ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

You are just, O Lord, and your judgement is right;
treat your servant in accord with your merciful love.

OPENING PRAYER

O God, by whom we are redeemed and receive adoption,
look graciously upon your beloved sons and daughters,
that those who believe in Christ
may receive true freedom and an everlasting inheritance.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.
Amen

SELF-REFLECTION: Costly Discipleship

This Sunday's Gospel, Luke 14:25-33:

Following Jesus means total commitment, even when it costs me comfort, relationships, or possessions. True discipleship asks me to place Him above everything else and being ready to let go of anything that holds me back.

I reflect:

- Do I put Christ above my relationships and possessions?
- What "cross" am I called to carry each day?
- Have I honestly considered the sacrifices of following Him?
- Do I sometimes follow only when it's convenient?
- What might I need to surrender today to be His true disciple?

Commitment and Sacrifice

Lord,
help me place You above all else in my life. Give me strength to carry my cross daily, courage to surrender
what holds me back, and faith to follow You with a true and willing heart. Amen.

First Reading: Wisdom 9:13-18 (JB)

A reading from the book of Wisdom

Who can comprehend the will of God?

What man can know the intentions of God?
 Who can divine the will of the Lord?
 The reasonings of mortals are unsure
 and our intentions unstable;
 for a perishable body presses down the soul,
 and this tent of clay weighs down the teeming mind.
 It is hard enough for us to work out what is on earth,
 laborious to know what lies within our reach;
 who, then, can discover what is in the heavens?
 As for your intention, who could have learnt it, had you not granted Wisdom and sent your holy spirit from above?
 Thus have the paths of those on earth been straightened and men been taught what pleases you,
 and saved, by Wisdom.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

Second Reading: Philemon 1: 9-10, 12-17 (JB)

A reading from the letter of St Paul to Philemon

Receive him, not as a slave anymore, but as a very dear brother.

This is Paul writing, an old man now and, what is more, still a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for a child of mine, whose father I became while wearing these chains: I mean Onesimus. I am sending him back to you, and with him - I could say - a part of my own self. I should have liked to keep him with me; he could have been a substitute for you, to help me while I am in the chains that the Good News has brought me. However, I did not want to do anything without your consent; it would have been forcing your act of kindness, which should be spontaneous. I know you have been deprived of Onesimus for a time, but it was only so that you could have him back for ever, not as a slave any more, but something much better than a slave, a dear brother; especially dear to me, but how much more to you, as a blood-brother as well as a brother in the Lord. So if all that we have in common means anything to you, welcome him as you would me.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Let your face shine on your servant,
and teach me your laws.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL Luke 14:25-33 (JB)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

All who do not renounce their possessions cannot be my disciples.

Great crowds accompanied Jesus on his way and he turned and spoke to them. 'If any man comes to me without hating his father, mother, wife, children, brothers, sisters, yes, and his own life too, he cannot be my disciple. Anyone who does not carry his cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. 'And indeed, which of you here, intending to build a tower, would not first sit down and work out the cost to see if he had enough to complete it? Otherwise, if he laid the foundation and then found himself unable to finish the work, the onlookers would all start making fun of him and saying, "Here is a man who started to build and was unable to finish." Or again, what king marching to war against another king would not first sit down and consider whether with ten thousand men he could stand up to the other who advanced against him with twenty thousand? If not, then while the other king was still a long way off, he would send envoys to sue for peace. So in the same way, none of you can be my disciple unless he gives up all his possessions.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL REFLECTION
23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
Wisdom 9:13-18 / Psalm 90 / Philemon 1:9-10, 12-17 / Luke 14:25-33

The readings this Sunday remind us that following God requires wisdom, courage, and wholehearted commitment.

- In the First Reading (Wisdom 9:13–18), we are told that human understanding is limited. Only God's Spirit can guide us to know His will. This shows us that discipleship begins not with our own plans, but with humility and openness to divine wisdom.
- The Psalm (Psalm 90) echoes this by reminding us of the shortness of life and urging us to number our days wisely. It calls us to live each moment intentionally, seeking meaning and purpose in God rather than chasing fleeting things.
- In the Second Reading (Philemon 9–10, 12–17), Paul appeals to Philemon to welcome Onesimus, not as a slave but as a beloved brother. This reveals the transforming power of discipleship—true commitment to Christ changes how we treat one another, breaking down walls of status and division.
- In the Gospel (Luke 14:25–33), Jesus speaks boldly about the cost of following Him. He calls His disciples to place Him above family, possessions, and even personal comfort, to carry their cross, and to count the cost. Discipleship is not half-hearted; it demands everything.

The connection among the readings is clear:

To truly follow Christ, we need God's wisdom to guide us (Wisdom), a heart that recognizes the shortness of life and seeks what truly matters (Psalm), relationships transformed by love and equality in Christ (Philemon), and the courage to embrace the radical cost of discipleship (Gospel).

Key Thought

Discipleship is not easy—it requires letting go, choosing wisely, loving deeply, and surrendering fully. But when we do, we discover true life in Christ.

Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary

When you follow her, you will not go astray;
When you pray to her, You will not despair;
When you think of her, You will not err;
When she holds you up, You will not fail;
When she protects you, You will not fear;
When she leads you, You will not be fatigued;
When she favors you, You will arrive safely.

She keeps her Son from striking us;
She keeps the devil from hurting us;
She keeps our virtues from escaping us;
She keeps our merits from being destroyed;
She keeps our graces from being lost.

—St Bernard.

HAPPY FATHERS' DAY

"The quality of a father can be seen in the goals, dreams and aspirations he sets not only for himself, but for his family." ~ Reed Markham ~

This Father's Day, we pause to honour the men who have shaped our lives with love, patience and wisdom. A father's role is not only about providing; it's about being present, showing kindness, leading by example and walking beside us through life's challenges. Fathers encourage us when we doubt ourselves, offer guidance when we feel uncertain and celebrate our joys as if they were their own.

So, this Father's Day we honour fathers past and present, near and far. We reflect on the ways their love, wisdom and presence have influenced us and shaped the people we are today.

PIETY SHOP NEWS

We invite you to take a moment to explore our Piety Shop. ## CATECHISTS' NEWS

'The Spirituality of the Catechist' by Michael Tebbutt, Openness to God continued "The love of the Father for the Son, and the love of the Son for the Father and from this love, is the Holy Spirit who completes this relationship of love. As St Augustine said, 'our hearts are restless, Lord, until they find their rest in You.' By being open to a relationship with the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, we will find our rest in our God."

Free training continues for all Catechists to be provided by the CCD –

Level 2 training for fully authorised Catechists on "The Church in the 3rd Millenium" continues on Friday 12th Sep 10am -12:15pm via Zoom. The topic this week is "The History of Liturgy"

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Peter Claver, Priest

Feast Day: September 9
c. 1581-1654

Patron Saint of African missions, African-Americans, black missions, black people, foreign missions, interracial justice, slaves, and Colombia
Invoked against slavery

Saint Peter Claver was born to devout, upper-class parents in Verdú, Catalonia, Spain. At age twenty, he entered the Jesuit novitiate. At the Jesuit college of Montesión on Mallorca, off the Spanish coast, Peter decided to become a missionary in the South American Spanish colonies. In 1610, he set sail for Cartagena, Colombia, a major hub in the transatlantic slave trade that had replaced enslavement of the indigenous people. By 1610, Spanish ships transported an estimated 10,000 slaves to Cartagena to be sold annually. Disease and malnutrition on the slave ships led to the deaths of one-third of the slaves during the journey. Despite Church outcries, the cruel behavior continued.

After six years of study in Tunja and Bogotá, Father Claver committed himself to serving the African slaves. He signed his final profession: "Peter Claver, slave of the slaves, forever." During thirty-eight years as a priest in Cartagena, Father Claver catechized and baptized an estimated 300,000 slaves. He waited at the port for a new slave ship to arrive, each containing as many as 500 slaves. For the two-to-three month journey, they were poorly fed once a day, chained naked to each other, abused, threatened, and forced to sit in their own excrement and vomit. Their metal shackles caused the flesh on their wrists to bleed and become infected.

Once the ship arrived, Father Claver begged door-to-door for food for his new flock. With a small band of interpreters and charitable workers, he entered the foul-smelling hull of the ship where many lay dead, while the fearful survivors needed medical treatment and compassion. As a sign of love, he kissed their sores, sucked out the infectious pus, and washed the wounds with his handkerchiefs. He would baptize any babies, provide food, and demonstrate a compassion that many had never seen. He then helped transport the slaves to a new location, carrying those who could not walk, where they could be well fed and regain their strength before being sold.

Father Claver's primary concern was the salvation of souls, but he chastised the oppressors, calling them to repentance for their cruelty. He preached the Gospel to the slaves in ways they could understand and helped them see their innate dignity. He told them that there was a loving God who died for their sins, who wanted to forgive them and fill them with joy. He held up the crucifix, revealing the God Who suffered for them, showing them the way to Heaven. As they listened, learned, believed, and converted, they were baptized, often a moment of tears and rejoicing. If a ship was not due for months, Peter traveled the countryside to see those he had baptized. Upon arriving on a plantation, he spent his time with the slaves, sleeping and eating in the slaves' quarters. He further instructed them in the Catholic faith, taught them to pray, and offered hope.

After decades of ministry to the slaves, Father Claver fell ill. One of his caregivers, a slave, mistreated him in his final days. Father Claver accepted this treatment, uniting it with Christ's suffering on the Cross as a form of penance for his own sins and as a way to deepen his communion with the slaves.

Saint Peter Claver, you journeyed into the hellish conditions of abuse and suffering, caused by greed and a lack of respect for human dignity. You brought Christ's light, administered the Sacraments, and gave hope to those who needed it most. Please pray that I will be a beacon of hope for those in need, by preaching Christ Crucified and making the salvation of souls, beginning with my own, my first priority. Saint Peter Claver, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You.
