28 March 2021—Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord
Welcome!

From Fr Paul

Dear Parishioners

It was good to gather for the first Parish Pastoral Missionary Council (PPMC) meeting this week. We welcomed Genevieve Smith, the new Principal of Prouille. With Genevieve, Deacon Sam and me new to the PPMC, it was an opportunity to listen to members share about the achievements of this council. We then shared what members considered the challenges facing the parish in the coming years. This will be shared with the parish in time. Our thoughts and support are with Prouille staff and students after extensive water damage during the week.

We wish all the staff, school children and families of the schools in the parish many blessings and good wishes for the Easter holiday which begins on Holy Thursday.

This Holy Week at Holy Name, we gather as a community of faith, preparing to enter more deeply into the Paschal Mystery, the Easter mystery of the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus.

On Palm Sunday, the Church takes part in the prophetic triumph of Christ as he enters the holy city of Jerusalem in order to pass from this world to the Father. Some gathered in the crowd to greet him as Lord and Master, others as curious onlookers, others as critical and judgemental bystanders.

On Holy Thursday, the Church celebrates the two great commands of Jesus before his death: Jesus said as he instituted the Eucharist, the sacrament of his body and blood, “Do this in memory of me”. After washing the disciples’ feet, a sign of humble and loving service, Jesus said “Do as I have done”.

On Good Friday, the Church marks the solemn celebration of the Lord’s Passion. Jesus, a king despised and disfigured, the victim of an unjust system, symbolises in his state of abandonment, the degradation to which human beings can be reduced. Yet he remains all the while the ‘man for others’.

On Easter Sunday, after a day of silent reflection, the Church rejoices in the Resurrection: “on the third day, he rose again.” Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more. As his followers, “we look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.” This is the core of Christian faith.

Wishing you a special blessing this Holy Week. Fr Paul

Easter Sunday

We look forward to this great celebration of the Paschal (Easter) Mystery - the passion, death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Remember this is an opportunity to invite family members and neighbours who may not attend church regularly.

Thank you to all those in our community who have helped in any way with the preparation of the Church and all that is needed for the liturgy. A special word of acknowledgement to our musicians.

Easter Ministers.

This weekend, sign-up sheets will be placed at the back of the church for the Easter Services. There are many opportunities available, so please put your name down for any role that suits- across several services if you wish. The sheets will stay there till Monday lunchtime 29th March. Any gaps will then be communicated, and hopefully filled.

Remembering those not able to be with us

Cards will be sent to very sick, elderly and housebound parishioners who are unable to join us for the Easter ceremonies. Please inform the parish office of anyone in our parish who would appreciate this support. We pray for the sick and suffering of our community that the peace and joy of the Risen Lord will be a real source of strength for them – and for all of us.

Supper after Easter Vigil

Supper will be held after the Easter Vigil.
All are welcome.

Easter Holy Water

Spirit of St Lucy's

Harmony Day:

As you may have been well aware, our nation recently celebrated Harmony Week: a wonderful initiative that embraces and celebrates the rich diversity we have within Australia. At St Lucy's, we acknowledged the many wonderful cultures that contribute to the uniqueness of our school, with a whole school celebration of Harmony Day!

This included a whole school liturgy which took place within classrooms, as well as a whole school mufti day – staff and students were invited to wear either the colour orange or clothing that represented their cultural heritage. In addition to this, activities were held to bring meaning to our students as to why this day is so special – there was cooking of dishes like pasta and mie goreng, identifying places of heritage using GoogleEarth, and the sharing of songs, stories and dances from many different cultural backgrounds.

Holy Thursday - The Institution of the Eucharist and Ordained Priesthood

Holy Thursday, in this coming Holy Week, celebrates the institution of the Eucharist as the true body and blood of Jesus Christ and the institution of the ordained Priesthood.

"The hands of a Priest" is a very old poem written in Ireland, author unknown. In our contemporary world and Church, it may offer an overly sentimental and idealised view of the ordained Priesthood.

Nevertheless, it is a reminder that every Priest shares in the Priesthood of Christ, and has the sacred duty of dispensing the Sacraments to the faithful, especially that of celebrating the holy sacrifice of the Mass.

The Hands of a Priest

*We need them in life's early morning,
We need them again at its close;
We feel their warm clasp of true friendship,
We seek them when tasting life's woes.*

*At the altar each day we behold them,
And the hands of a king on his throne
Are not equal to them in their greatness;
Their dignity stands all alone;*

*And when we are tempted and wander,
To pathways of shame and of sin,
It's the hand of a priest that will absolve us--
Not once, but again and again.*

*And when we are taking life's partner,
Other hands may prepare us a feast,
But the hand that will bless and unite us--
Is the beautiful hand of a priest.*

*God bless them and keep them all holy,
For the Host which their fingers caress;
When can a poor sinner do better,
Than to ask Him to guide thee and bless?*

*When the hour of death comes upon us,
May our courage and strength be increased,
By seeing raised over us in blessing--
The beautiful hands of a priest.*

Jesus institutes the Eucharist

According to the Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke the Eucharist was instituted when the Passover meal was being celebrated. Jesus is the new Paschal lamb being eaten. What happened during the meal was a prophetic sign of the sacrifice of Calvary which was to take place the next day. The ritual anticipated what was to come:

"... this is my body, which will be given up for you... this is the chalice of my blood, the blood of the new and eternal covenant, which will be poured out for you..."
(The Wonder of the Eucharist, Fr Ken Barker MGL, Modotti Press, 2015)

Please pray for the eleven men currently preparing for the ordained Priesthood for the Diocese of Broken Bay and for the five men preparing for the permanent Diaconate.

Pray also for those who are discerning a call to be a priest or deacon.

Let us pray that the Lord will raise up for us shepherds after his own heart.

Thou Art A Priest Forever

To live in the midst of the world,
Without wishing its pleasures;
To be a member of each family,
Yet belonging to none;
To share all sufferings;
To penetrate all secrets;
To heal all wounds;
To go from men to God
And offer Him their Prayers;
To return from God to men
To bring pardon and hope;
To have a heart of fire for charity
And a heart of bronze for chastity;
To teach and to pardon,
Console and bless always—
What a glorious life!
And it is yours,
O Priest of Jesus Christ!

Pray for Justice and Peace

On Palm Sunday we remember Jesus' entry into Jerusalem on a donkey. Jesus accepts death on a cross rather than engaging in violence. The contrast between the Prince of Peace and the powers and dominions of his day could not be starker. This is the basis of the Palm Sunday tradition of action in favour of peace and non-violent alternatives for addressing social, ecological, economic and political issues.

The Office for Social Justice invites you, on Palm Sunday and beyond, to pray for justice and peace in Myanmar. Dr Sandie Cornish, Social Justice Officer, has prepared resources for use in parishes, small group gatherings or individually, including prayers of intercession at Mass.

Reflections for Palm Sunday

Let us run to accompany Christ as he hastens toward his passion, and imitate those who met him then, not by covering his path with garments, olive branches or palms, but by doing all we can to prostrate ourselves before him by being humble and by trying to live as he would wish.

*Let us spread before his feet,
not garments or soulless olive branches,
which delight the eye for a few hours and then wither,
but ourselves, clothed in his grace,
or rather, clothed completely in him.*

*We who have been baptized into Christ must ourselves
be the garments that we spread before him.
Now that the crimson stains of our sins have been washed away in the saving waters of baptism
and we have become white as pure wool,
let us present the conqueror of death,
not with mere branches of palms
but with the real rewards of his victory.*

Let our souls take the place of the welcoming branches as we join today in the children's holy song:

"Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Blessed is the king of Israel.

St. Andrew of Crete (650-740)

Palm Sunday tells us that it is the cross that is the true tree of life.

Pope Benedict XVI

Let us follow Jesus! We accompany, we follow Jesus, but above all we know that he accompanies us and carries us on his shoulders. This is our joy, this is the hope that we must bring to this world.
