12th June The Most Holy TRINITY

Dear Parishioners,

Today is Trinity Sunday. God has been revealed to us as the Holy Trinity. He shows us His glory and power, and He invites us to love Him in return for His great love for each of us, and for all creation. The Gospel reminds us that there is only one God, and in God, there are three divine Persons - the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

The Trinity is the manner in which Catholics believe God is revealed to the world. The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us, "The mystery of the Holy Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith and of the Christian life." (CCC, #261)

The Church teaches that God is "mystery," an eternal mystery, beyond our capacity to understand. It is a mystery to be contemplated, not a mystery to be solved.

Traditionally, the Church expressed this as, God being revealed as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, three expressions or "persons" of one divine essence. The Trinity is one. Catholics do not believe in three Gods but rather one God in a unity of three persons with one divine nature.

God is three "persons" but one "essence." The Father is just as much "God" as the Son and neither is "more God" than the Spirit. Each is an "expression" of the One God.

We can recall four times we acknowledge the Trinity:

1. We are the community of the Baptised. Following the "great commission" of the Lord to his apostles, we have all been baptised "in the name of the father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."
2. Almost every time we pray or enter a church, and at the beginning and the end of every Mass, we bless ourselves with the Trinitarian Formula – in the name of Father, Son & Holy Spirit.
3. Our opening greeting at each Mass is a Trinitarian greeting: "The grace (love) of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God (the Father), and the communion (love) of the Holy Spirit, be with you all." This is drawn from St Paul in 2 Corinthians 13.14.
4. At the end of the Eucharistic Prayer, the priest recites this concluding doxology, praising the Trinity. In this prayer, the priest elevates the consecrated bread and wine, the sacrament of the Body and blood of Christ, above all temporal realities, and says: "Through Him, with Him and in Him (ie: Jesus Christ), in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honour is yours, almighty Father, forever and ever." This Eucharistic Doxology at the end of the Eucharistic Prayer expresses our praise of God, acknowledging God's greatness and adoring the eternal Trinity of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

This week Fr Sam and I will be away at the Clergy Conference. We are very grateful to Fr Hilarion from St Benedict's Monastery, at Arcadia for celebrating morning Mass Tuesday 14th June to Friday 17th June. Please make him welcome.

With my prayers and good wishes for all the Parishioners of Holy Name, Fr Paul

Congratulations to Chrissie and Chris Goldrick on the arrival of their first grandchild, Eamon, who was born on 4th June. Congratulations also to proud parents Jonathan and Brittany.

What does the Word of God say to us today – Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

First Reading (Proverbs 8:22-31). This reading in praise of the wisdom of God can be seen as a moving towards the revelation of the mystery of the Trinity.

Second Reading (Romans 5:1-5). Christ made possible for us a relationship of love with God. This gives us the hope and sustains us in time of suffering. The Holy Spirit helps us to recognize God's love for us.

Gospel (John 16:12-15). The Holy Spirit helps the Church to grasp the full meaning of all Jesus said, especially what he said about the Father.

In biblical times it was common for wisdom to be personified in the feminine. The Second Reading and the Gospel are chosen because they specifically mention the three Persons of the Blessed Trinity, and the role of each Person in our salvation.

St Paul stresses the role of Christ in our salvation. Through him hostility and alienation are overcome, and we are able to enter into relationship with the Father. Therefore, we can hope to share God's glory. This sure hope will enable us to persevere in spite of suffering. Through the Holy Spirit God's love is poured into our hearts.

The Gospel stresses the role of the Spirit - carrying on in the Church the work of Jesus after Jesus has departed to the Father. There will be no further revelation. There can't be, because Jesus is the revelation of the Father. The role of the Spirit will be to enlighten successive generations to the contemporary significance of what Jesus said and did.

Quotes for the Week

"The sign of the cross reminds us of the Trinity which resides in us, of God's name and of our commitment to the faith from the moment of baptism.

Benedict XVI

*"Most Blessed Trinity of love
For whom the human heart was made,
To You be praise in timeless song,
And everlasting homage paid."*

The Most Holy BODY and BLOOD of CHRIST (Corpus Christi)
Preparing for next Sunday— 19th June

The Solemnity of Corpus Christi, the body and blood of Christ, highlights one of the distinctive features of Catholic faith, among the world religions and philosophies.

Jesus refers to himself as “the living bread come down from heaven”. We, his disciples, are to be fed and nourished by this “living bread come down from heaven” as we make our way to the freedom and joy and eternal salvation of our homeland in heaven, where we will remain in the love of the Trinity.

St John tells us at the beginning of his Gospel that Jesus is the Word of God made flesh. By his word, this sacrament of the body and blood of Christ is instituted:

He broke bread saying:
“Take and eat if it, for this is my body,
which will be given up for you.”

He took the chalice saying:
“This is the chalice of my blood...
which will be poured out for you.”

Bread and wine is transformed, trans-substantiated by the power of Jesus’ Word and the action of the Spirit. This is something not of our own making, but something instituted by Christ himself: we celebrate the Eucharist at his command: “Do this in remembrance of me; do this in memory of me”

Parent Engagement Coordinator (PEC) & Special Education Teachers Needed

Parent Engagement Coordinator (PEC)

With students at the centre of everything we do, our purpose is to inspire hearts and minds to know Christ and grow in faith. We encourage students to use their talents to be the best they can be. In order to help support this vision, we are looking for an inspiring and faith-led Parent Engagement Coordinator.

The Parent Engagement Coordinator role has been developed in direct response to community feedback and aligned with the towards 2025 strategy to strengthen family, school and diocesan relationships. This process was undertaken in consultation with key stakeholders; CSBB leaders, principals, parents, clergy, Catholic care and the chancery. This part time position will play a crucial role in building and maintaining a welcoming, respectful community, while strengthening relationships between school, parents/families and the wider catholic community. The PEC must be adaptable, creative and able to customise their work to meet the diverse needs of the community and respond to parent feedback.

PEC will primarily work in partnership with a range of stakeholders: the principal, parents/carers/families, school counsellor, Catholic Care, Parish priest and the Religious Education Coordinator/Youth Minister. The PEC will work in two focus areas; supporting Family Wellbeing to promote learning & engaging all families in the Catholic school community.

If you are someone passionate about strengthening family, school, parish, and Diocesan relationships this might be the right opportunity for you, providing a potential pathway to other leadership positions.

For further information regarding the PEC position, please contact

St. Lucy's School has some exciting employment opportunities

We are looking for Primary and Secondary Special Education teachers for our Wahroonga campus, for positions commencing immediately.

Our classroom teachers are the 'project manager' for their class and leads the classroom team providing direction and instructions to the teacher's aides. They are responsible for the social, emotional, physical, and spiritual well-being of their students and for their progress in all areas of the curriculum.

This is a wonderful educational community to work in - there is an unwavering commitment to inclusion, professional learning, and staff wellbeing.

Please see our website for details on how to apply. Careers at St Lucy's School - St Lucy's School \(stlucys.nsw.edu.au\)

A Wonderful Opportunity.....

Holy Name is part of KCEA (Ku-ring-gai Christian Education Association), a wonderful ecumenical initiative of eight (8) local Christian Churches who provide a full time Scripture teacher at our local high school (Ku-ring-gai High School).

It is a highly successful program which has now been providing Christian religious education to the students for more than thirty (30) years. We are looking for two (2) new representatives from Holy Name Parish to join the committee. It is not an arduous task—four (4) evening meetings throughout the year and three (3) Prayer Breakfasts. It would suit ladies and/or gentlemen with, but not necessary, an interest in education or ecumenism.

This is an extremely rewarding ministry.

Saints We Remember in the Coming Weeks

St Anthony of Padua (1195—1231) Feast Day 13 June

Anthony's birth and baptismal name was Fernando Martins. He was born in Portugal in 1195 to a wealthy family, yet he felt called to the priesthood and chose a life of poverty. At the age of fifteen he traveled to the capital of Portugal to study to become a priest. After his ordination, he lived at an abbey and was responsible for taking care of visiting guests. Once when some Franciscans were visiting, Fernando felt called to join their order. When he took the vows of this order, he changed his name to Anthony.

Anthony was not known for his preaching abilities and his superior told him, "Just say what the Holy Spirit wants you to." (In other words, don't prepare anything and God will give you the words to say.) His homily was so well received that he was from then on asked to preach to various groups. He became known as a great preacher as everyone could understand what he was trying to teach.

Books back in this time were rare and highly treasured. Anthony had a book that he often used for reference when teaching. One day it was stolen. Saint Anthony prayed that the thief would return it. His prayer was answered. The thief even eventually became a member of his religious order! (This is why Saint Anthony is often called upon by people who are searching for lost items.)

St Aloysius Gonzaga (1568-1591) Feast Day 21 June

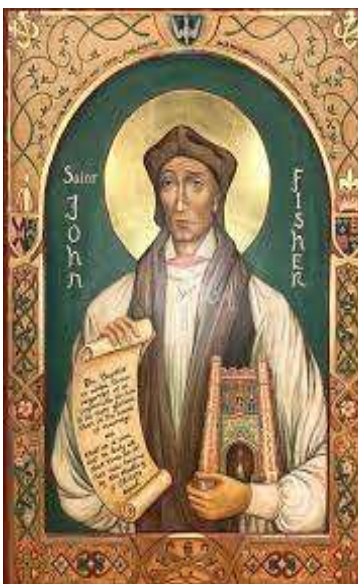

St. Aloysius was born in , Italy. The first words St. Aloysius spoke were the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary. He was destined for the military by his father but by the age of 9 Aloysius had decided on a religious life, and made a vow of perpetual virginity. To safeguard himself from possible temptation, he would keep his eyes persistently downcast in the presence of women.

St. Charles Borromeo gave him his first Holy Communion. A kidney disease prevented St. Aloysius from a full social life for a while, so he spent his time in prayer and reading the lives of the saints. Although he was appointed a page in Spain, St. Aloysius kept up his many devotions and austerities, and was quite resolved to become a Jesuit. His family eventually moved back to Italy, where he taught catechism to the poor.

When he was 18, he joined the Jesuits, after finally breaking down his father, who had refused his entrance into the order. He served in a hospital during the plague of 1587 in Milan, and died from it at the age of 23, after receiving the last rites from St. Robert Bellarmine. The last word he spoke was the Holy Name of Jesus.

Sts John Fisher and Thomas More Feast Day 22 June

St John Fisher (bishop)

The joint Feast Day of Saints John Fisher (1469-1535) and Thomas More (1478—1535) serves as an inspiration to both clergy and laity in the Church and modern world. As a priest and bishop, John Fisher was martyred on June 22, 1535, for his opposition to the marriage of King Henry VIII to Anne Boleyn and his refusal to acknowledge Henry as supreme head of the Church of England. Two weeks later, on July 6, Thomas More, a husband and father, was martyred in the tower of London for the same reasons.

Both were canonized saints on May 19, 1935, by Pope Pius XI. For all the baptized, both citizens and politicians, the stories of John Fisher and Thomas More are yet another reminder that faith cannot remain a private concern but must also animate our public lives of integrity. Saints John Fisher and Thomas More teach us that this can only come about through Christians with a courageous conscience, being faithful to truth and having a proper understanding of the relationship between church and state.
