleven miles from the city on Monte Senario.

Around the year 1240, at Monte Senario, the seven received a joint vision of the Blessed Virgin Mary who appeared to them surrounded by angels. She instructed them on their mission, clothed them in their habits, presented them with their rule of life, and personally founded their order.

Central to their mission was to spread devotion to the Seven Sorrows of Mary and to be her servants. Within a decade, the order was tentatively approved by the pope and their numbers began to grow. In addition to new foundations in Italy, they quickly spread to Germany, France, and Spain. By the early thirteenth century, final papal approval was given and the order spread to Hungary, Bohemia, Austria, Poland, and modern-day Belgium. Eventually, missions were established in Crete, the Philippines, and India. Today, the Servite order has expanded to all parts of Europe, Africa, Australia, and the Americas.

These holy men were called together by our Blessed Mother as they worked and lived in a growing city. Once united by their faith, they were set apart and drawn by God to a life of prayer. From that prayer, and their commitment to poverty, chastity, and obedience, God drew many others into their companionship. And through their companions, missionaries went forth to the corners of the earth.

As you ponder the lives of these holy men, especially consider the unity they shared by answering the call to pray and serve together. That unity flowed from their love of God and our Blessed Mother. It also flowed from their united obedience to their calling. United as one in Christ, each individual was strengthened and the fruitfulness of their labors grew exponentially.

You, too, are called to holiness and to a holiness that unites you with others who share your mission. Pray to God that you will be able to follow the example of these holy men by joining with those whom God has put in your life to strengthen your faith and expand the mission you have been given.

Prayer: Dearest Founders of the Servite Order, you were called and you responded. You were given direction by Our Lady herself, and you obeyed. From that obedience, God raised up an army of servants who have spent centuries sharing His love and mercy with the world. Pray for me, that I may always obey God's will and seek to serve Him alongside those whom God has placed in my life. Seven Holy Founders, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You.
