WELCOME TO THE ASSEMBLY

My name is _____ and I wish you all a good evening/morning.

We acknowledge the Traditional Custodians of this land and their ongoing connection to the lands and waterways. We pay our respect to their elders past and present, and to all First Nations people in our community.

The Fourth Sunday of Easter is Good Shepherd Sunday. This image of Christ speaks of his love, care, and self-giving unto death. It also reminds us of his victory through which we are delivered from a futile way of life.

This Sunday is also World Day of Prayer for Vocations. We implore the Lord to send “shepherds of souls” who can lead us to him and who, like him, can give themselves for the good of the flock. Let us pray for more vocations bound to serve God through the Church.

Please stand together with us now as we greet one another and begin our Mass.
(PAUSE)

The priest presiding at this Mass is Fr. _____

4th Sunday of Easter, YEAR B

PRESIDER We are the flock guided and protected by Jesus, the Good Shepherd who gave his life for us. Full of confidence in his compassionate love, let us pray to him:

RESPONSE Lord, hear our prayer!

For the Church, God's flock on earth: May she always be an example of unity, solidarity, and love under the care of God's representatives. Let us pray! R.

For all the leaders of the Church – the Pope, the bishops, the priests: May they be good shepherds, totally devoted to the welfare and eternal salvation of their flock. Let us pray! R.

For all the lay faithful: May they love their shepherds and experience God's loving care through them. Let us pray! R.

For all parents, teachers, and other people responsible for others: May they always be conscious of the importance of their role and fulfill it with generous dedication. Let us pray! R.

For all those who are called to the priesthood or the religious life: May they respond generously to the Lord's invitation and devote their lives to the good of God's people. Let us pray! R.

For our broken world and all the people everywhere: May the wars in Gaza, Ukraine, and Israel cease; all suffering come to an end and peace be restored. May despair and pain be lifted from every hearts. Let us pray! R.

For the participants of Alpha as they approach the Holy Spirit Retreat. That they may have the courage to attend and be open to receiving the Holy Spirit". Let us pray! R.

May those who have died in the present wars and through captivity find life in God. We remember those who have died recently: Joseph Bruzanno, Pat Rainsford, Tom Greally, Keith Druery, Maria Kogovsek and those whose anniversaries occur: Bob Newton, Carmelo Sedmak, Valeria Sedmak, Elvira Sotelo Let us pray to the Lord. R.

PRESIDER Lord God, sustain us in our resolve to live as Jesus taught us. As we share in his suffering, may we also come to share in his glory for ever and ever. Amen.

4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER, Year B

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 4:8-12

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

This is the only name by which we can be saved.

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Peter said: 'Rulers of the people, and elders! If you are questioning us today about an act of kindness to a cripple, and asking us how he was healed, then I am glad to tell you all, and would indeed be glad to tell the whole people of Israel, that it was by the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, the one you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, by this name and by no other that this man is able to stand up perfectly healthy, here in your presence, today. This is the stone rejected by you the builders, but which has proved to be the keystone. For of all the names in the world given to men, this is the only one by which we can be saved.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 117:1. 8-9. 21-23. 26. 28-29. R. v.22

(R.) The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone.

1. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
for his love has no end.
It is better to take refuge in the Lord
than to trust in men:
it is better to take refuge in the Lord
than to trust in princes. (R.)
2. I will thank you for you have given answer
and you are my saviour.
The stone which the builders rejected
has become the corner stone.
This is the work of the Lord,
a marvel in our eyes. (R.)
3. Blessed in the name of the Lord is he who comes.
We bless you from the house of the Lord;
I will thank you for you have given answer
and you are my saviour.
Give thanks to the Lord for he is good;
for his love has no end. (R.)

Second Reading

1 John 3:1-2

A reading from the first letter of St John

We shall see God as he is.

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us,
by letting us be called God's children;
and that is what we are.

Because the world refused to acknowledge him,
therefore it does not acknowledge us.

My dear people, we are already the children of God
but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed;
all we know is, that when it is revealed
we shall be like him
because we shall see him as he really is.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 10:14

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;

I know my sheep, and mine know me.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 10:11-18

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

The good shepherd lays down his life for his sheep.

Jesus said:

'I am the good shepherd:
the good shepherd is one who lays down his life for his sheep.
The hired man, since he is not the shepherd
and the sheep do not belong to him, abandons the sheep and runs away
as soon as he sees a wolf coming,
and then the wolf attacks and scatters the sheep;
this is because he is only a hired man
and has no concern for the sheep.
I am the good shepherd;
I know my own
and my own know me,
just as the Father knows me
and I know the Father;
and I lay down my life for my sheep.
And there are other sheep I have
that are not of this fold,
and these I have to lead as well.
They too will listen to my voice,
and there will be only one flock
and one shepherd.
The Father loves me,
because I lay down my life
in order to take it up again.
No one takes it from me;
I lay it down of my own free will,
and as it is in my power to lay it down,
so it is in my power to take it up again;
and this is the command I have been given by my Father.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
