27th March - Fourth Sunday of Lent

From Fr Paul

This Sunday we celebrate the Confirmation of 42 of our young people in the Parish. It is our first Confirmation since 2019. This is a wonderful opportunity to reinvigorate the Sacramental life of the parish after the lockdowns of recent years.

Fr Sam, Sally Oong, Samantha Sheather, Saree Zaragoza and I have been actively involved in preparing the children with their families in recent weeks. We congratulate these children and pray that this time will be a true experience of the Holy Spirit in their lives and the lives of their families and Sponsors. We thank the Sponsors for their support of the children:

Aurelia Bell, Niamh Black, Amelie Boon, Lucas Bradley, Zara Campbell, Darcey Carolan, Isabella Castillo Bernal, Harriet Chenney, Eleanor Eid, Josie Gibbs, Alice Hallam, Nicholas Hanley, Mia Hill, Ashworth Hilton, Jakub Hundert, Georgia Kelly, Jared Lee, Poppy McAuliffe, Abigail Mitchell, Ava Munce, Isis Nardi, Hannah O'Leary, Annabella Palacios, Diyana Palihawadana, Matthew Pepper, Larkin Polack, Atticus Quoyale, Georgina Rhodes, Luke Ringrose, Marko Seput, Sebastian Simone Acevedo, Alejandra Simone Acevedo, Alex Skatulaska, Christopher Suta, Emily Tasker, Elijah Thomas, Lachlan Tulk, Diego Vargas, Ethan Wang, James Whitby, Jack Wilson, Kiara Zaragoza.

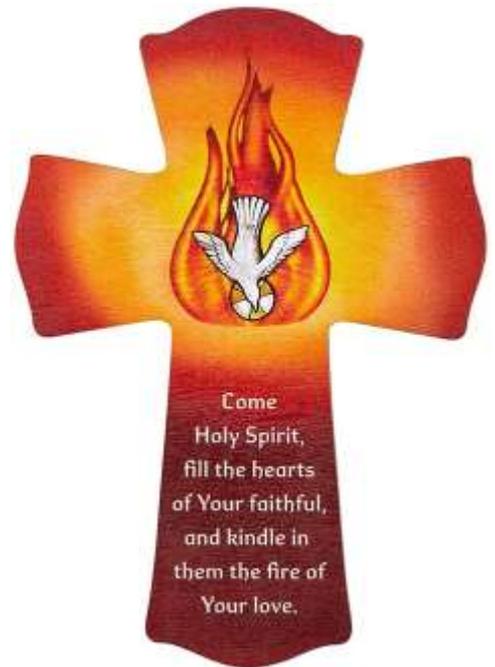

Ignatios of Lakatia offers this inspiring reflection on the difference the Holy Spirit brings to our lives and to the life of the Church:

Without the Holy Spirit, God is far away,

Christ stays in the past,
The Gospel is a dead letter,
The Church is simply an organisation,
Authority is a matter of domination,
Mission a matter of propaganda,
The liturgy is no more than an evocation,
Christian living a slave morality.

But with the Holy Spirit:

The cosmos is resurrected and groans with the birth pangs of the Kingdom,
The risen Christ is there,
The Gospel is the power of life,
The Church shows forth the life of the Trinity,
Authority is a liberating service,
Mission is a Pentecost,
The liturgy is both memorial and anticipation, and Human action is deified.

Let us remember our Confirmation candidates, their families and all our parishioners as we pray the traditional Catholic prayer to the Holy Spirit:

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth.

O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations, Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.

What does the Word say to us today - the Fourth Sunday of Lent?

First Reading (Joshua 5:9-12). The Israelites, free at last from the humiliation they suffered in Egypt, enter the land of promise and partake of its produce.

Second Reading (2 Corinthians 5:17-21). Christ brought about a reconciliation between God and humanity. The Church is to announce and live the truth of this to all people.

Gospel (Luke 15:1-3, 11-32). The well-known 'parable of the prodigal son' shows that God delights in showing mercy to repentant sinners.

A clear theme runs through all three readings: God's mercy to sinners. In the First Reading (Joshua 5:9-12) we have the beautiful words God spoke to his people: 'I have taken the shame of Egypt away from you.' The shame of sin and the darkness of slavery are behind them. The years of wandering in the desert are over; they have come to the Promised Land. A new era was about to begin. They mark their homecoming by celebrating anew the feast of Passover.

This reminds us of the home-coming of the prodigal son (Gospel Luke 15:1-3, 11-32). His shame also is behind him. His years of wandering are over and he returns home to a warm welcome and a great feast. A new and bright future lies ahead of him. Jesus told the parable in response to the criticism of the Pharisees that he was too lenient toward sinners. The Pharisees were meant to see themselves in the older son. For Luke, the 'Pharisees' also include those righteous Christians, for whom God's mercy to sinners is unfair and even scandalous. Jesus reminds us that he came to seek out the lost and the sinner.

The Second Reading (2 Corinthians 5:17-21) stresses how God has reconciled us to himself through Christ, not holding our faults against us. The mission of the Church is to bring the salvation won by Christ to all people. This is what we celebrate especially at Easter.

Quotes for Reflection this week

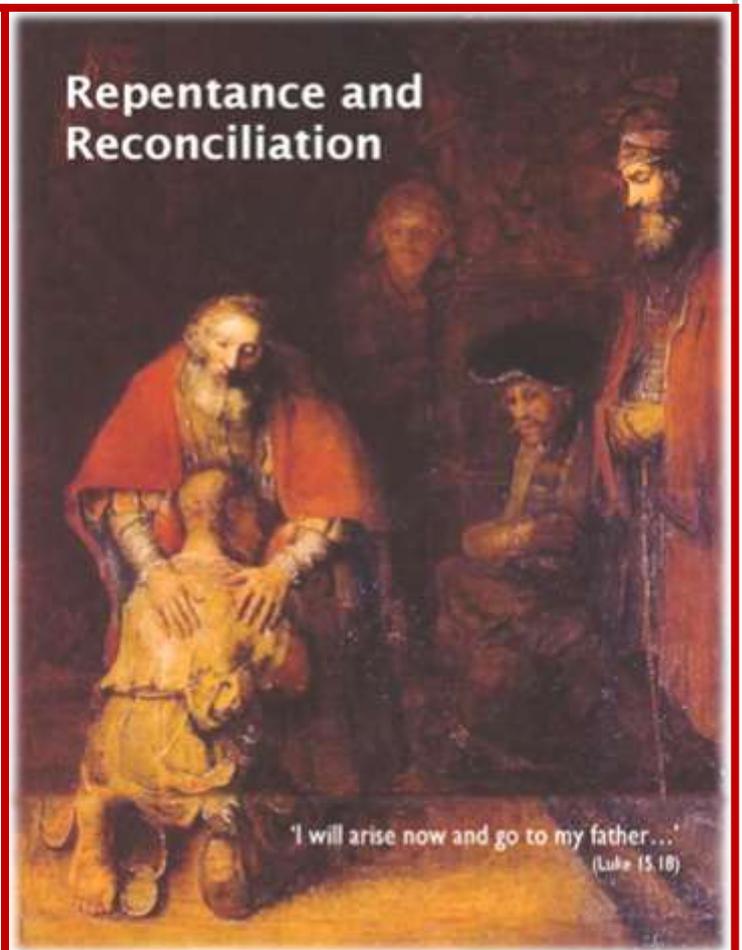

"Why does the parable of the Prodigal son move us so deeply? This parable is really the story of the "merciful father", of a God whose solicitude for each sinner is such that he cannot endure the idea of losing his child, a God of tenderness and compassion, of infinite patience who in order to manifest himself fully as a father must be continually welcoming back the Prodigal.

Every Christian is in danger of becoming like the eldest son who, in contrast to the father, is unwilling to welcome back the erring younger brother."

Fr Gerard MacGinty OSB (editor) Glenstal Bible Missal

"When a father laments that his son has taken to evil ways, what should he do? Love him all the more."

Parish Safeguarding Message

*As a parish, we are committed to safeguarding our children and vulnerable adults.
We pray that the children of the Parish, and indeed the whole world, will have the love, protection, education and guidance which is their birthright.*

Some matters for your consideration...

An update on Practical matters: Electrical Wiring, Plumbing and Trees

We continue to deal with the fallout from the recent very heavy rains. Some may have noticed this week the lights in our Parish Sunroom and Gallery are not working. This is also the case for the lights in the priests' residence (the Priory). We have had an electrician look at this and he found the problem relates to the age of the wiring. He was able to do a temporary repair, so the residence has a working light in the foyer. However, to replace the old cloth wiring is a costly repair. We have no choice but to proceed with this. It is something contained in our overall Maintenance Plan.

Likewise, we have had to engage a plumber to unblock some pipes overgrown with tree roots. Again we are faced with a substantial bill. Whilst we are not permitted to cut down any trees, we have been granted permission from Kuring-gai Council to have some trees in parish grounds 'dead wooded' and a large and dangerous gumtree in the priests' backyard lopped. We hope to be able to do this in the not too distant future as finances permit.

The Parish Finance Committee (PFC) supports and approves these works (electrical, drainage and trees, cited above) being undertaken. I am grateful to parishioners who continue to support the parish through Planned Giving. This helps us with these important maintenance costs. Fr Paul.

The Holy Spirit

(Quotes from the New Testament; prepared by Fr Paul Durkin)

As we celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation in the Parish this weekend, let us reflect on the life of the Holy Spirit from the New Testament.

John declared before them all “I baptise you with water, but someone is coming, who is more powerful than me, and I am not fit to undo the straps of his sandals: he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire.” (Lk 3:16)

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert, for 40 days being put to the test by the devil. (Lk 4:1)

Filled with joy by the Holy Spirit, he said “I bless you Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for hiding these things from the learned and the clever and revealing them to little children....” (Lk 10:21)

“If you then, evil as you are, know how to give your children what is good, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!” (Lk 11:13)

“Everyone who says a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but no one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will be forgiven. When they take you before the synagogues and magistrates and authorities, do not worry about how to defend yourselves or what you are to say, because when the time comes, the Holy Spirit will teach you what you should say.” (Lk 12:10-12)

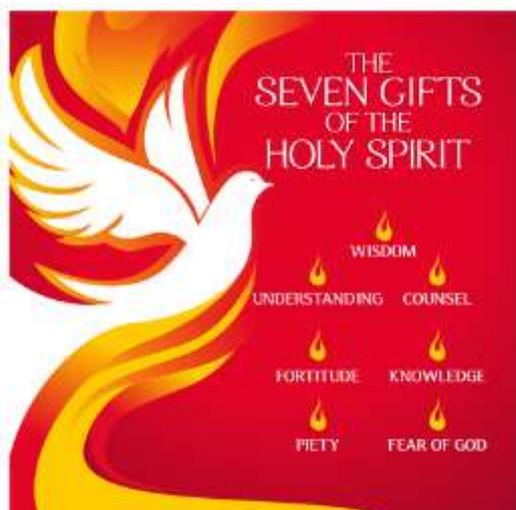

“... the Paraclete, the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you.” (Jn 14:26)

The disciples were filled with joy at seeing the Lord, and he said to them again “Peace be with you. As the Father sent me, so I am sending you”. After saying this he breathed on them and said:

“Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive anyone’s sins, they are forgiven: If you retain anyone’s sins, they are retained.” (Jn 20:21-23)

“... you will receive the power of the Holy Spirit which will come on you, and then you will be my witnesses ... to the remotest ends of the earth.” (Acts 1:8)

Peter said “God raised this man Jesus to life, and of that we are all witnesses. Now raised to the heights of God’s right hand, he has received from the Father the Holy Spirit, who was promised, and what you see and hear is the outpouring of that spirit.” (Acts 2:32-33)

The fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, trustfulness, gentleness and self-control; no law can touch such things as these ... Since we are living by the spirit, let our behaviour be guided by the Spirit and let us not be conceited or provocative and envious of one another. (Gal 5:22-26)

Come Holy Spirit!
