Welcome!

A very warm welcome to anyone visiting our parish. It is good to have you with us. If you have any questions or would like to know more about our community at Holy Name please visit our parish website at www.holynamewahroonga.com.au.

We hope you enjoy your time here at Holy Name Wahroonga. Please visit us again soon.

Remembering our Deceased through November

We welcome everyone to submit photos of their deceased relatives and friends for display during this coming November. The back of the framed photo (no larger than A4) should identify the deceased, together with the name and contact number of the contributor. The photos may be left at any stage during November in front of the lectern on the sanctuary or in the box at the entrance to the Church.

A Book of Remembrance will also be available for us to record the names of those we would like to be remembered in prayer through the month of November.

If you would like a Mass celebrated for the special intention of someone who has died, please fill out the details on one of the envelopes that are available at the entrances to the church. These can be left on any of the collection baskets or given to the Parish Office or Fr Anselam or Fr Joey directly.

Afternoon Tea for Twenty at Holy Name Gardens during this time of restriction

Would you like to join a group of other parishioners for BYO afternoon tea on the lawn of the church on a Sunday afternoon so that we can continue to celebrate our connections with each other?

After the success of our inaugural afternoon tea a few weeks ago, we are now looking at arranging the next one.

If you are interested, please email your name(s) and contact details to secretary@holynamewahroonga.com.au or call the Parish Office 9489 3221.

A Reflection

The frequency with which we consider the question of insider-outsider is an indication of how important universalism and the breaking down of boundaries is within our religious tradition. All peoples, all lands are called on to praise God. Furthermore, God cares about and cares for all people (see Is 19:25), and God works through all people to accomplish good in the world: Gandhi, a Hindu of Indian origin; Martin Luther King, Jr, a Baptist minister; Susan B. Anthony, a suffragist; Nelson Mandela, a Black South African, etc. Human beings have always realised that, in comparison with the grandeur and expansiveness of the universe within which they live, they are weak and vulnerable creatures. This has led them to believe in and offer homage to a divine being, or beings. Praise of God has always been an expression of awe and gratitude as well as humility.

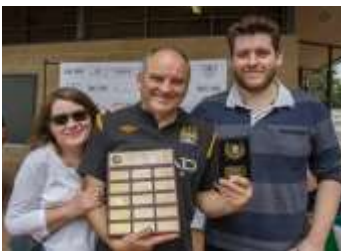

If neither gender, nor race, nor age, nor class nor culture qualifies one for being an insider, what does? Today's readings suggest that it is service of others. In breaking down the walls of prejudice, the social activists of our own age liberate not only the oppressed groups to which they belong, but also those who oppress them. The lives of these dynamic people show us that service of others draws them into our circles and encircles us in theirs. With open arms God invites all into an embrace of divine love. As God has embraced us, so we are called to embrace all others.

Whole School Friendship Liturgy and The Artist Is Me Day

Last Friday 16th October, we commemorated the 4th Anniversary of Eli, Martin and Maria with many wonderful, special happenings around the school. One such way was a sacred space that was created around Maria's bench. As staff, students and parents arrived, they were met with photos of Eli and Martin, as well as some of their beautiful artworks. Butterflies, roses and prayers were made available for people to either take or pin to the trees, and soft instrumental music helped ensure the space was calm and inviting for all who entered into it.

In addition to this, was our whole school Friendship Liturgy which each class was able to hold in their rooms when classes commenced in the morning, and the rest of the day was dedicated to many fabulous and fun creative art workshops that were offered on rotation.

The children thoroughly enjoyed all aspects of the day, and looked wonderful in all their brightly coloured mufti clothing, too!
