16 May 2021— The ASCENSION of the LORD

From Fr Paul

Last weekend we celebrated Mother's Day. We honoured mothers and prayed for mothers in each Mass. We also marked the renewal of marriage vows on the 50th wedding anniversary of Denis and Mary Mockler, who were married at Holy Name church in May, 1971. Two of their four children, Andrew and Sarah, attended Saint Edmund's College, Wahroonga. Denis and Mary have nothing but gratitude to the Lord for the gift of their marriage and the gift of their family, with whatever crosses and challenges have been part of their life.

These celebrations reminded me that we belong to a Church and a parish that celebrates and upholds the sanctity of human life, respect and dignity of the human person, the ideal of a lifelong commitment in marriage and the values of family life.

This past week we have marked the passing of two men connected with our parish community: David Combes (father of Margaret, Theresa, David and Kieron) and Colin Higgins (son of Norma and Athol). Their passing also serves to remind us that our faith is to be lived in this life and that we look forward to "the life of the world to come". Jesus spoke often of the kingdom of heaven, saying this was the reward and destiny of those who lived in faith and sought to follow him with a sincere heart.

This weekend we held a special formation session and gathering for the Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist who regularly visit Catholic patients in the San Hospital. In the coming weeks there will be similar gatherings of various ministry groups. These are opportunities for renewal and the opportunity to reconnect with one another.

Next weekend on Pentecost Sunday, parishioners will be invited to consider joining a ministry group in the life of the parish. Is there a ministry or way you would like to be involved in serving our faith community?

On Monday, 24th May we look forward to celebrating a special Mass at 10.30am to mark the feast day of Mary, Help of Christians, Patroness of our nation Australia and to give thanks to God for 200 years of Catholic Education in Australia. At that Mass there will be representatives from the Broken Bay Catholic Schools Office, parishioners, and representatives from Saint Lucy's school, Saint Edmund's College and Prouille.

Next Sunday we will celebrate the great feast of Pentecost, marking the special coming of the Holy Spirit and the birth of the Church. I wish you, our parishioners well for this last week of Eastertide for 2021.

Readings and Reflections

The Readings for this Sunday: The Ascension of the Lord

First Reading (Acts 1:1-11): This describes the ascension of Jesus into heaven, and his promise to send the Holy Spirit to his disciples.

Second Reading (Ephesians 1:17-23): Here Paul describes the meaning of the Ascension: God raised Jesus above all earthly powers, and made him head of the Church and Lord of creation.

Gospel (Mark 16:15-20): Before ascending to his Father, Jesus commissions his apostles to preach the Gospel to the whole world.

In the Ascension, the Lord Jesus:

- i) took up his throne as king over all creation; he is “far above every principality, authority, power and dominion.” (Ephesians 1.21)
- ii) has “passed through the heavens as high priest who has been tested in every way, yet without sin.” (Hebrews 4)
- iii) opened the door for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. (Romans 5.5)
- iv) has created a longing among us for his return; “This Jesus ... will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven.” (Acts 1.11)

‘Heaven’ is where God is; and to be with God eternally is to be ‘in heaven’. And that is what the Ascension means: Jesus is totally and forever reunited with the Father. The actual words of Acts are that “a cloud took him from their sight”. A cloud in Scripture is very often a symbol for God, so the expression means that God the Father took his incarnate Son back to himself. And that is also the meaning of the Gospel text that the “Lord Jesus...was taken up into heaven”.

The Resurrection, the Ascension and Pentecost are part of the one great event. In one action that goes beyond earthly time, Jesus is raised, returns to the Father, and gives the Holy Spirit.

In ascending to heaven, Jesus was no longer limited to one time, one place or one group of people. By the power of the Holy Spirit, he is present and available to all of us who wish to be in relationship with him, partake in his mission and share his glory.

This is the great calling and destiny we all share as followers of the Lord Jesus, Son of the Father, now seated at his right hand to intercede for us.

Reflection on the Word:

“In the Ascension, Jesus withdraws his visible presence, replacing it with a new presence, invisible, yet more profound.

It is a presence that we find in faith, in listening to the Word, in the Breaking of Bread (in the Mass) and in fraternity.”
Pope Francis

Our Lady Help of Christians

Celebrating the Feast of Mary, Help of Christians in Australia....

Feast Day May 24

The image above is entitled “Mary of the Southern Cross, Help of Christians”. It is by Paul Newton, a recognised artist and parishioner of St Agatha’s, Pennant Hills.

The feast day to Mary Help of Christians has been celebrated in Australia since 1844. The early church in Australia had a special reason for turning to Mary. No priests were sent to the colony in its early days and Mass was not allowed except for one brief year until 1820. It was largely the Rosary in those early days that kept the faith alive.

Catholic Australia remained faithful to Mary and was the first nation to choose her under the title Help of Christians, as principal Patroness. St Mary’s Cathedral was dedicated in her honour by the Irish pioneer priest, Fr John Therry, who arrived in Sydney in 1820 and assumed responsibility for the planning and initial construction of the Cathedral. When Australia became the first country to have Mary Help of Christians as Patroness, it became the first country to have a mother-cathedral under the same title. In fact, the altar at St. Mary’s, with its statue of Mary Help of Christians, was erected as a memorial to Fr. Therry’s name.

Traditionally, the Church has focused on two aspects of Our Lady’s help on this feast day:

Firstly, upon the role of Our Lady’s intercession in the struggle against sin in the life of a believer.

Secondly, Our Lady is one who assists Christians as a community, through her intercession, in fighting against anti-Christian forces.

In the Opening Prayer for the Mass of Our Lady Help of Christians, the Church prays that through Our Lady’s intercession God will “grant wisdom to our leaders and integrity to our citizens”, so that “under her protection Australia may be granted harmony, justice and peace”.

Therefore, on such an occasion as this, Our Lady” feast day, we thank our heavenly Father for Mary, our protector, who gives us the perfect model of faith, faithfulness, love, understanding and compassion.

Parish Events

A very big “thank you” to Sally Oong and her wonderful team of helpers; Ana Murray and her daughter Emma, Sandi and Luca Candotti and Deidre Johnston and her three daughters, Kayla, Keira, and Kiana. They very kindly gave their time last Saturday afternoon to put together our lovely Mother’s Day flowers.

Thank you to the children who helped during Sunday morning Mass and handed out the posies. You all did an amazing job!

Spirit of St Lucy’s

Mother’s Day Open Morning

After postponing our main event last Friday, we were able to host our mums and carers this week for a lovely Mother’s Day Open Morning event. The weather blessed us with the opportunity to hold a lovely morning tea, as well as a liturgy in classrooms with activities for the guests to engage in, too.

We had just over 60 mums and carers attend who expressed much gratitude for the chance to come into the school, see their children in action and socialise with other parents as well.

Joseph House—Expressions of Interest Invited

Expressions of interest are now open for young men discerning their vocation to reside at Joseph House in Willoughby.

Are you a young man seeking to hear God's voice and discover His plan for your life?

Do you know any young men who might benefit from living in Joseph House?

The responsibility of nurturing strong vocations lies with each and every one of us. Bishop Anthony looks to all members of the community of the Church of Broken Bay to be the ambassadors of Joseph House, to inspire young men you may know to consider seriously reflecting on God's call for their life. He looks to each one of us to be partners in the mission of the Church to build a vocational culture, so that our young people might discover the divine purpose of their lives.

For more information about Joseph House, a newly established house of discernment for young men, visit bbcatholic.org.au/josephhouse .

Joseph House For young Catholic men

Joseph House is a young men's house of discernment, an innovative living space for young Catholic men to uncover the call to holiness that comes through baptism. Residents will contemplate, pray and actively discern their vocation, whilst being active in the world maintaining regular work, studies and daily life.

- Accommodation for six men
- Generous sized bedrooms
- Common areas for community life
- Chapel
- Outdoor spaces
- Located in Willoughby in the Parish of Lower North Shore
- Close to public transport

Throughout a 12-18 month stay, the young men will experience community living and explore an openness to discover where God might be leading them as disciples of Jesus Christ.

Joseph House is an initiative of Bishop Anthony Randazzo for the Diocese of Broken Bay and is governed by a House Council. The House was opened and blessed by Bishop Randazzo on 1 May 2021, the Feast of St Joseph the Worker.

Who am I? How is God calling me? How do I live my life for God and for others?

Joseph House is under the patronage of St Joseph, the spouse of Mary and earthly father of Jesus. The men who live in Joseph House will be inspired by the virtue and holiness of St Joseph, and be formed in the way of discipleship with Jesus Christ.

The Month of May—Dedicated to Mary

May Month of Mary

We are reminded that May is the month dedicated to Mary, whom we honour as the first disciple, Mother of God and Mother of the Church. We recognise Mary as the one who listened and responded to the call of God.

Remember we pray the Rosary from 8.45am each weekday morning in the church (before the 9.15am Mass).

On 24th May we celebrate the feast day of Mary, Help of Christians, Patron Saint of Australia. This feast day was instituted by Pope Pius VII in 1815, in thanksgiving for the deliverance of the Holy See from the tyranny of Napoleon.

In the same way, we pray for Mary's intercession that God would continue to bless and protect our nation, our parish and our families.

On Monday, 24th May a special Mass at 10.30am will be held to honour Mary, Help of Christians and to celebrate 200 years of Catholic Education in Australia.

Year of Amoris Laetitia (The Joy of Love) by Pope Francis 2021-2022

The second of 10 videos to be released by the Dicastery for Laity, Family and Life is now available as part of journeying together as a Church during the Year of Amoris Laetitia. This video focuses on how the family is the concrete reality by which we can experience God's love. God is a communion of love between the Father, Son and Holy Spirit and the family is an image of that trinitarian love and makes it present in the world today. The video is accompanied by a print resource to be used as an aid to small group or family discussion. Family Prayer

*Holy and Almighty Lord, I give thanks today for my family.
May you fill each of us with your love and lead us closer to you.
Help us enjoy our time together, growing closer as a family, reflecting your love in this world.*

*Strengthen our relationships, deepen our faith and build us up into a stronger family focused on following you.
Lord, shower your blessings upon each member of my family, speaking your love deeply into their hearts, and healing all that ails.
Lord, be the cornerstone of our family, our firm foundation.*

Amen
