In Fr David's Absence

REFLECTION by Fr Michael Tate

Some religions, and even strands of Catholicism, try to suppress appetites in order to achieve some 'out-of-this-world' liberation. But appetites are good things, telling us what we humans need as bodily, social, spiritual beings. They provide a reality check against our tendency to think that salvation is exclusively about the soul.

Our appetites for food and drink, for affection and companionship, for the truth about the Big Picture of our life journey, need to be satisfied or we disintegrate in various ways.

Our Lord Jesus Christ proclaims in today's Gospel that He is the total satisfaction of our deepest human appetites: 'I am the Bread from Heaven which gives life to the world.'

That 'Life' is nothing less than participation in Divine Life, existing in the Big Picture in the way God intended. That is the nourishment offered not to a particular tribe or ethnic group, but to the whole of humanity, indeed to the whole of creation.

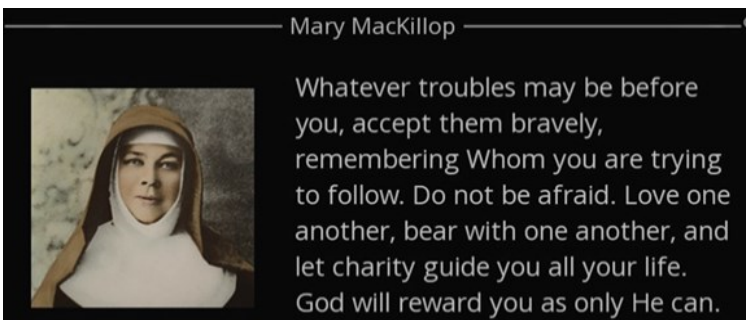

We could take a moment to pray for faith to recognise that the bread brought up at the Offertory is truly transformed: no longer short term food like manna in the desert, but 'the Bread of Life', the Real Presence of the One who nourishes our humanity, indeed who gives Life to the world.

This Wednesday, 8th August, we celebrate the Feast Day of

St Mary of the Cross MacKillop

Saint Mary MacKillop is Australia's first and only saint. Mary believed all children, no matter how rich or poor, should be given the opportunity to receive an education. Mary set up many schools around Australia, especially in remote areas. She also became a nun and founded a religious order called the Sisters of Saint Joseph of the Sacred Heart.

Mary MacKillop died in August 1909 at age 67. Mary was canonised more than one hundred years later, on 17 October 2010.

Mary MacKillop

Whatever troubles may be before you, accept them bravely, remembering Whom you are trying to follow. Do not be afraid. Love one another, bear with one another, and let charity guide you all your life. God will reward you as only He can.

God, we ask that they especially feel your closeness during this time.

Give them calm hearts and quiet confidence in the knowledge that you hold them in the palm of your hand. Bless them with keen understanding and retentive memory.

Give them the ability to grasp things correctly.

Point out the beginning, direct their progress and help them in the completion of each of their responses.

50's And Over Singles Group

The recent outing of the above group was to see the Archibald Paintings at the NSW Art Gallery on the 27th. July 2018. When we arrived at the gallery we had time for morning tea at the Gallery Restaurant and then joined a guided tour of the portrait paintings. The tour guide told us a something about the artist and their technique and also who the person was sitting for the portrait. We also saw the Sulman paintings and the Wyne paintings in an adjoining room.

After viewing the paintings we then went to the Gallery restaurant where we had lunch and spoke about our thoughts on the exhibition. Once we had finished lunch we left the Gallery and walked through the Domain to Martin Place and took a train to Wynyard and boarded the next train to the North Shore.

The next excursion for the group is to visit the Sydney Observatory at Miller's Point on Friday 31st August 2018.

We will meet at Gordon Railway Station at 4.30 pm and take the next train to Wynyard and change for Circular Quay.

We can walk to the Observatory and have dinner and then visit the Observatory. There are three phases to participate in the planetarium, a talk and then a look through the telescope. The cost for the entry to the Observatory is $8.00 for seniors. The visit may finish at 9.00 pm and then we can walk back to Circular Quay and take a train to Wynyard and then catch a train back to our destinations. Enquiries please phone Susan Robson on 0404 005 267 or Reg Gibbons on 9481 0334 or 0409 599 440.

Spirit of St Lucy's

It has been an exciting start to Term 3 for our students at St Lucy's. They all enjoyed a lovely extended holiday and were indeed ready to return! This week we welcomed a group of about 30 students and their teachers from St Ignatius, Riverview, who spent the day with us on Tuesday. This was part of their school's Feast Day celebration and is an ongoing connection between our two schools. One group of boys joined the Aurora Class on an outing to Zone Bowling at Hornsby. It was a very fun experience for all who attended!

National Vocations Awareness Week (NVAW) 5-12 August 2018 provides an opportunity for all Australian dioceses, parishes and schools to focus at the same time on the 'call to holiness' that arises from our Baptism, and thus to further foster a Vocations Culture across Australia.

5-12 AUGUST

VOCATIONS AWARENESS WEEK

VOCATIONS MINISTRY DIOCESE OF BROKEN BAY

National Vocations Awareness Week – the Church in Broken Bay needs more Priests, Deacons and Religious. Each one of us can do something about this. Firstly – pray each day. A simple prayer may be the cause of one person saying 'yes'. Secondly – talk about the possibility of a vocation to others. Lend your voice to the call of the Lord.
