21 & 22 JUNE 2025 YEAR C

He fed them with the finest wheat and satisfied them with honey from the rock.

O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament
have left us a memorial of your Passion,
grant us, we pray,
so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood
that we may always experience in ourselves
the fruits of your redemption.
Who live and reign with God the Father
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

I'm reminded today that even when I feel like I have little to offer—my time, energy, or resources—God can work miracles with what I give in faith. Like the disciples, I sometimes doubt and want to send problems away, but Jesus invites me to trust and act. May I offer what I have, however small, and believe that God will bless and multiply it for the good of others.

I ask myself:

- What “small offering” in my life can I place in God’s hands today?
- When have I doubted that what I have is enough?
- How is God inviting me to trust Him more fully in moments of limitation?
- Who around me might be “hungry” for care, hope, or support?
- Am I willing to be part of the miracle by stepping out in faith?

God Provides in Abundance

Lord, I trust You with what I have. Take my small offerings and use them for Your glory. Help me to believe that in Your hands, there is always enough. Amen.

First Reading: Genesis 14:18-20 (JB)

A reading from the book of Genesis

Melchizedek brought bread and wine.

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing:

'Blessed be Abraham by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.' And Abraham gave him a tithe of everything.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm:

R. You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26 (JB)

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming the death of the Lord.

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL Luke 9:11-17 (JB)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

They all ate and were filled.

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing.

It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Sunday, June 22

Corpus Christi

Genesis 14:18-20/ Psalm 110:1-4/ 1 Corinthians 11:23-26/ Luke 9:11-17

Five loaves and two fish are all we have. (Luke 9:13)

Today's feast of Corpus Christi gives us the opportunity to celebrate the abundant generosity of the Lord. Our Gospel reading tells us how Jesus fed the thousands who followed him by miraculously multiplying five loaves and two fish. As wondrous as that miracle was, we see his generosity even more abundantly in his gift of the Eucharist. At every Mass throughout the world, Jesus becomes fully present: Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity. As St. Carlos Acutis would say, "Jerusalem is right on our doorstep" in the Blessed Sacrament.

It takes faith to accept the truth of this profound miracle. But every now and then, God confirms our faith with a miracle, like the one he performed at St. Mary Parish in Chirattakonam, India, in April of 2001. During Adoration, three red stains appeared on the Host. Then, a few days later, the same Host bore the likeness of a human face. Responding to these events, the local archbishop, wrote, "For us believers, what we have seen is something that we have always believed." (A description of this, and many other Eucharistic miracles, can be found at carloacutis.com.)

Whether we experience a Eucharistic miracle or not, Jesus is still present at every Mass. Just as he multiplied the five loaves and two fishes that day, he takes something so small—a simple piece of bread—and transforms it into his very flesh, to feed his people.

Today, offer Jesus your very self. Yes, the little that you have to offer him is enough! Give him your worries, your cares, but also your blessings and gifts. Trust in his miracle-working love and power to do amazing things in and through you.

"Jesus, nothing is too small for you. I worship you in the Eucharist, and I offer you the little that I have. Come and work your wonders in me!"

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Birth of Saint John the Baptist—Solemnity

Feast Day: June 24

c. 1st Century

Patron Saint of baptism, bird dealers, converts, monastic life, motorways, printers, tailors, lambs, and prisoners

Invoked against epilepsy, convulsions, hailstorms, and spasms

Pre-Congregation canonization

When Elizabeth conceived John the Baptist, she and her husband, Zechariah, “were advanced in years” (Luke 1:7). The angel Gabriel announced the child’s birth to Zechariah when his priestly clan chose him by lot to enter the Temple sanctuary to burn incense to the Lord. Zechariah was told that his wife would conceive and bear a son who would “be great in the sight of the Lord...be filled with the Holy Spirit even from his mother’s womb...turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord...will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah...turn the hearts of fathers toward children...to prepare a people fit for the Lord” (Luke 1:15–17). The announcement was joyous beyond belief. After the sorrow of having no children, Zechariah would have a child “great in the sight of the Lord.” Disbelieving the angel, Zechariah was struck mute until John was born.

That same Archangel, Gabriel, appeared to Mary to announce that she would conceive the Savior of the World by the overshadowing of the Holy Spirit. Gabriel then told her, “And behold, Elizabeth, your relative, has also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her who was called barren; for nothing will be impossible for God” (Luke 1:36–37). In the Father’s plan of salvation, John’s mission was intimately connected to that of Jesus. When Mary traveled in haste to her cousin Elizabeth to help her in the final months of her pregnancy, the unborn infant, John, leaped for joy in Elizabeth’s womb at the sound of Mary’s greeting. Saint Thomas Aquinas teaches that John was sanctified in the womb at that moment, meaning he was freed from sin and prepared for his sacred mission of preparing the way for Jesus’ ministry. Saint Thomas even speculates about that moment of sanctification as follows: “Perhaps also in this child the use of reason and will was so far accelerated that while in his mother’s womb he was able to acknowledge, believe, and consent, whereas in other children we have to wait for these things till they grow older: this again I count as a miraculous result of the divine power” (Summa Theologica 3.27.6).

John’s birth was surrounded by mystery, amazement, awe, and intrigue. St. Luke records the reaction to his birth as, “Then fear came upon all their neighbors, and all these matters were discussed throughout the hill country of Judea. All who heard these things took them to heart, saying, ‘What, then, will this child be?’ For surely the hand of the Lord was with him” (Luke 1:65–66).

Other than the Solemnity of the Birth of Christ (Christmas), the Church honors only Saint John with a solemnity on his birth. While our Blessed Mother’s Immaculate Conception is commemorated with a solemnity, her birth is celebrated with a feast. It is a great honor, indeed, to honor this unique man’s birth with the highest rank of celebration within our Church.

Saint John the Baptist, you were conceived by God’s special grace and given to parents who were barren and advanced in years. Through your conception and birth, God spoke to the world that He can do anything He so chooses and bring forth His saving grace whenever He wills. Please pray that I will more fully understand the role you played in salvation history and be more open to all that God has revealed to the world through your holy life. Saint John the Baptist, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You.
