25 April 2021— Fourth Sunday of Easter
Good Shepherd Sunday ANZAC Day

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER YEAR B— Sunday 25 April 2021

World Day of Prayer for Vocations, Good Shepherd Sunday. Today the Church throughout the world prays for vocations. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord of the harvest for more vocations to the priesthood and religious life?

- Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.
- Keep our Parish Priests and Deacons in your prayers throughout the week
- Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.
- Pray a rosary or other prayer for more young men and women in our Diocese to respond to God's call.

Does a life of joy in knowing you are following the Lord as a Priest, Deacon or in the consecrated life inspire you? Contact the Vocations Office at 0418 522 449 or email: vocations.ministry@bbcatholic.org.au

Farewell

This weekend we farewell long time parishioners, Greg and Heidi Darwell, as they move to the Northern Rivers region of New South Wales.

We wish them and their family every blessing for the future and thank them for their contribution to the Parish.

From Fr Paul

We have the privilege of welcoming Bishop Anthony this weekend to celebrate our 5:30pm Sunday Mass.

Today is the fourth Sunday of Easter. The Church recognises it as Good Shepherd Sunday, also known as Vocations Sunday. While we acknowledge our common vocation as the baptised, today is an opportunity to pray especially for vocations to the priesthood and diaconate, and to the consecrated life.

We continue to encourage and pray for the eleven young men preparing for the Priesthood in the Diocese of Broken Bay: the three transitional deacons (Sam, Aldrin and Roger) and the eight seminarians (Martino, Hien, Shayne, Tan, Huy, Mathew, Adi and Rosan). We also pray for the four men preparing to be (permanent) deacons (Richard H, Richard F, Eric and Kevin.) And we pray for those who are actively discerning their vocation.

Today is also Anzac Day. It marks the landing of Australian and New Zealand soldiers at Gallipoli during the Great War of 1914-1918. It has become a national day of remembrance in which we honour the courage and self-sacrifice of those who have served in all wars, conflicts, and peacekeeping operations. In our Liturgy, we pray for those who have given their lives in defence of our freedom and pray for a lasting peace (which is the fruit of true justice) in the world.

The liturgy recognises the sacrifice of the fallen, commends their souls to God, prays for their loved ones and prays that the justice and peace which they sought to defend may dwell in our lands of Australia and New Zealand.

We wish the school communities within Holy Name Parish every blessing for term two. With my prayers and good wishes for you and your family – for every person in our parish. May you experience the grace and blessing of the Risen Christ, our Good Shepherd, and may you share that with others. Fr Paul

Prayer for Vocations to The Priesthood Diocese of Broken Bay

Send your Holy Spirit upon us,
O Lord, that we may be holy.
In your mercy, guard and strengthen us to be disciples who witness to the Good News of Jesus.

Call forth from our community of the Church generous and loving shepherds after your own heart.
May they be zealous preachers of the Word;
faithful teachers of the Truth;
and devoted servants at the Altar.

Fill their hearts with love for you and your creation;
open their minds to a lifetime of learning;
and make them humble servants of your holy people.

For you, O God, are kind and merciful,
and to you we offer glory,
in your holy Church,
now and forever. AMEN.

IMPRIMATUR:
+Anthony Randazzo
Bishop of Broken Bay

What are the Readings for today?

The First Reading shows Peter fearlessly proclaiming the resurrection of Jesus. He asserts that the stone they rejected (Jesus) has become the cornerstone of a new building. The risen Jesus is the one and only Saviour.

The Second Reading reflects on the wonderful love God has shown for us by making us his children. Our future state will be like that of the glorified Jesus. This reading invites us to rejoice in our state as God's adopted children.

The Gospel presents Jesus as the good shepherd who knows his sheep intimately and is known by them. Unlike the hireling, he is willing to die to protect his sheep.

For the early Fathers of the Church, the Good Shepherd - who searches for the lost and who lays down his life for his sheep - is an image of Christ as he relates to his Church.

Every one of us is Christ's sheep – often lost in the desert and no longer knowing the way home to the Father, home to our true identity of sons and daughters of God.

The Son of God will not let this happen; he cannot abandon humanity to such a fate. He leaves the glory of heaven, in order to go in search of the sheep, all the way to the Cross.

Jesus takes us all upon his shoulders; he carries all humanity. In the words of today's Gospel, he is "the good shepherd who lays down his life for the sheep."

Charitable Works Fund Appeal - 8th and 9th May

Many thousands of young people and families in our community receive help from the charities that CWF supports. They can arise with new strength.

We give thanks to God for the blessing these pastoral works offer to those in hospital, at school, across neighbourhoods and local parishes of Broken Bay.

Please give generously to the final CWF appeal of the Financial Year 2020/21. Donations are 100% tax deductible and support five charities: -

- ◆ Hospital Chaplaincy and Pastoral Care Programme – where Hospital Chaplains and five lay Pastoral Care ministers reach 3,500 patients and 700 families each year in our hospitals.
- ◆ Confraternity of Christian Doctrine – materials, training and support for almost 1,000 catechists who take the gospel to students in our State schools.
- ◆ St Lucy's School – serving primary school students with disabilities.
- ◆ St Edmund's College – serving secondary school students with disabilities.
- ◆ Ephpheta Centre – serving the Catholic deaf community.

Please take a moment to watch a heart-warming 'Thank you' video to hear from those you are helping - <https://youtu.be/hvA4Etwvd4E>

All donations are gratefully received. Please complete the CWF collection envelope in your pew. If you have an automatic credit card deduction in place, this will be processed on 10th May. Thank you for your generosity to the Charitable Works Fund—any shortfall in our allocated quota must be met by Parish funds.

Spirit of St Lucy's

ANZAC Day

Today we commemorated ANZAC Day as a school community with a whole school liturgy held within classes. The children came to learn about the importance of ANZAC Day and some special symbols associated with it. As well, they listened to and viewed the Auslan version of The Ode and showed reverence and respect during The Last Post. Finally, we prayed for love and peace in our world.

Around and A bout

Saints to remember this week.....

Mark was an Evangelist—one of the four men who wrote the Gospels found in the New Testament. Mark's Gospel was written first, and it is the shortest description of Jesus' life, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension. Mark's writings helped both Matthew and Luke to write their Gospels.

Mark was not one of the original Apostles, and he probably never knew Jesus. Instead, we believe that he was a member of the first Christian community. In his writings, St. Peter refers to Mark as his "son." Peter may have used this term to show his love for Mark, or he may have used it because he was the one who baptized Mark. It is believed that Peter was the primary source for Mark's Gospel.

He is the patron saint of many different causes, including lions, lawyers, notaries, opticians, pharmacists, painters, secretaries, interpreters, prisoners, and people dealing with insect bites. (Feast Day 25 April)

Saint Peter Chanel, a French Marist missionary priest, was martyred by being clubbed to death on the tiny island of Futuna in the South Pacific in 1841. He is the patron saint of Oceania (Feast day: April 28)

Born in 1803 into a farming family, when St Peter Chanel was a young adolescent he developed an interest in missionary work through reading letters sent to his parish from missionaries working in the Americas. Ordained a diocesan priest in 1827, he was known for his quiet demeanour, simplicity and love for the Blessed Virgin Mary, taking as his personal motto: "To love Mary and bring others to love her."

Fr Paul has written a reflection on St Peter Chanel. Email him if you would like a copy.

Catherine of Siena (25 March 1347 – 29 April 1380), a lay member of the Dominican Order, was a mystic, activist, and author who had a great influence on Italian literature and the Catholic Church. Canonized in 1461, she is also a Doctor of the Church.

St. Catherine's feast day is April 29, she is the patroness against fire, illness, the United States, Italy, miscarriages, people ridiculed for their faith, sexual temptation, and nurses.

(Feast Day 29 April)

SPECIAL MASS FOR THE FEAST OF SAINT JOSEPH THE WORKER SATURDAY, 1 MAY

On the 8th December 2020, Pope Francis announced the year of St Joseph, the Patron of the Universal Church.

As a way of celebrating St Joseph, our spiritual father and protector, Holy Name invites you to a special Mass on the Feast of St Joseph the Worker on Saturday 1 May at 9:15am.

The Mass will conclude with a blessing of a statue of St Joseph and an icon of the Holy Family, which will be placed in the Aquinas chapel for private prayer and devotion until the end of this special year.

The Mass will be followed by a morning tea outside the Church. All are welcome.

Vocations Broken Bay

This year we have eleven young men in formation for the Ordained Priesthood for the Diocese of Broken Bay.

We have four men resident at the Seminary of the Good Shepherd, Homebush in 2021:

Matthew French, who has just commenced the Propaedeutic Stage (first year); Tân Nguyen, Shayne D’Cunha, and Huy Tran, who are in their second year of Discipleship Stage.

We have two men in Pastoral formation in parishes, Hien Vu (Epping/Carlingford) and Martino Hoang (Manly/Freshwater), as well as two new men for the Diocese, Rosan Mathew (Lower North Shore) and Aditya Sugiarto (Waitara), both in special parish placements this year. Deacons Roger Delmonte, Aldrin Valdehueva, and Sam French are preparing for priestly ordination. Bishop Anthony plans to ordain them priests in October this year.

We have a further four men (Kevin McGregor, Eric Leahy, Richard Houwing and Richard Fitzgerald) who are in formation to become (permanent) deacons.

Please keep our seminarians, transitional deacons and aspirants in your prayers. They benefit enormously from your prayer and support.
