17th July - 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners,

Today marks the 16th Sunday of Ordinary Time. Today's first reading and Gospel remind us of the importance of hospitality – not only to others, but as strange as it may sound, of our hospitality to God, who wishes to be in our hearts and lives. God wishes for us to be attentive to his presence and to make him the centre of our lives. Jesus says today that Mary “has chosen the better part” by being present to him and listening to him. May we each seek to be like this in our life of prayer.

I acknowledge the recent passing of Fr Bernard Joseph Maxwell OP, aged 92 years. Please remember Fr Martin Aye Ngwe, former Assistant Priest at Holy Name Wahroonga, who is very unwell at this time. We wish Fr Sam all the best as he travels to the Philippines for a week to join in celebrating the Masses of Thanksgiving with newly ordained priests, Fr Roger Delmonte and Fr Aldrin Valdehueza.

At the close of another Financial Year, I thank you for your financial support of the Parish. There are still a number of new financial year Planned Giving Envelopes awaiting collection at the back of the Church.

Please consider contributing to our Planned Giving Program either by way of envelopes, monthly credit card deductions or bank transfer to assist in the upkeep of our Parish resources and mission. Contact the Parish Office on 9489 3221 if you have any questions.

We continue to pray for the children receiving the Sacrament of First Holy Communion on the 30th (Vigil) and 31st July (9.30am Mass). Fr Sam and I have met with Sally Oong, Sacramental Co-Ordinator, to plan those special liturgies. Please note arrangements are in place for the next Confirmation registration (see Pg 4)

I wish all the children, teachers and families of the parish a happy and successful Term 3. We look forward to having the students from St Edmund's and Prouille participate more often at weekday Masses this term.

We look forward to welcoming our Prouille children and family members to Grandparents' Day Mass at 10:15am this Friday. This will be followed by a special morning tea.

With my prayers and good wishes for all the Parishioners of Holy Name, Fr Paul

Parish Safeguarding Message

As a parish, we are committed to safeguarding our children and vulnerable adults. We pray that the children of the Parish, and indeed the whole world, will have the love, protection, education and guidance which is their birthright.

What does the Word of God say to us today – Week 16 of Year C?

First reading (Genesis 18.1-10) This is a hospitality story. It tells of three strangers who appeared to Abraham. He offers them hospitality. The three strangers are Yahweh and two heavenly companions.

Second reading (Colossians 1.24-28) St Paul, writing as a prisoner, is a minister of that 'mystery hidden from ages', calling the Gentiles to salvation and to heavenly glory through union with Christ.

Gospel (Luke 10.38-42) Jesus is welcomed into the home of Mary and Martha. There is a contrast between Martha's activity and Mary's quiet devotion to the Lord. Mary has chosen the better part, giving priority to listening to the Lord.

Jesus loved to visit the home of Martha and Mary and enjoyed their gracious hospitality. In this brief encounter we see two very different temperaments or dispositions in Martha and Mary. Martha loved to serve, but in her anxious manner of waiting on Jesus, she caused unrest. Mary, in her simple and trusting manner, waited on Jesus by sitting attentively at his feet. She instinctively knew that what the Lord and Teacher most wanted at that moment was her attentive presence.

Anxiety and preoccupation keep us from listening and from giving the Lord (and others) our undivided attention. The Lord Jesus desires that we make a place for him, not only in our hearts, but in our homes and in the daily circumstances of our lives as well. When you sit, eat and sleep, and when you entertain your friends and guests, remember that the Lord Jesus is also the guest of your home. Scripture tells us that when Abraham opened his home and welcomed three unknown travellers, he welcomed the Lord who blessed him favourably for his gracious hospitality.

Prayer: "Lord Jesus, to be in your presence is life and joy for me. Free me from needless concerns and preoccupations that I may give you my undivided love and attention."

Quotes to help us reflect on this week's Readings

"In the inner stillness where meditation leads, the Spirit secretly anoints the soul and heals our deepest wounds."
St John of the Cross

"Speak Lord, your servant is listening."
Samuel

"I was once told by a monk that the greatest sin of the modern world is its busyness.
We live in the most distracted,
frenetic society of all time.
It is tempting in such a society to think we are good Christians and deserve applause because we look to God from time to time out of the corner of our eye.
But the fullness of truth, the fullness of life,
the fullness of grace deserves our full attention.
Jesus really cannot be merely a part of one's life,
but must be the centre of one's life.
It does not mean that our life can't be active.
But unless we preserve some quiet time
each day to sit at his feet as did Mary, our action will become distraction and we'll be as snappy and unhappy as Martha."

Dr Marcellino D'Ambrosio

This icon by Russian Andrei Rublev (1360-1430) takes as its subject the mysterious story where Abraham receives three visitors as he camps by the oak of Mamre. (Genesis 18.1-10 – today's first reading). He serves them a meal. As the conversation progresses he seems to be talking straight to God, as if these 'visitors from heaven' were in some way a metaphor for the three persons of the Trinity.

In Rublev's representation of the scene, the three gold-winged figures are seated around a white table on which a golden, chalice-like bowl contains a roasted lamb. In the background of the picture, a house can be seen at the top left and a tree in the centre. Less distinctly, a rocky hill lies in the upper right corner.

The composition is a great circle around the table, focusing the attention on the chalice bowl at the centre, which reminds the viewer inescapably of an altar at Communion. We are each invited into this communion or encounter.

Parish Groups to Consider

Children's Liturgy

I am grateful to two further volunteers who have come forward for this ministry. Other volunteers are welcome. Please consider being part of our Children's Liturgy group. Parents of young children, please note we plan to begin Children's Liturgy again after these school holidays. Fr Paul

Morning Tea Roster

Here at Holy Name we have always been supportive of hospitality in our Parish. We are hoping to make our Sunday Morning Tea following the 9:30am Mass a regular event again. If we have 3 or 4 families who are willing to help on one Sunday of the month, that would be wonderful. Currently we have our Men's Group who host a BBQ on the first Sunday of the month and a family who do Morning Tea on the third Sunday of the month.

What's involved? Setting up the tables in the Church Portico with cups, milk and sugar (all provided); making up the pots of coffee and tea and putting out biscuits/cakes: serving after Mass and packing up and putting away. A terrific opportunity for a family to get involved.

Livestreaming our Masses

Ken Laing and Anne-Louise Deakin have been livestreaming our Masses since we began doing so. We are looking at putting together a team who can 'lighten the load' for Ken and Anne-Louise. It would involve a few lessons on how to use the equipment and then availability for one Mass on the weekend (on a rostered basis).

PLEASE let us know if you are interested in helping out with this valuable service. We still have some parishioners who are unable to come to the Church and rely on this livestreaming.

Sacrament of First Eucharist

Practices:

There will be two (2) practices, one for each Mass, at the Church. We shall run through the whole Mass, including all the responses for the Mass, so please continue to attend Mass with your children and practise the responses from their red 'My Missal' or from the 'Sunday Celebrations' handout at the Church door.

** Saturday Mass: Practice on Wednesday 27 July at 5pm

** Sunday Mass: Practice on Wednesday 27 July at 6.30pm

Please be punctual. Tea and coffee will be available in the kitchenette at the Church entrance before each of the practices. If there is any issue, please contact Sally Oong— sally.oong@bbcatholic.org.au

This Sacrament will be celebrated during:

5:00pm Vigil Mass on Saturday, 30th July and 9:30am Mass on Sunday, 31st July

Enrolment for Confirmation

Registration for the program of preparation for children receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation on THURSDAY 22nd September 2022 at 5:30pm

Eligibility:

Candidates must be Baptised and be eight years of age or older (Yr 3, 2022 minimum). In Broken Bay Diocese, Confirmation is celebrated prior to Reconciliation and First Eucharist.

Grandparents

This Thursday at 10:15am we invite the Prouille grandparents to join us for 10:15am Mass at Holy Name to celebrate Grandparents. As a community of faith, we honour grandparents and the elderly, and we express our love and gratitude for those who have enriched our lives.

Prayer for Grandparents

Lord Jesus, you are Son of God and son of Mary, the daughter of Saints Joachim and Anne.

*Look with love on grandparents the world over. Protect them! Support them!
May they be teachers of wisdom and courage, and all that is good that they may pass on to future generations
the fruits of their long life experience.*

*Lord Jesus, help families and society to value the presence and role of grandparents.
May they never be ignored or excluded, but always be treated with respect and love.
May human life (from conception to death) and family life be everywhere valued and respected. Amen.*

Mary, Mother of all the living, keep grandparents constantly in your care, accompany them on their earthly pilgrimage, and by your prayers, grant that all families may one day be reunited in our heavenly homeland, where you await all humanity for the great embrace of life without end. Amen.

Catholic Vocations Broken Bay

Inviting all young adults to join us for a special evening of Holy Hour, Adoration and Discernment at Holy Name Parish Wahroonga on Friday, July 22.

Fr Paul Durkin will be presenting our third talk on Discernment: Awareness, Understanding & Action, starting with Holy Hour at 6pm, followed by dinner. This promises to be a special evening for all young adults who are seeking guidance and direction in their lives.

During the talk, Fr Paul will explore what it means to be aware of God's will for our lives, how to understand His call, and how to take action in response. This promises to be a rich and informative evening, so please join us! Hope to see you there!

Saints We Remember in July

Saint Benedict (480-547)

Feast Day 11 July

Benedict's name means "blessed." His most famous monastery, Monte Cassino, has been destroyed and rebuilt three times. His monks follow the motto Ora et labora, which means "Pray and work."

Benedict was born in Nursia, Italy, about 480. His parents were wealthy, so they sent him to Rome to be educated. When he was about 17, he decided to become a hermit. He was troubled by the immorality and breakdown of civil society around him. With the help of an old monk, Benedict found a cave on Mount Subiaco about 50 miles south of Rome. He lived there for three years. Men recognized his holiness and joined him.

Sometime around 529, Benedict led a group of monks farther south, where they built Monte Cassino. He wrote his Rule based on Scripture. The monks' first duty was liturgical prayer.

The Benedictine monasteries that spread over Europe became centres of learning, agriculture, hospitality, and medicine. Benedict's monks created illuminated manuscripts. They helped repair the damage caused by the barbarian invaders. Benedict probably died in 547.

In art, he is usually shown with his Rule. In 1964, Pope Paul VI named him Patron of Europe. In light of today's readings, we remember that St Benedict reminded his monks to treat every guest as Christ himself.

St Bonaventure (1221—1274)

Feast Day 15 July

Bonaventure was born about 1221 in Italy, not far from Naples. He was baptised John. The story is told that when he was about four years old, he was deathly ill. His mother begged Francis of Assisi to come and cure him. Francis touched the boy, and he was cured instantly.

As an adult, Bonaventure entered the Franciscan order. He went to Paris, where he met Thomas Aquinas. They both studied at the University of Paris. Bonaventure became the head of the Franciscan order. He was appointed a Cardinal shortly before his death in 1274.

After Bonaventure's death, it was reported, "At the funeral there was much sorrow and tears, for the Lord had given him this grace, that all who saw him were filled with an immense love for him."

Saints We Remember in July

St. Mary Magdalene

Feast Day—22 July

St. Mary Magdalene is one of the greatest saints of the Bible and a legendary example of God's mercy and grace. The precise dates of her birth and death are unknown, but we do know she was present with Christ during his public ministry, death and resurrection. She is mentioned at least a dozen times in the Gospels.

Mary Magdalene has long been regarded as sexually immoral in western Christianity, but this is not supported in the scriptures. It is believed she was a Jewish woman who lived among Gentiles, living as they did.

The Gospels agree that Mary was originally a great sinner. Jesus cast seven demons out of her when he met her. After this, she told several women she associated with and these women also became followers.

There is also debate as to whether Mary Magdalene is the same unnamed women, a sinner, who weeps and washes Jesus' feet in the Gospel of John. Despite the scholarly dispute over her background, what she did in her subsequent life, after meeting Jesus, is much more significant. She was certainly a sinner whom Jesus saved, giving us an example of how no person is beyond the saving grace of God.

During Jesus' ministry, it is believed that Mary Magdalene followed him, part of a semi-permanent entourage who served Jesus and his Disciples. Mary likely watched the crucifixion from a distance along with the other women who followed Christ during His ministry.

Mary was present when Christ rose from the dead, visiting his tomb to anoint his body only to find the stone rolled away and Christ, very much alive, sitting at the place they laid Him. She was the first witness to His resurrection.

After the death of Christ, it is believed that she remained among the early Christians.

Mary Magdalene said:

"I have seen the Lord!" She was the first witness to the Resurrection.

We recall Jesus' words: "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die." John 11.25

St. Mary Magdalene, patron of penitent sinners, pray for us.
