This Sunday, 30 September, Social Justice Sunday

The Australian Catholic Bishops are deeply concerned about Australia's alarming growth in homelessness and insecure housing.

In their Social Justice Statement 2018-19, A Place to Call Home: Making a home for everyone in our land, the Bishops have called on Australians to look beyond the immediate challenges of the average household budget, and to consider those who are homeless or facing housing stress because of skyrocketing rents and property prices.

Reflection aids can be found at <http://www.socialjustice.catholic.org.au/publications/social-justice-statements#SJS2018>

Fr David

Dear friends

What a great joy was the School Musical, "To Find a Bunyip" at Prouille this week! The music, the singing, the lighting, the costumes were simply exceptional! Well done to all our children and the army of people who have made this year's musical simply one of the best! And a special congratulations to Mr Dominic Meagher, the creative genius behind it all! Now, we wish all our children and their families, and teachers, a great holiday at the end of Term 3.

This Monday I travel to Vietnam for several days. The purpose of my visit is to meet the families of two new students for the priesthood that are joining our Diocese from Xuan Loc, east of Saigon. On behalf of our Diocese I will thank the families for their generosity in sharing their sons with us. Vincent Huy and Thomas Tan will then return with me to Sydney on Thursday to begin their life here in Australia. Many of you will remember them for their time with us last year when they stayed in our parish for a period of discernment. They will stay with us for a few days before taking up residence at Good Shepherd Seminary, Homebush, and then return to us for the summer holidays in December. The arrival of Huy and Tan will bring the number of seminarians for our Diocese to a most remarkable number of 8. This is a source of great blessing and encouragement for us as local Church. Our prayers for vocations are certainly being heard!

This weekend, as Diocesan Administrator I am travelling to a number of our parishes: Lower North Shore, Epping-Carlingford and Woy Woy to admit to the Ministry of Lector, two of our seminarians, Martino Hoang and Hien Vu, and to the Ministry of Acolyte, another, Sam French. These are significant milestones on our candidates' journey to priesthood. Do keep all our seminarians very much in your prayer.

Fr Anselm takes his annual leave from this Thursday 4 October, returning on the 25 October. Though he has only just joined us, I have insisted that he not change his plans for leave which have been in place for many months. We wish him a restful and relaxing time over the next few weeks and look forward to having him back with us ahead of our great 70th Anniversary Celebration on Sunday 28 October. Whilst Fr Anselm is away I will seek to juggle both parish and diocese! Hopefully, we will be able to maintain our normal schedule as closely as possible over the next three weeks.

Australian Plenary Council 2020

Join us in Dialogue about "What do you think God is asking of us in Australia at this time?"

Pope Francis has given his formal approval for the Catholic Church in Australia to hold a Plenary Council in 2020.

The Plenary Council 2020 is a gathering of Bishops and selected delegates in Australia to make decisions about the future direction of the Church.

Preparation for the Plenary Council 2020 begins with open 'Listening and Dialogue'.

We have been given an exciting opportunity to have our say by responding to the question "What do you think God is asking of us in Australia at this time?"

The Council acknowledges how important your voice, stories and experience of faith are in helping to shape the future direction of the Catholic Church.

What is special about this journey is that anyone in the community whether part of the Catholic faith or not, can respond.

In the Parish we are starting with evening meetings. We invite you to join us for an evening of engagement and rich dialogue. You do not have to attend all the evenings, come to one or two.

Dates of our Next Small Group Facilitations
Thursday 4th October
from 7.30pm to 9pm in Prouille Hall

We also invite parishioners who run groups at the church during the day to put your name down on the sheets so we can get your help in running a listening and dialogue group with your participants. If you have any questions please email the Holy Name Plenary Chair - Tom Waugh on twaugh76@gmail.com

Copies of the Plenary Council Prayer are available at the entrance to our Church. Please take one home with you. You can respond as an individual by going to the Plenary Council 2020 website <http://plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au/> or by joining some of the parish group sessions.

Plenary Council Prayer

*Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost.
Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.*

O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council.

Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road.

Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth.

Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying.

*Lead your Church into a hope-filled future,
that we may live the joy of the Gospel.*

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age.

Amen.

*Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us.
St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.*

Spirit of St Lucy's

Spirit of St Lucy's – School Athletics Carnival

Recently, the children of St Lucy's participated in their annual Athletics Carnival. This takes place on the grounds at Wahroonga and includes events like: target throw, sack race, egg and spoon, obstacle course, rocket throw, Dance Off! and mini-hurdles. Each class is always encouraged to dress up, and this year's theme was book characters. The weather was ideal and those who came along – staff, volunteers and parents – loved seeing the children enjoying themselves!

Aid to the Church in Need is a Catholic charity helping to bring Christ to the world through prayer, information and action; the charity is a Pontifical Foundation of the Catholic Church. The role of a Diocesan Outreach assistant is to present the work of Aid to the Church in Need (ACN) in the area to which he or she is appointed through talks, appeals and presentations. The program will be initially trialled in Sydney but we will welcome expressions of interests from other states. Ideally, the Diocesan Outreach assistant should live within the designated area. Women in the Scriptures: Discovering their Stories

There are many intriguing stories in the Bible which feature women across both the Old and New Testaments. Over two evenings, rediscover these stories with biblical scholars and educators Dr Michele Connolly, RSJ and Dr Debra Snoddy from the Catholic Institute of Sydney. Hear the voices of courageous, faithful, strong, gentle, and shrewd women, and understand their contexts, roles and relationships in the society and households of their times, as well as the way in which they are portrayed in the biblical texts.

Date: Mondays 15 & 22 October 2018

Time: 7.00pm—9.00pm

Venue: Caroline Chisholm Centre, Building 2, 423 Pennant Hills Rd, Pennant Hills (vehicular entry via City View Road)
