Welcome!

A very warm welcome to anyone visiting our parish. It is good to have you with us. If you have any questions or would like to know more about our community at Holy Name please visit our parish website at www.holynamewahroonga.com.au.

During this week, as we have been preparing for the celebration of Easter, we have been deeply affected by the near destruction of Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris. In the pictures that came through of the interior of the damaged cathedral in the days following I was especially moved by one. It is a photo of a pile of debris in the nave of the church directly in front of the sanctuary. And behind the debris remains the glow of the golden Cross. In the photo, the Cross presents as this most remarkable symbol of enduring hope in the face of the potential disaster. At the base of the Cross is the 18th century sculpture of the Pieta by Nicolas Coustou which also has remained undamaged. For me, this work of art is the epitome of the cathedral: the dead Christ lays across the lap of his mother, Mary who stretches her arms upwards with longing, anxious ardour. The rubble from the damaged roof of the basilica is now strewn before the sculpture. I wonder if the photo that captures this scene is a defining image of our time as a Church. Indeed, I wonder if the events in Paris become emblematic of a much larger experience into which we have been drawn? We have been so charred by the failings and inadequacies of our Church, by the constancy of the exposure of crimes against children and others, that much of that in which we have placed our trust has been ruined. The edifice of institutions including our own Church is shattered, and we are left with a sense of ruin. There is something in us, even in the midst of the debris of our trust, though that hopes, that yearns for things to be different. We want to trust. It is the hope that is represented by the sculpture at the heart of Notre Dame that endures. Despite the assault on our trust something endures, something begins to stir and rise from the ashes. As we keep our gaze on the multitude blessings we experience through the unmistakable goodness and generosity of those we know; as we remain faithful to our restlessness to create new possibility; as we reread the Scriptures with Jesus in mind, repeat his gestures in memory of him especially in the Eucharist, and live in fellowship with one another alive to the beauty of lives radiant with faith, hope and love our numbness and our weariness, our anxiety and timidity, our loss of confidence and despair begin to pale and dissolve! What at first appears to be destruction will be the catalyst for something new. The building that seems to teeter on collapse will rise with vitality. Yes, a light shines in the darkness, a light the darkness cannot overwhelm! This is the Easter Promise! This is our Proclamation this day! Thank you for your part in making this a possibility in the example of those engineers working today on the floor of Notre Dame in Paris.

The Hope and the Joy of Easter to you all!

From Fr David

Dear friends,

My warmest Easter greetings to you all! May the new life that Jesus brings us joy and peace .

Thank you to all those who have made our annual celebration as wonderful. Our special thanks to Walter Sutcliffe and our tremendous Schola for their dedication and diligence, and to Rosalie Belsey who, this year, has co-ordinated our Easter morning Pop-Up Choir! We think, too, of all those who work in the background: Jackie our Parish Secretary; Rosalie Talty, Marie-Clare Price and Betty Severino who ensure all our sacristy linen is so beautifully presented; those who work assiduously in many different ways to keep our brass sparkling and our church clean; Paul and Kathy Sutherland for their attention to our liturgical banners; Chris Goldrick for his magnificent leadership and coordination of all our liturgical ministers; Halina Brett for always attending to our Billyard Ave Noticeboard; all those who have participated in our liturgies; to Paul and Jenny O'Brien for their care of our gardens—to each and everyone: a very special THANK YOU!

Our joy this Easter is tinged with the sadness of the recent death of Andy Watson who has been so much a part of our parish family growing up. We have also learnt of the death of Keith Walmsley, Rachel Mitchell's father and of two of Katrina Onishi's great aunts. We extend to them all our sympathy and prayer that the Promise of new Life given us in our celebration of Easter may whisper the Peace of Christ deep in their hearts.

May the peace of the Risen Christ be with us all this year.

Some Easter Season Notes

With the end of Lent, the annual Project Compassion Appeal comes to an end. Project Compassion Boxes can be left in the basket provided at the entrance to the church or placed on any of the collection baskets.

This money goes to the Clergy Remuneration, Retirement and Sick Priest Fund of the Diocese to assist in the upkeep and welfare of the priests of the Diocese. Envelopes for this purpose are available at the entrances to the church and can be placed on any of the collection baskets.

If you have an automatic deduction in place for this, donations will be processed on Tuesday. Thank you.

ANDY WATSON

It was with great sadness, Andy Watson, son of Maurice and Jane, husband to Rocia and brother to John, Joseph, Roisin, Elizabeth, James, Rebecca and Benedict lost his brave battle with cancer last Saturday evening.

Surrounded by his wife and family in prayer, the Father called him home on the early evening of Saturday 13 April. We extend our deepest sympathy to Rocia his wife, to Jane and Maurice, his brothers and sisters and to all the extended family—the Watsons, the Burfitts, the Limbers. In this photo he is pictured with his god-daughter Anastasia Limbers.

Andy was the most remarkable and faith-filled young man. We will miss him greatly. We will farewell Andy on Wednesday morning with a Requiem Mass at 11am. Given that our farewell will be very large, if you are able to assist on the morning particularly with traffic and parking management do let the Parish Office know on Tuesday.

Norma Higgins and her family would like to sincerely thank Father David, Father Anselam, the Parish staff and the fellow parishioners for their care and sympathy following Athol's death. It was a great comfort to us during this sad time.

Parish Events

In early May one of our remarkable young women, Stephanie Sardinha leaves us to take up medical studies in Queensland. Stephanie has been one of our most faithful Acolytes over many years. How we will miss her!

We shared a special blessing for Stephanie at our 9.15am Mass last Sunday and on behalf of our whole community, I extend to her our deepest thanks for her beautiful presence with us and for her generous service at the altar over many years.

We wish her the very best in this exciting new chapter of her life and look forward to seeing her when she returns to us on her holidays.

Hayley and Ian Edmunds are currently holidaying in Paris and sent these pictures on Tuesday morning:

This morning

This evening

Everyone here is just devastated and in shock.

Join us as we pray for the people of Paris as they, and many others, grieve the loss of the Notre Dame Cathedral.

A Prayer for the Notre Dame Cathedral

Almighty and Triune God, our Heavenly Father, who sent Thy Son our Savior, Jesus Christ, Son of God, Son of Mary—who is forever called “blessed”—so that by love amazing, love divine, Jesus came to restore the ruins of sin by His life and atoning death at Calvary, His resurrection, His appearances, and glorious Ascension; Grant

Thy peace and hope to the people of Paris, who with broken hearts cry with bitter lamentation, not unlike Jeremiah: as we, Christians of the Church catholic, “weep with those who weep” at the shocking sight of the burning of Notre Dame Cathedral, that majestic, ancient edifice dedicated to Thee—a symbol of Christian Faith and human aspirations—we pray for Spirit-stilling peace in trembling hearts, so that an even greater number of people will turn to Thee, the Lord of all of those who assemble to raise holy worship to the risen Christ, in cathedral and caves, in chapels and forests, and even in ashes; have mercy on our French brothers and sisters in their sorrow, and give resurrection hope in this special season, the season when we remember hope transcends hopelessness, and new life arises from the tomb of inconceivable sorrow; this we pray, O God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer by Dr Michael A. Milton

SENIOR LADIES

next meeting 9 May
(due to Anzac Day)

2.00pm in the Sunroom

50's And Over Singles Group

The recent outing for the group was to travel by train to Maitland on Sunday 14th. April 2019 to see the Steam Trains and Vintage Car Exhibition.

Soon after arriving at Maitland we witnessed an early Motor Rail Train and then saw a Tiger Moth Aeroplane doing acrobatics! This was followed by the appearance of two Steam Trains.

There was a race staged between the Steam Trains and the Aeroplane. Soon after we met up with Mary Prema who joined us for lunch. There were several food outlets and Markets further down the street.

We then commenced our lunch and were entertained by live music in the background. The crowd had swelled by this time and resembled the size of crowds you see at the Royal Easter Show.

After lunch we went to see the Vintage Cars. These consisted of Holdens (several different models), Fords, Chevrolets, Cadillacs, Mini Minors and some MG's. Once we had finished viewing all the cars on display we went back to the Railway Station and returned home by rail.

Enquiries please phone Susan Robson on 0404 005 267 or Reg Gibbons on 9481 0334 or 0409 599 440.

Next Family Masses:

An Easter Blessing for our Church

The loan of the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra - Continuo organ

As we are aware, our parish community has had a long standing aspiration for a new pipe organ. I am very happy to share with you that in the coming months we will be able to share with you some exciting news about the realisation of such a dream. We are now in very active negotiations with a church in the United States for the procurement of the redundant instrument—a pipe organ of the most magnificent quality.

A large pipe organ is for the accompaniment of an entire congregation and for recitals! A schola is accompanied by a much smaller instrument. And our own schola is about to be blessed with such an instrument! Now, alongside the possibility of a large church pipe organ we have been blessed to have been proposed the loan of a smaller instrument to accompany our schola. The smaller organ belongs to the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra. It has been in storage for some years, but the Orchestra has offered it to us on loan for our own use. It will arrive in the coming week, and be located on the side of the Sanctuary.

The Mander Organ, London, 2003 is a 1 manual, 4 speaking stops, mechanical action instrument. In 2002, the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra commissioned Mander Organs of London to construct a four rank continuo organ. Funds for the construction of the instrument were raised solely by the Brandenburg Friends Association and the organ was first heard in public during the "Coronation" concert series in October 2003 at City Recital Hall Angel Place. The instrument was the first Mander organ to be delivered to Australia and was closely followed by the installation of a 2 manual instrument in the "Big School" Hall at Sydney Grammar School in College Street. One of the unique features of the organ is the full compass Principal 4' which extends to bottom C. The lowest notes of this rank are constructed from Quebec pine, mitred and mounted in the base of the instrument. Some of this rank also appears in the pipe façade along with some of the Fifteenth. The need for an organ that was to be generous in scaling and yet portable was a challenge for the builders. The case was constructed from untreated Brazilian mahogany and the carving of the pipe-shades and the pierced panels was executed in untreated limewood. From an aesthetic (and practical) point of view, it was considered important that the blower be concealed inside the case. The key naturals are covered in bone and the sharps in ebony. Removable doors are also fitted to the front of the case to protect the polished tin façade from damage during transportation.

The Australian harpsichord builder Marc Nobel, who undertook the decoration of the casework, also designed the carving for the pipe-shades and suggested the original scheme of the pipe façade. When not in use, the organ will now be stored at Holy Name Wahroonga Church. This is a beautiful addition to our church and a wonderful boost to a magnificent parish Schola of Sacred Music.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra for this remarkable generosity to us!

Repairs to the South Wall of the Priory

Much needed and long overdue work to replace the windows in the Priory lounge room and upstairs area has now been completed. These windows were in a bad state of repair and the upstairs one actually quite dangerous in as far as the brick surround was deteriorated and the window frame loose. Here are photos of the new windows installation!

Anzac Day 2019 - Lest We Forget

We will celebrate Mass in our Parish on
ANZAC Day, Thursday 25th April at 10:00am

FOR THE FALLEN

Poem by Robert Laurence Binyon (1869-1943) published in The Times newspaper on 21st September 1914.

With proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children,
England mourns for her dead across the sea.
Flesh of her flesh they were, spirit of her spirit,
Fallen in the cause of the free.

Solemn the drums thrill: Death august and royal
Sings sorrow up into immortal spheres.
There is music in the midst of desolation
And a glory that shines upon our tears.

They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
Straight of limb, true of eye, steady and aglow.
They were staunch to the end against odds uncounted,
They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

They mingle not with their laughing comrades again;
They sit no more at familiar tables of home;
They have no lot in our labour of the day-time;
They sleep beyond England's foam.

But where our desires are and our hopes profound,
Felt as a well-spring that is hidden from sight,
To the innermost heart of their own land they are known
As the stars are known to the Night;

As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust,
Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain,
As the stars that are starry in the time of our darkness,
To the end, to the end, they remain.
