Parish Feast – Our Lady of the Rosary

Thank you to all parishioners and friends who joined us for our Parish Feast celebrations last Tuesday. It was a beautiful evening of prayer, seeking Our Mother's intercession for the needs of our parish community, and of joyful fellowship.

A special word of thanks to all the visiting priests who led us through the novena of preparation, and to everyone who worked so generously behind the scenes — in the preparations and in the clean-up afterward — to ensure the celebration was meaningful and memorable for all.

May God bless you abundantly and reward your generosity of spirit.

Jubilee of Marian Spirituality | 11&12 October

This weekend, we celebrate the Jubilee of Marian Spirituality, recognising how devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary strengthens the faith of individuals and, in turn, enriches the life of the Church.

True devotion to Mary invites us not only to honour her for her unique role in salvation history but also to imitate her virtues and follow her example of faithful conformity to Christ.

Some ideas to celebrate Marian Spirituality: create a Marian prayer space at home, meditate the Magnificat, pray the Rosary, follow Mary's example of selflessness by helping those in need, pray a Marian novena.

Apostolic Blessings

Is your family celebrating a special milestone? The Parish office can assist parishioners in obtaining an Apostolic blessing from Pope Leo on occasion of a Baptism, First Communion, Confirmation, Marriage, Priestly or Diaconate Ordination, Religious Profession, Wedding Anniversaries, and Birthdays.

October is World Mission Month

Since biblical times, missionaries have carried the message of Christ to every corner of the world. Next weekend, we will hold the annual Catholic Mission Appeal, and you are warmly invited to support this vital work of the Church. Your generosity helps bring hope, faith, and practical assistance to communities in need — making a real difference in the lives of many.

Sit & Chat Seniors Group

Join us for Sit & Chat on Friday, 31 October, after the 9:00am Mass. Enjoy fun games designed to stimulate both body and mind, followed by a relaxing morning tea to build friendships and strengthen social connections. All seniors are warmly welcome!
