Today's Liturgy of the Word & Antiphons

Entrance Antiphon	All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments. But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.
First Reading	Am 6:1. 4-7; You who give yourself to licentiousness and revelry will be exiled.
Responsorial Psalm	Praise the Lord, my soul!
Second Reading	1 Tm 6:11-16; Obey the commandments until the coming of the Lord.
Gospel Acclamation	Alleluia, alleluia! Jesus Christ was rich but he became poor, to make you rich out of his poverty. Alleluia!
Gospel	Lk 16:19-31; During your life good things came your way just as bad things came the way of Lazarus. Now he is being comforted while you are in agony.
Communion Antiphon	Remember your word to your servant, O Lord, by which you have given me hope. This is my comfort when I am brought low.

Pope Francis Prayer Intentions for September

For the abolition of the death penalty.

We pray that the death penalty, which attacks the dignity of the human person, may be legally abolished in every country.

World Day of Migrants and Refugees

Today the Catholic Church commemorates the 108th World Day of Migrants and Refugees. This year, Pope Francis has chosen "Building the Future with Migrants and Refugees" as the theme to highlight the importance of committing ourselves to the call of building together a future that embraces God's plan. The Holy Father highlights the critical need for all to work together in creating an environment in which we can all live together in harmony and dignity, particularly during a year when the world experienced migration in record numbers from all corners of the world.

Let us realign our goals today, and celebrate those who have come as migrants and refugees. May we help raise up those who are bowed down, so that "the Lord will reign for ever, Zion's God, from age to age". Psalm 146:10
