My dear Parishioners,

As we begin with Advent our New liturgical Year, I wish you and your families the gift of this time in preparation for Christmas “The Emmanuel the hope for all peoples.”

Thank you for your ongoing commitment in and through Ministry and presence as worshippers. The joy that accompanies us on our journey in faith and the many people who feel touched by the way each of you gift yourself you touch the hearts of the faithful.

On behalf of our community I say Thank you to each of you and your families.

While we begin another year with gratitude may hope, faith, joy, and peace, give us the grace within ourselves and our families to open our hearts and homes to celebrate Emmanuel God with us.

Christmas is a time that we draw a lot of people in our congregations, some known and some unknown, some new, some old, some first-timers, others last-timers, others we see only at Christmas, whatever they have in mind, they come to seek our Saviour. These are humble beginnings... I encourage each of you to share the burdens of these beginnings. May our personal outreach reach others with the gift of love.

Our Christmas Masses will be listed below. I Invite you all to join hands together and make sure we extend that heart and hands of joy with the generous gift of Emmanuel, Our God with us.

Thank you once again, I look forward to a grace-filled Advent and Christmas with you and your families.

God Bless
