4th December - SECOND SUNDAY of ADVENT

From Fr Paul

Bishop Anthony Randazzo has spoken and written about how much he enjoyed his Visitation to Holy Name Parish on 25th-27th November. He was very thankful to the Parish community and to the Parish Team for all the preparation that had gone into the visit. Please see Pages 4 and 5 for more details.

We have begun to celebrate various end-of-year events, such as Graduation Masses, whole school Masses, concerts and celebrations. We wish all the schools of our Parish well with Graduations and these final weeks of school.

This weekend we will hold our Pastoral Works Broken Bay Appeal. This is the second of three appeals. Donations to PWBB are 100% tax deductible and assist the following organisations:

St Lucy's School, St Edmund's College, Confraternity for Christian Doctrine (CCD - Catechists), Hospital Chaplaincy (to support people often in their most vulnerable times) and The Ephpheta Centre (providing support for all people who are deaf or hard of hearing).

St Vincent de Paul Christmas Hamper Appeal; Hampers due THIS WEEKEND. Those preparing hampers are asked to return them to the Church at the 5:00pm Mass on Saturday or the 8:00am or 9.30 Masses on Sunday.

My best wishes as we continue our preparation for Christmas in this second week of Advent.

Today we hear St Matthew quote the prophet Isaiah: "A voice cries in the wilderness: prepare a way for the Lord".

With my prayers and good wishes, Fr Paul

Our Advent Wreath

The Advent Wreath is one of the key symbols in the Church's Liturgy over the next four weeks of waiting and preparation for Christmas. Today, we bless the wreath and light the first candle. Before we do so, let us pause and pray together with a longing and waiting for the coming of the Lord.

We pray together:

*God of grace and promise,
At the beginning of the Advent season,
We gather as a community to prepare for the coming of Jesus.*

We ask you now to bless our Advent Wreath and all who gather round it.

*May it remind us of the first coming of Jesus in the Incarnation, of His continued coming in our hearts and our world today,
and of His future coming in glory.*

The wreath is now blessed with Holy Water.

Our Advent Wreath

As we gather around our Advent Wreath to prepare for the lighting of the second candle, let us pray that nothing may hinder us from receiving Christ with joy. In the words of the acclamation let us pray:

Fr: Prepare a way for the Lord!

All: Make his paths straight!

Fr: Let every valley be filled in!

All: Let every mountain and hill be laid low!

Fr: Straighten the winding pathways, make the rough roads smooth!

All: That all people may see the saving power of God.

The second candle is lit

What does the Word of God say to us today - the second Sunday of Advent?

First reading (Isaiah 11:1-10). The reign of David was the high point in the history of Israel, but his successors failed badly. Still, the hope remained that a future king would succeed where his predecessors failed.

Here Isaiah foretells that even though the family tree of Jesse (David's father) has been reduced to a mere stump, nevertheless from that stump a new shoot (a new king) will spring. He goes on to sketch a portrait of the true king. He will be filled with the Spirit of Yahweh and endowed with all the virtues of his ancestors: the wisdom and understanding of Solomon, the prudence and might of David, the knowledge and fear of the Lord of the patriarchs and prophets. Thus endowed, he will judge fairly and be the champion of the poor. Furthermore, he will restore the peace of paradise. The images used here have become proverbial: prey and predator feeding and sleeping in harmony; a child being safe with the viper.

Second reading (Romans 15:4-9). Paul sees Jesus as the one through whom God fulfilled his promises. He highlights the value of hope. The scriptures show that those who hope refuse to give up. By urging us to treat others in the same way Christ has treated us, the reading continues the theme of peace and harmony of the First Reading.

Gospel (Matthew 3:1-12). Matthew portrays Jesus as the one who fulfils the Old Testament promises. Here he introduces us to John the Baptist and his mission. He has John preaching in the wilderness as Isaiah had foretold, and baptising with water in anticipation of the one who would baptise with the Holy Spirit. He tells us that John wore a garment made of camel hair with a leather belt round his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. Why these details about his clothes and diet? Because this is how Elijah was clothed (2 Kings 1:8). Thus Matthew is telling us that John is that 'Elijah' who was to come.

John begins with the urgent call: 'Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is close at hand.' For John, the Messiah would be an uncompromising judge. He issued a particularly grim warning to the Pharisees and Sadducees, who were to unite in common opposition to Jesus.

A Quote for the coming week

*John (the Baptist) is the voice,
but the Lord in the beginning was the Word.
John is a voice for a time,
but Christ is the eternal Word from the beginning.*
