2 May 2021— Fifth Sunday of Easter

From Fr Paul

At last Sunday evening Mass, we welcomed Bishop Anthony, our three DBB transitional Deacons (to be ordained priests in October), our eight DBB seminarians and several young men discerning the priesthood. (See photos in bulletin)

Last Sunday we also commemorated Anzac Day as part of each of the Sunday liturgies. This was not to glorify war, but to respectfully remember and give thanks to God and to the fallen and all those who fought for our freedom and peace.

On Monday, I joined the Prouille staff and students, along with some parents, to once again commemorate the Anzacs. We were joined by a guest speaker from the RSL, Hornsby.

Fr Anselam, Deacon Sam and I will continue to support the community and faith life of Prouille throughout term 2.

On Wednesday 5th May, we will lead the Founder's Day Mass for Blessed Edmund Rice at Saint Edmund's College. It will be a wonderful opportunity once again, to join the staff and students and parents of that community.

Then on Tuesday, 18th May the parish clergy will represent Holy Name at the opening of the new building at Saint Lucy's.

Both St Edmund's and St Lucy's are undergoing major changes to upgrade their facilities to better respond to the needs of their special students. I acknowledge the great support that Holy Name Parish has been to the schools over the years, and continues to be in 2021.

On Saturday 1st May, the feast day of Saint Joseph the worker, we celebrated a special Mass and blessed the statue of Saint Joseph, icon of the holy family and framed holy picture that will feature in the side chapel for the remainder of this year. The holy Father, Pope Francis has asked us to celebrate this year in honour of St Joseph.

Later on Saturday, Deacon Sam and I attended the blessing and opening by Bishop Anthony of Joseph House, a house of discernment for young men considering how God is calling them. Bishop Anthony is also planning to establish a similar house for young women.

Our readings this Sunday remind us that we are to be in close communion with Christ and draw our life from him, just like the vine and the branches. He speaks to us today: “I am the vine, you are the branches... without me you can do nothing.”

Wishing you, our parishioners all the best for the coming week and for the month of May, the month dedicated to Mary, our Blessed Mother. Fr Paul

Our Sunday Readings

The Word for this Sunday:

The First Reading tells how, three years after his conversion, St Paul went up to Jerusalem. In spite of being introduced by Barnabas, such was the hostility he encountered that he had to be smuggled out of the city. The fact that St Paul took all these trials in his stride shows the depth of his faith in Jesus, the crucified and risen Lord.

The Second Reading tells us what we have to do in order to be at rights with God. We have to believe in his Son, Jesus, and love one another as he told us. Active charity is what distinguishes true Christians from those who are such in name only. This true love is what makes them fruitful branches of Christ, the true vine.

In the Gospel we have the image of the vine and the branches. Here Jesus stresses the unity that exists between him and his disciples. Vine and branches are inter-connected and need each other. The vine cannot bear fruit without the branches. And the branches can have no life if separated from the vine. The branches need to be pruned (through the Word and by testing) in order to be fruitful. St Paul's life is a good example.

Reflections on this Sunday's readings:

Little fruit or plenty, there can be neither without him, because without him nothing can be done.

"If you dwell in me, said Jesus, and my words dwell in you, you will ask for whatever you desire and it will be yours."

Can a person dwelling in Christ desire anything out of harmony with Christ? The very fact that people dwell in their Saviour must mean that they have no desire that is opposed to their salvation.

He does what we ask only if it is for our good. To dwell in him, therefore, is to have his words dwelling in us; whatever we desire, we shall then ask for, and it will be given us.

- St Augustine

(Homily on the Gospel of John 80, 1; 81, 1.3.4: CCL 36, 527.530-3)

"Let us realize that we can only fulfill our calling to bear much fruit by praying much. In Christ are hidden all the treasures that the people around us need. In Him, all God's children are blessed with all spiritual blessings. He is full of grace and truth. But, prayer, much prayer, strong believing prayer, is needed to bring about these blessings.

A machine can do work; only life can bear fruit. A law can compel work; only love can spontaneously bring forth fruit. Work implies effort and labour; the essential idea of fruit is that it is the silent, natural, restful produce of our inner life."

- Andrew Murray, The True Vine

Prayer for Vocations to The Priesthood Diocese of Broken Bay

Send your Holy Spirit upon us, O Lord, that we may be holy.
In your mercy, guard and strengthen us to be disciples who witness to the Good News of Jesus.

Call forth from our community of the Church
generous and loving shepherds after your own heart.

May they be zealous preachers of the Word;
faithful teachers of the Truth;
and devoted servants at the Altar.

Fill their hearts with love for you and your creation;
open their minds to a lifetime of learning;
and make them humble servants of your holy people.

For you, O God, are kind and merciful,
and to you we offer glory,
in your holy Church,
now and forever. AMEN.

Spirit of St Lucy's

Lest We Forget

Last Sunday 25th April, nationwide we commemorated ANZAC Day so as to highlight the significance and meaning of this special day. At St Lucy's on Monday morning, all classes held a special ANZAC Day liturgy for students and staff to participate in within their classrooms. Thank you to the Turquoise Class for preparing this for teachers to facilitate. This liturgy focused not only on the courage shown by our young men and women in the past, but also what many of our fellow citizens continue to demonstrate today as they strive for peace and safety through their involvement in our Armed Forces. May we hold in our prayers all who are impacted by the devastation that conflict brings and that the right level of support and love is offered to those experience it in many ways and forms.

Preparing for Mother's Day—Sunday 9 May

The Month of May—Dedicated to Mary

May Month of Mary

We are reminded that May is the month dedicated to Mary, whom we honour as the first disciple, Mother of God and Mother of the Church. We recognise Mary as the one who listened and responded to the call of God.

Remember we pray the Rosary from 8.45am each weekday morning in the church (before the 9.15am Mass). This weekend after all our Masses, there will be available for parishioners Rosary Cards and Rosaries provided by the non-profit group, Mary's Rosary Chain.

On 24th May we celebrate the feast day of Mary, Help of Christians, Patron Saint of Australia. This feast day was instituted by Pope Pius VII in 1815, in thanksgiving for the deliverance of the Holy See from the tyranny of Napoleon.

In the same way, we pray for Mary's intercession that God would continue to bless and protect our parish and our families.

On Monday, 24th May a special Mass at 9:15am will be held to honour Mary, Help of Christians and to celebrate 200 years of Catholic Education in Australia.

Feast Days this Week

Sts Philip and James, Apostles

The 3rd May marks the feast day of Sts. Philip and James. Though there's not an especially important reason behind the unification of St. Philip and St. James' memorial, these apostles both shared lives radically devoted to the Gospel and paid the ultimate sacrifice for their faith.

For centuries, the Catholic Church had special feasts to honour only four of the apostles: Sts. Peter and Paul, St. John the Evangelist, and St. Andrew, the brother of Peter. The Church memorialized the remaining apostles all together on June 29. In the sixth century, the bodies of Sts. Philip and James were brought to Rome from the East and were laid to rest in the Basilica of the Holy Apostles. Since they arrived together at the same location, the Church instituted a single feast day for both apostles.

Joseph the Worker

Feast Day, 1st May

In the New Testament, Jesus' earthly father and the Virgin Mary's husband. St. Joseph is the patron of the universal Catholic church. His life is referenced in the Gospels, particularly Matthew and Luke.

Jesus was referred to as 'the carpenter's son'. This Feast Day of St Joseph the Worker reminds us of the dignity of human labour and that all people deserve to be treated with dignity, respect and justice.

We honour St Joseph for his place in the life of Jesus and Mary. We revere him as an honourable, faithful and saintly man who lived in obedience to God's will (Matthew 1:20-24) & as the loving, strong and wise protector of the Holy Family (Matthew 2:13-15; Luke 2.49-52).
