Welcome!

A very warm welcome to anyone visiting our parish. It is good to have you with us. If you have any questions or would like to know more about our community at Holy Name please visit our parish website at www.holynamewahroonga.com.au.

In him was life, and the life was the light of all people.
The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness
did not overcome it (John 1:4)

Ever-living God,

Jesus, your Beloved Son is the Light that burst forth from the darkness of the grave, the Light that can never be dimmed by selfishness or greed, or pain or death

Encircle us in this same light, O God, bathed in the waters of baptism, anointed and sent by your Spirit, nourished at the table of thanksgiving.

May our faith and hope shine brightly to fill every dark corner of the earth with the light of your love.

May we live this day with Easter joy, raised to new life with your Son, Jesus Christ, our Passover and our Peace, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Each day this week, let love light up your smile!

Shake your inner joy free to raise the spirits of someone who need to smile again.

Let them know, simply by your joyful presence, that life is a gift worth living.

By doing this you give active witness to the resurrection of Christ—without having to say a word!

Easter reminds us that hope must never be lost for as dark as the road may seem, there always lies light at the end of it. May all your prayers be fulfilled. May you have a pleasant

Easter!

From Fr David

Dear friends,

The joy of this Easter Season continue to be with you!

To my shame in my column last week I missed expressing our thanks to two people who worked so hard in the background to ensure our Easter Sunday was as vibrant as it was—Annette Stuart–Robertson and Maureen. Annette and Maureen arranged all the flowers for our Easter Celebration! Thank you so much Annette and Maureen, along with Trish Maiolo and Alison who kept them fresh through the week!

A special thank you, too, for all those who assisted on the very sad occasion of our farewell to Andy Watson last Wednesday. Our farewell of this remarkable young man was very large, and a number of people assisted particularly with the management of traffic on the morning. Again, we extend to Andy's wife, Rocio and to Andy's parents, Maurice and Jane and all his brothers, sisters and cousins are deepest sympathy at this sad time.

Our deep sympathy, too, to Ken Onishi whose mother passed away this week in Japan. Ken and Katrina have flown back to Japan to be with Ken's family.

On Wednesday afternoon, "our new" continuo organ arrived! Here it is now proudly positioned on the side of the sanctuary. This beautiful instrument is on loan from the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra, and will replace the electronic keyboard used by our Schola when it leads us in music.

Our trip has been very enjoyable and gone very smoothly so far except for our transport plans (or lack thereof) from Bram to Prouilhe which meant we ended up having to walk with our luggage for 8 km through crops and over freshly ploughed fields!

“Our New” Continuo Organ has arrived

The loan of the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra - Continuo organ

As we are aware, our parish community has had a long standing aspiration for a new pipe organ. I am very happy that in the coming months we will be able to share with you some exciting news about the realisation of such a dream. We are now in very active negotiations with a church in the United States for the procurement of the redundant instrument—a pipe organ of the most magnificent quality.

A large pipe organ is for the accompaniment of an entire congregation and for recitals! A schola is accompanied by a much smaller instrument. And our own schola is about to be blessed with such an instrument! Now, alongside the possibility of a large church pipe organ we have been blessed to have been proposed the loan of a smaller instrument to accompany our schola. The smaller organ belongs to the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra. It has been in storage for some years, but the Orchestra has offered it to us on loan for our own use. It will arrive in the coming week, and be located on the side of the Sanctuary.

The Mander Organ, London, 2003 is a 1 manual, 4 speaking stops, mechanical action instrument. In 2002, the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra commissioned Mander Organs of London to construct a four rank continuo organ. Funds for the construction of the instrument were raised solely by the Brandenburg Friends Association and the organ was first heard in public during the "Coronation" concert series in October 2003 at City Recital Hall Angel Place. The instrument was the first Mander organ to be delivered to Australia and was closely followed by the installation of a 2 manual instrument in the "Big School" Hall at Sydney Grammar School in College Street. One of the unique features of the organ is the full compass Principal 4' which extends to bottom C. The lowest notes of this rank are constructed from Quebec pine, mitred and mounted in the base of the instrument. Some of this rank also appears in the pipe façade along with some of the Fifteenth. The need for an organ that was to be generous in scaling and yet portable was a challenge for the builders. The case was constructed from untreated Brazilian mahogany and the carving of the pipe-shades and the pierced panels was executed in untreated limewood. From an aesthetic (and practical) point of view, it was considered important that the blower be concealed inside the case. The key naturals are covered in bone and the sharps in ebony. Removable doors are also fitted to the front of the case to protect the polished tin façade from damage during transportation.

The Australian harpsichord builder Marc Nobel, who undertook the decoration of the casework, also designed the carving for the pipe-shades and suggested the original scheme of the pipe façade. When not in use, the organ will now be stored at Holy Name Wahroonga Church. This is a beautiful addition to our church and a wonderful boost to a magnificent parish Schola of Sacred Music.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra for this remarkable generosity to us!

Family Drug Support

Family Drug Support is a not for profit organisation that provides non-judgemental, non-directive support and information to families and friends of drug users across Australia. It was founded in 1997 by Tony Trimmingham following the loss of his son to a heroin overdose. In searching for support for himself and his family, he realised that there was very little available. Overwhelming response to a public meeting he organised led to the formation of Family Drug Support.
