13 October - 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear friends,

In the gospel of St. Mark (Mk 10: 17-30) this week Jesus encounters the young man who wants to follow Jesus. Having kept all the commandments he asks what must he do to inherit eternal life? Jesus says to him, 'Go sell everything you have and give it to the poor, then come follow me.' The gospel says: '.... his face fell at these words and he went away sad for he was a man of great wealth.'

While the encounter between Jesus and the rich young man is one of compassion as the gospel says: ... 'Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him.' We can see the desire and the deep loss the young man feels when Jesus places this command before him. We can see the contrast with the rich young man's desire to follow Jesus, and Jesus' empathy for his struggle to give away his wealth.

In the 1960's and 70's another man of great wealth was the Texan billionaire John Paul Getty who refused to give money to charities arguing that it made people lazy. Besides, he saw giving money to needy people as unrewarding and wrong. Getty married five times and told an interviewer: 'I would give all my wealth away for a successful marriage. I hate being a failure.' He admitted that money could not buy him happiness.

Our happiness, our blessedness, is recognising the importance of our encounter with the Lord each day and walking in his ways so that, we may gain the greater treasure which is the Kingdom of Heaven.

At Masses this weekend, we welcome Dorothy Makasa, a guest speaker on behalf of Catholic Mission. Thank you for supporting the 2024 Catholic Mission Church Appeal—donation envelopes are available in the church.

I will be taking annual leave from 15 October, returning 5 November. Thanks to Fr John and Fr Sunny for helping with Masses in my absence. We are very grateful Communion Services will be offered some weekdays by parishioners when a Mass is not possible.

Blessings,

Fr. Kelvin.

This Weekend 12th & 13th October — Catholic Mission Appeal

In Mongolia, Chuluunbaatar suffered a life-altering injury while trying to rescue a submerged vehicle, leaving him unable to work and reliant on scarce support services for basic needs. Without shelter and food, Chuluunbaatar faces the real risk of freezing to death.

Resources are limited, but the Church in Mongolia is working hard to provide essential services to people in need.

This World Mission Month, we invite you to extend your generosity to help enhance these vital services. Your support can make a significant difference to the lives of many, offering hope and tangible assistance to individuals like Chuluunbaatar.
