9 May 2021— Sixth Sunday of Easter

This Sunday, we wish all our mothers, grandmothers and great grandmothers a very Happy Mother's Day. At the 9:30am Mass this Sunday, we especially welcome the families at Prouille who join us for Mass on Mother's Day. You are welcome to stay for morning tea after 9:30am Mass.

A Prayer for Mother's Day

Lord, we remember the mothers
Who have gone before us.

For their love, sacrifice, struggle and joy, we thank you.

Lord, we remember the mothers of Scripture who are a part of our story
as we are a part of your story.

For their courage, faith, love and fierceness, we thank you.

Lord, we remember those who have not given birth to us, but are mothers to us.

For their gift of themselves that they have given, we thank you.

For the women who struggle with fertility, for those women whom society labels as less in their childlessness,
for those women who have lost children.

For their tears, for their strength,
for their wisdom, for their lives,
We thank you.

In your name we pray. Amen

From Fr Paul

Happy Mother's Day to all our mothers

We pray for all the mothers of the parish and wish you each a very special day, thanking you for your love and for the important role you play in our families, our church and our society. A mother understands that the love for her children is so like Christ's love for us: generous, selfless, and unconditional.

For those who find Mother's Day difficult

We acknowledge that Mother's Day can be a painful and difficult time for some: for those whose mother has died, for those who have lost a child, for those who are estranged from their children or their mother, for those who are experiencing great stress within family life. As a parish community, let us be mindful of those who experience this pain, and let us pray that this may be a time of healing.

May: the month of Mary, the mother whom we all love

A reminder that May is the month when we honour Mary as our heavenly mother. As a final gesture of love in his own Passion, Jesus turns to Mary, and says to his beloved disciple John: "behold your mother." And from that time, John (representing all disciples) made a place for her in his heart, in his home. (John 19:26-27). The Rosary is recited daily at 8.45am before the 9.15am Mass. How do we each show our love for Mary, our Mother?

Our Lady of Fatima

This week (Thursday 13th May) marks the 104th anniversary of Mary's first appearance to the three children, Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco at Fatima. It was there that the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared on six occasions in 1917 under the title of Our Lady of the Rosary. This is how Mary introduced herself to the children.

Congratulations to St Edmund's school community on their celebration of Blessed Edmund Rice (Founder of the Christian Brothers) on 5th May. It was a privilege to begin the feast day by celebrating Mass with the College community.

Fr Anselm, Deacon Sam and I visited the Prouille classes on Friday to speak of mother's day, and to distribute to the children in Years 4, 5 and 6 a prayer card and set of wooden Rosary beads.

Wishing you, our parishioners all the best for the coming week and for the month of May, the month dedicated to Mary, our blessed mother.

Fr Paul

Our Sunday Readings

Our readings for 6th Sunday of Easter

First Reading (Acts 10:25-26,34-35,44-48). The first Christian community had been exclusively Jewish. Now comes a turning point with the reception of the first Gentiles. Cornelius was the first Gentile to receive the grace of baptism. The Reading from Acts tells us of his baptism, and tells us that God's salvation is offered to all.

Second Reading (1 John 4:7-10). A profound statement from St John exploring the truth that God is love.

Gospel (John 17:11-19). On the night before he dies, Jesus offers us the law of perfect love: "Love one another as I have loved you." The Jews already knew to love their neighbour as themselves. Jesus asks us to love as he has loved. How does he love? He lays down his life for those he loves. He asks us not so much to be successful, but to be fruitful in being instruments of God's love and mercy in the world.

Pope Francis reminds us we need to be "people who are not greedy, but ready to listen, people who make the effort to engage in sincere dialogue so that the truth can emerge; people who are attracted by goodness and take responsibility for how we use language."

Quotes to reflect on the nature of true love 6th Sunday of Easter and Mother's Day

This is my commandment:
love one another as I have loved you.
No one has greater love than this,
than to lay down one's life for one's friends.
(Jesus in John 15:12-13)

One of Dorothy Day's favourite passages from world literature occurs in Dostoevsky's The Brothers Karamazov, where the old Father Zossima points out to Madame Hohlakov that her supposed crisis of faith is really a crisis of love:

"For love in action is a harsh and dreadful thing compared with love in dreams. Love in dreams is greedy for immediate action, rapidly performed and in the sight of all.
... But active love is labour and fortitude, and for some people too, perhaps a complete science."

"People are often unreasonable, illogical and self-centred.
Love them and forgive them anyway!
If you are kind and loving, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; be kind to them anyway!

.... The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; do good anyway!
Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; give the world the best you've got anyway!"

Spirit of St Lucy's

St Catherine of Siena Feast Day

Last week we celebrated this special feast day with a whole school class-based liturgy and mufti day! St Catherine of Siena was someone who, during her time, advocated for the needs of others, especially those whose rights were not being recognised. As such, at St Lucy's each year, we use this day to raise money for a charity that is attending to the needs of a community or group. This year, our chosen charity is GIVIT (www.givit.org.au) who is currently supporting and assisting those communities affected by the recent floods in NSW and QLD. The children were also encouraged to wear the colour yellow, which is a colour regularly associated with the theme of social justice – a fitting colour and theme, given the work and legacy of this prolific Dominican saint.

Feast Days this Week

Our Lady of Fatima

May 13 marks the anniversary of the first of six apparitions of the Virgin Mary to three shepherd children of Fátima, Portugal. Lucia dos Santos (aged 9) and her cousins Francisco and Jacinta Marto (aged 8 and 6, respectively) were tending sheep in central Portugal in 1917 when they had a vision of a woman surrounded by light who identified herself as the Lady of the Rosary. She exhorted them to pray the rosary for world peace and, over the course of her six apparitions, gave the children three "secrets."

She promised a miracle in October, and on the 13th of that month a crowd of perhaps 70,000 people witnessed a "miraculous solar phenomenon," in which the Sun appeared to fall toward Earth. After initially questioning the authenticity of the children's visions, the Vatican accepted them as appearances of the Virgin Mary (Our Lady of the Holy Rosary of Fátima), and Fátima became the location of one of the greatest Marian shrines in the world, visited by thousands of pilgrims each year.

Saint Matthias (Feast Day 14 May)

Saint Matthias replaced Judas as the twelfth Apostle, as described in the Acts of the Apostles: Acts 1:15-26

Saint Matthias was present with the other Apostles at Pentecost. Aside from this, little is known of the rest of Saint Matthias' life. According to one tradition, he preached for a time in Jerusalem and eventually he was stoned and beheaded. (He is often portrayed holding an axe, the instrument of his death.)

Saint Matthias is the patron of carpenters, tailors, those with smallpox, and in prayers for perseverance and for hope.

The Month of May—Dedicated to Mary

May Month of Mary

We are reminded that May is the month dedicated to Mary, whom we honour as the first disciple, Mother of God and Mother of the Church. We recognise Mary as the one who listened and responded to the call of God.

Remember we pray the Rosary from 8.45am each weekday morning in the church (before the 9.15am Mass). This weekend after all our Masses, there will be available for parishioners Rosary Cards and Rosaries provided by the non-profit group, Mary's Rosary Chain.

On 24th May we celebrate the feast day of Mary, Help of Christians, Patron Saint of Australia. This feast day was instituted by Pope Pius VII in 1815, in thanksgiving for the deliverance of the Holy See from the tyranny of Napoleon.

In the same way, we pray for Mary's intercession that God would continue to bless and protect our parish and our families.

On Monday, 24th May a special Mass at 9:15am will be held to honour Mary, Help of Christians and to celebrate 200 years of Catholic Education in Australia.

Celebrating St Joseph

Last Saturday morning, we celebrated Mass to remember St Joseph the Worker.
We have dedicated our chapel to St Joseph.

Joseph the Worker

Feast Day, 1st May

In the New Testament, Jesus' earthly father and the Virgin Mary's husband. St. Joseph is the patron of the universal Catholic church. His life is referenced in the Gospels, particularly Matthew and Luke.

Jesus was referred to as 'the carpenter's son'. This Feast Day of St Joseph the Worker reminds us of the dignity of human labour and that all people deserve to be treated with dignity, respect and justice.

We honour St Joseph for his place in the life of Jesus and Mary. We revere him as an honourable, faithful and saintly man who lived in obedience to God's will (Matthew 1:20-24) & as the loving, strong and wise protector of the Holy Family (Matthew 2:13-15; Luke 2:49-52).

Holy and Almighty Lord, I give thanks today for my family. May you fill each of us with your love and lead us closer to you. Help us enjoy our time together, growing closer as a family, reflecting your love in this world. Strengthen our relationships, deepen our faith, and build us up into a stronger family focused on following you. Lord, shower your blessings upon each member of my family, speaking your love deeply into their hearts, and healing all that ails. Lord, be the cornerstone of our family, our firm foundation. Amen.
