Remembering our Deceased through November

We welcome everyone to submit photos of their deceased relatives and friends for display during this coming November. The back of the framed photo (no larger than A4) should identify the deceased, together with the name and contact number of the contributor. The photos may be left at any stage during November in front of the lectern on the sanctuary or in the box at the entrance to the Church.

A Book of Remembrance is available for us to record the names of those we would like to be remembered in prayer through the month of November.

If you would like a Mass celebrated for the special intention of someone who has died, please fill out the details on one of the envelopes that are available at the entrances to the church. These can be left in any of the collection boxes or given to the Parish Office or Fr Anselam or Fr Joey directly.

Afternoon Tea for Twenty at Holy Name Gardens Let's Keep Together in this time of Distancing !

Would you like to join a group of other parishioners for BYO afternoon tea on the lawn of the church on a Sunday afternoon so that we can continue to celebrate our connections with each other? We are hoping to have an afternoon tea on Sunday 22nd November if there are enough people interested.

A huge thank you to our Parents and Carers, who, under the guidance of our Sacramental Co-ordinator, Mrs Sally Oong, have taken on the task of instructing their children in the Sacramental Program at home.

You have all done a wonderful job. We are very appreciative of this and happy to have been able to assist you in celebrating this journey with your children.

A Reflection

The Hour and the Time

Israel was often portrayed as a bride in Jewish scriptures. So, the question was: 'When would the Bridegroom – the Anointed One of God, the Christ – appear?' Jesus' warning is to the attendants of the bride: 'Be alert, be vigilant, be prepared.' Some (the five foolish attendants) did miss the moment: the earthly ministry of Jesus of Nazareth.

But his warning is also for the Catholic Church which is the new Bride of Christ. We are the attendants to the Bride and the imperative applies to us also: Be alert, be vigilant. Be prepared for the eruption, the intervention of Our Lord Jesus Christ, the Bridegroom, into our history, into our moment of time.

For example, is Christ coming to meet us in the modern movements which demand to hold authority accountable, or which press for just recognition of women? We can foolishly remain in the dark or we can wisely try to throw light on these questions. Only then we will be able to discern whether indeed it is the Lord who is approaching.

We could pause to pray that we be ready when the Bridegroom responds to the ancient prayer: 'Come, Lord Jesus!'

Spirit of St Lucy's

Grandparents Day

Last Friday, we gathered ahead of All Saints Day to give thanks for the many saints that are our grandparents! We feel that these special people are saints in the lives of the St Lucy's children because they love and accept them for who they are, and demonstrate great faith and belief in recognising their grandchildren's gifts and ensuring they can live by them in a true and honest way.

We held a special liturgy within our classrooms, with some classes continuing the focus with some themed activities to enhance the meaning for their students. A special thank you to the Aquarius Class staff for preparing our beautiful liturgy.
