Let Us Remember

Good Shepherd (Vocations) Sunday

Pope Francis released his message for Vocations Sunday in which he focuses on the theme: “Called to sow seeds of hope and to build peace”. In his message, Pope Francis calls on everyone to: “Let Jesus draw you to himself; bring him your important questions; let him challenge you by his presence; More than anyone else, Jesus respects our freedom.” This Day, is dedicated in a particular way to imploring from the Father the gift of holy vocations for the building up of his Kingdom: “Ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest” (Lk 10:2).

Dignitas Infinita – human dignity

Last week the Vatican’s released the Declaration Dignitas Infinita or Infinite Dignity.

The Declaration states that “every human person possesses an infinite dignity, inalienably grounded in his or her very being – “which prevails in and beyond every circumstance, state, or situation the person may ever encounter”. There are passages and quotes not only from Pope Francis, but also his predecessors Popes John Paul II and Benedict XVI.

Our Church leaders recommend the Declaration for study and reflection – not just dipping into headlines and short reports but going to the primary source which can be found on the

Our Pastoral Works appeal connects everyone to the mission of Jesus Christ in our Diocese. The PWBB May appeal is the last one for the financial year 2023/2024 and we are $6, 730 short of our yearly target. All donations over $2 are tax deductible.
