21 December 2025
FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Dear Friends,

JOSEPH - A MAN OF HONOUR.

In our families, communities, nations and in the world, we have people of honour. They are good people whom society notices, as their wise ways of living are exceptionally good. They are present in every aspect of life. They are our role models in the community.

The gospel today invites us to reflect on Joseph, the husband of Mary. He played such an important role in God's plan of salvation. Joseph was a man of honour, who combined love, respect for the Jewish law and compassion for Mary.

Like King Ahaz in the First Reading when asked by the Lord, "Ask the Lord your God for a sign for yourself coming either from the depths of Sheol or from the heights above." He humbly said, 'No, I will not put the Lord to the test.'

The same humility is seen in Joseph, who was open to hear God's word to him. Thus the words of prophet Isaiah were fulfilled, "The maiden is with child and will soon give birth to a son whom she will call Emmanuel. A name which means 'God-is-with-us'.

Sisters and brothers, God comes into our lives on His own terms, not ours. This can be disturbing and confronting. We would expect God's coming to be pleasant, comfortable and without struggle. After all, is not God the source of blessing and joy?

Yet, as the Gospel testifies that His entry into Mary and Joseph's lives was far from pleasant nor was it comfortable. Instead, it was the cause of darkness, suffering and hardship. We can only imagine how devastated Joseph must have felt to discover that his beloved was pregnant, but not with his child! However, in obedience to the angel's disclosure about Mary's pregnancy and the command to accept the child, Joseph obeys without hesitation. Thus, Joseph is an example and a role model for us all. He accepted God's Invitation, however demanding. Doing God's will is always a blessing, but often costly. We too, when confronted with challenging situations, like Joseph, would profit from waiting patiently upon the Lord, praying for light and grace to act with integrity, charity and justice.

Blessings,

Fr. Gaspar Mushi, Cssp.

Noel Noel 2025

Noël! Noël!

On Monday, December 15, Holy Name Church was again filled with the resounding music of the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra's concert 'Noel Noel' An evening to lift the spirit and fill the heart. The Church was packed to the rafters with parishioners and local residents. We also had Bishop Anthony Randazzo and Fr David Ranson join Fr Gaspar for the festivities. The evening was a wonderful celebration of music and all present were delighted to be in attendance and full of praise for the performers and the acoustics of our Church.

A cherished holiday tradition showcasing the sublime Brandenburg Choir, Noël! Noël! remains a Brandenburg favourite for its unique ability to weave traditional chamber music, rarely performed festive pieces, timeless chorales and contemporary threads into a festive tapestry to enrich the spirit.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all parishioners for their help and support throughout this year. Your generosity is very much appreciated, and we want to thank you all for your attendance, participation and generosity toward this parish community and so many others, who like the Holy Family, are so needy at this time. Thank you for all the many and varied ways you care for and support our Holy Name Parish and our parishioners.

Thank you!

Entering December Awareness, Safeguarding, and Seasonal Wellbeing

As we enter December, our Parishes become places of preparation, anticipation, and joyful gathering. Advent invites us into a season of light, welcome, and hope, yet for many people, the lead-up to Christmas can also heighten vulnerability.

Resource	Description
Beyond Blue Financial Stress Toolkit	Practical tools and advice to help individuals and families manage money-related stress during the festive season.
Beyond Blue Loneliness Support Resources	Guidance for those experiencing loneliness or isolation, including ways to connect and seek help.
Lifeline Managing Christmas Stress	Strategies and tips for coping with emotional pressure, expectations, and stress during December.
St Vincent de Paul Society Emergency Assistance	Financial help, food assistance, and support for individuals and families experiencing hardship.
Salvation Army Doorways Support	Crisis support, financial counselling, and community programs for people in need.
CatholicCare Broken Bay Support Services	Local counselling, family supports, and community programs available across the Diocese.

This time of the year can bring:

- Financial pressures arising from gift-giving, travel, school holidays and social expectations
- Family stress or conflict, often intensified during gatherings of family and friends
- Loneliness or isolation for those without the support or companionship of loved ones
- Increased needs among vulnerable adults, who may experience reduced services, limited social contact, disruptions to routine care, or greater emotional strain during the holiday Period
- Significant changes in routine for children and young people, as they finish the school year and navigate holiday downtime that may include less structure and potential isolation from friends and support networks

RCIA Program

Have you ever wanted to know what Catholics actually believe? Have you ever considered becoming Catholic?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a formative process by which those interested in learning more about Christianity and the Catholic Church are invited to attend sessions with our priests and RCIA Team over an extended period of time.

They are presented with a variety of essential topics which cover the key pillars of the faith: our profession, celebration, lifestyle, and our prayer.

At different stages of the process, individuals are given the invitation to continue on their journey towards the Easter Sacraments and reception into the Church.

We also offer a special Baptism program for children 5 years and over. For further information, please contact Sally Oong (sally.oong@bbctholic.org.au) or speak to our priests directly.

What do the Readings say to us this Sunday?

FOURTH SUNDAY of ADVENT

First Reading: Is 7:10-14: The virgin will conceive.

Second Reading: Rom 1:1-7: Jesus Christ, a descendant of David, is the Son of God.

Alleluia, alleluia! A virgin will give birth to a son; his name will be Emmanuel; God is with us. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mt 1:18-24 : Jesus was born of Mary, the betrothed of Joseph, a son of David.

Our Advent Wreath

On this Fourth Sunday of Advent, let us prepare to light the fourth candle on our Advent Wreath. As Advent draws to a close we pause for faith that opens our lives to the Spirit of God . . . In the words of the acclamation let us pray:

Fr : Come Lord Jesus, hope of the prophets and desired of all the nations:
All: Come! Lead us back to you!

Fr: Come Lord Jesus, Son of God, born of Mary:
All: Come! Take flesh in us!

Fr : Come Lord Jesus, source of grace and hope for peace:
All: Come and save us, delay no longer.

The Fourth candle is lit

We are now moving into the final week of advent. Like any family expecting and awaiting the arrival of a newborn baby, the family of the church prepares to welcome the Christ child anew into our hearts, our homes, our lives, our parish and our world.

May each of us welcome God's greatest gift to us: his only begotten son, the Saviour of the world, the Prince of peace, the one whose reign will have no end.

We have now celebrated the end of the school year, and we prepare for the celebration of Christmas and the holidays ahead. May this be a time of love and friendship for all parishioners. Thank you to those who are preparing rosters, nativity plays, our Church and music for our Christmas Masses.

Christmas Offering

Wishing you the gift of faith, the blessing of hope and the peace of His love
this Christmas

The Christmas Offering envelopes in the Church

are for the support of our Clergy.

If you have an automatic credit card deduction in place for Christmas Offerings, this will be processed next week.

Thank you for your appreciation of and generosity to our Clergy.
