From Fr David

Dear friends,

Regretfully, I cannot be with you this weekend as I am still in Perth having conducted a retreat for the Salvatorian Fathers in Australia this last week. With the events of this last week by which Cardinal Pell has been sentenced, I wanted you to know that I am with you in my heart, aware of the many mixed emotions you will be experiencing this weekend. I share your confusion, your sadness, and your despair. It is a moment in which we are invited to bring our gaze back on Jesus, the One who keeps calling us with invitation and possibility and whom we follow, and the One who holds us together even in the fragmentation we feel. To this end I share with you this prayer by a victim of sexual abuse, Stephen Trunk which he wrote in 2002:

*We call the Spirit, source of life,
Descend from heaven, show Your might.
Surround us, Lord, and fill our hearts
The seed of faith in us to start
A way beyond these painful days,
To heal these victims, Lord we pray.*

*Enflame our lives with fires of love,
With healing mercies from above.
Renew the church now wracked by sin.
With Holy Justice let us win
The hearts of faithful led astray.*

*In strife, confusion, make Your way.
Dispel the darkness, enter in.
Make clean our hearts, forgive our sin.
Make us Your sacrifice of love
The hope of victims, Christ Your Son.*

*Fly to me now, O heavenly Dove.
Bring down your healing, from above.
Make room to greet the Heavenly Guest.
Make straight my path to righteousness.
Cast out the sickness of my soul.
Break forth the dawn that makes me whole.
A strength within that never dies
Your Blessed Spirit in me rise.*

*Until the day I live with You,
Make quick my steps in wisdom true.
My every word, my every act,
Lord, You alone can guide me back.
Give thanks to God for healing hands,
For strength and weakness. Here I stand.*

*My life in joyful witness bring.
To Christ I bow, my prayers I sing.
Be now forever laid to rest,
My fears, my anxious cares be blessed.
No more in sorrow's land to dwell,
My spirit saved, the world to tell.*

From Fr David Ranson - Diocesan Administrator

These days following the sentencing of Cardinal Pell are difficult for us all. They fill our hearts and minds with so much confusion. We all live with an undeniable stress as we journey through the events that will continue to unfold for some time to come.

I wish everyone to know that I am mindful of you in this difficult time. The booklet includes some prayers that I am hoping you may find helpful. You will find copies at the back of the Church. Please feel free to take one.

With my warm wishes to you all, as I continue to hold you close in my heart,

Fr David Ranson
Diocesan Administrator

My dear friends,

We live in stressful and disturbing times when the wound of abuse within our community receives new and unrelenting attention. I share your confusion, your sadness, and your despair. It is a moment in which we are invited to bring our gaze back on Jesus, the One who keeps calling us with invitation and possibility, the One whom we follow, and the One who holds us together even in the fragmentation we feel. To this end, you might find the following prayers of particular help. They are taken from our annual Diocesan Liturgy of Lament and Hope that we enter each September during our month for Safeguarding awareness. The prayers are taken from a similar liturgy conducted by the Diocese of Cleveland, USA and include hymns written in 2002 by a victim of sexual abuse, Stephen Trunk. May his words be a source of hope for us in the midst of the pain we feel.

Spirit of St Lucy's

We are so very blessed to have Sr Helen OP in our school community. She is for us the 'living story'. Sr Helen is both deaf and blind and has with her a guide dog, Ella. Sr Helen comes every Wednesday to spend time with us in assembly, on the playground and in the classrooms. This week she visited one of our Stage 1 classes and shared stories about Jesus and sang songs on her guitar. Her interactions with all, especially with our students, brings joy to our lives! She is indeed the 'spirit of St Lucy's'.

Parish Events

We are looking for parishioners who may be interested in joining the "Prayers of the Faithful" roster.

At present there are 5 of us who rotate each week to compose the prayers and we would welcome anyone interested to join the roster. You will be given resources to assist you. It is a valuable ministry in our parish. I am happy to be contacted on 0418 603 658, 9449 4998 or jodsg@tpg.com.au if you have further questions.

Thank you,
Jane Geier

SACRAMENTAL PROGRAM - RECONCILIATION

Sacramental Preparation Groups:

These are held at Prouille School on:
Saturdays, 16, 23 & 30 March at 3.45pm,
each followed by 5pm Mass at church and a sausage sizzle after Mass.

Celebration of Reconciliation: (2 options)

Tuesday 2nd April 2019 5.15pm or 6.30pm at church

50's and Overs Outing on Friday, 8th March

The recent outing with the group was to the Genesian Theatre in Kent Street City to see a play 'Room With A View'.

After travelling by train to Town Hall we had dinner at an Italian restaurant in the Queen Victoria Building.

We then made our way to the theatre and enjoyed the play which had both drama and humour in it. The play centred around a young couple who had met up in Florence Italy on a holiday and who eventually fell in love. The actors and actresses are amateur but performed their roles very well.

Our next outing will be on Sunday, 14th April when we will visit the Maitland Vintage Car Show. Details to follow shortly.

1. One book per person.
2. Borrowed books to be returned in a week's time.

However if you would like to read longer please return and take it later when another person has been given the chance to read.

Prayer for a New Bishop

Heavenly Father and Eternal Shepherd, you watch over and govern your flock with vigilance and concern.

In your immense love, grant to your Church a pastor who will please you by his holiness and aid us with his unfailing care.

In your time, grant us the joy of welcoming a shepherd formed after your own heart.

May he be an example of virtue to your people and, imbued with the power of the Holy spirit, fill their minds with the truth and beauty of the Gospel.

Grant wisdom, O Lord, to those now discerning your holy will in the selection of our new bishop.

We ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord and through the intercession of our mother, Mary Star of the Sea.

Discerning for a vocation is more than an intellectual weighing up of options, it is a process of becoming aware of what is in our hearts and minds, listening to God, gaining clarity and making a choice. It is not about choosing what you will do for life but about discovering who you are made to be.

The busyness of daily life takes away from our ability to listen to God and possibly discovering our deepest identity. This Discernment Retreat allows you to immerse yourself in a quiet environment that can help you listen to God and receive the spiritual direction you may be looking for.
