Jesus, Body and Blood,
we are grateful for the gift

From Fr David

Dear friends,

This last week was scheduled as our annual Clergy Conference in the Diocese. With the lockdown and restrictions it was not possible for us to gather at St Joseph's Conference Centre in Baulkham Hills as we ordinarily do. However, rather than not gather at all, it was decided to proceed with our meeting in a virtual way. So, on Tuesday night 72 of our clergy, on appointment and retired, came together with Bishop Anthony via Zoom. Following a presentation from him and some sharing from a range of Parish Priests about how their communities engaged the challenges of the pandemic, we prayed Evening Prayer together. We did something similar again on Thursday evening. On Wednesday and Thursday we met online in smaller groups for our annual Safeguarding Seminar and for a presentation from our Diocesan Financial Administrator, Ms Emma McDonald. The venture was highly successful and effective, and though the mode of meeting is not being considered as a substitute for face-to-face meetings in the future, it did demonstrate to us the online capacity also to bring us together. We think this will be of enormous assistance going forward.

We are now beginning to reflect on what we have learnt from the last several months. They came upon us so quickly, but as they say necessity is the mother of invention, and now we have new means for communication and connection. It is clear to me now that social media, for example, is now an essential component of ministry. Podcasting and YouTubing will always now be a part of homily preparation and delivery!

Little by little we will recommence our parish activities. It may be judicious for us to just see what outcomes of the recent public protests might manifest. These will be clear in the next week. On this basis, and with the lifting further of restrictions we will then bring back various parish activities. We are now in Week 7 of Term 2 of the school year. The commencement of Term 3 on Monday 20 July may be a good date for us to work towards bringing a range of parish activities back to life, especially our Sacramental Preparation Programme which has been in suspension since mid-March.
