WELCOME TO THE ASSEMBLY

My name is _____ and I wish you all a good evening/morning.

We acknowledge the Traditional Custodians of this land and their ongoing connection to the lands and waterways. We pay our respect to their elders past and present, and to all First Nations people in our community.

Today is the Second Sunday of Easter. In today's Gospel, Christ calls blessed those who believe without seeing. Jesus had shown himself to the apostles— he is alive and reigns in glory. The response of Thomas is for every believer: we confess Jesus as our Lord and God though we have not seen him with our own eyes. Seeing him with the eyes of faith, we give testimony to this faith by our living hope and active service to our brothers and sisters.

Today also is Divine Mercy Sunday. This celebration is a perennial call to every Christian to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that humankind will experience in the years to come.

Please stand together with us now as we greet one another and begin our Mass.
(PAUSE)

Thank you.

The priest presiding at this Mass is Fr. _____

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

PRESIDER We are among those who believe in the resurrection of Jesus even though we never put our fingers in the nail marks in his hands, nor touched his wounded side. Let us renew our profession of faith in the Risen Christ, as we address our petitions to him:

RESPONSE Lord, hear our prayer.

For the Church in mourning, that God may guide and comfort her as she bid farewell to Pope Francis; and for the soul of Pope Francis, may God grant him eternal rest and peace, let us pray! R.

For all people, that they may recognize and respond to God's merciful love, especially in times of change and uncertainty; grow in devotion to the Divine Mercy and live out its message of love and compassion in our daily lives, let us pray! R.

That those who, like Thomas, find it difficult to believe in the Resurrection; may find its proof in the authentic Christian life of all believers, specially us gathered here, let us pray! R.

For the universal Church, that she may remain steadfast in faith and love, even as she undergoes the transition of leadership; and for the College of Cardinals as they prepare for the conclave, that the Holy Spirit may guide them in choosing a worthy successor to the Chair of Peter, let us pray! R.

That all those who risk their lives for the Gospel in various parts of the world may inflame the Church with their courage and missionary enthusiasm that the Lord is truly rise, let us pray! R.

For our broken world torn by war and all the people everywhere: May all conflict and all suffering come to an end and peace be restored. May despair and pain be lifted from every heart, let us pray! R.

May those who have died in the present wars and through captivity find life in God. We remember those who have died recently: Pope Francis, Margaret Traynor, Fr John Whelan OSA, Fr John Hennebry OSA, Horst Bodisco and those whose anniversaries occur: -Catherine Moscrop, Jack Saunders, Jeanne McGlynn, Dot Riddington, Elvira Sotelo, let us pray! R.

PRESIDER Lord God may the splendour of Your Son's resurrection always illumine our lives. May our thoughts, words, and actions bear witness to the new life You have given us. We ask this in the name of Jesus our risen Lord. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Masses for Pope Francis

This past week, we received the sad news that our Holy Father, Pope Francis, passed away in Rome at the age of 88. Our Bishop Anthony has requested all parishes offer Votive Masses to pray for the repose of Pope Francis's soul. Our parish will offer a Votive Mass on Monday, April 28 at 8:30AM at St Kieran's Church. There will also be a Solemn Mass offered on Monday evening at 7:00PM at Our Lady of the Rosary Cathedral, Waitara. All are invited to attend.

Vinnies Barbeque

St Vincent de Paul are launching their Winter Appeal with a barbeque on election day, Saturday 3rd May. Come to the Parish Centre from 8:00AM to purchase sausage sandwiches, bacon and egg rolls, coffee, drinks, and more. All proceeds support vulnerable members of our community. Donations towards the appeal will be taken on the day or you can choose to donate using the QR code in the bulletin. If you would like to volunteer on the day, please contact Lea Joris via the Parish Office. Thank you for your continued support giving a hand up to those in need in our community.

Youth Mass

All young people are invited to attend our next Youth Mass, which will be held on Sunday, May 11 at 5pm at St Kieran's Church. Join us for this time of prayer and worship. Mass is followed by a sausage sizzle, light refreshments and the opportunity for fellowship. We look forward to seeing you there.

Social Justice Group

Come and join the social justice group on Monday, May 12 at 7PM in the Parish Centre. We will receive spiritual guidance from Fr John as we explore the meaning of social justice and what we can do to make a difference in our community. All are welcome.

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 5:12-16

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

The numbers of men and women who came to believe in the Lord increased steadily.

The faithful all used to meet by common consent in the Portico of Solomon. No one else ever dared to join them, but the people were loud in their praise and the numbers of men and women who came to believe in the Lord increased steadily. So many signs and wonders were worked among the people at the hands of the apostles that the sick were even taken out into the streets and laid on beds and sleeping-mats in the hope that at least the shadow of Peter might fall across some of them as he went past. People even came crowding in from the towns round about Jerusalem, bringing with them their sick and those tormented by unclean spirits, and all of them were cured.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 117:2-4. 22-27. R. v.1

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
his love is everlasting.

1. Let the sons of Israel say:
‘His love has no end.’
Let the sons of Aaron say:
‘His love has no end.’
Let those who fear the Lord say:
‘His love has no end.’ (R.)
2. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.
This is the work of the Lord,
a marvel in our eyes.
This day was made by the Lord;
we rejoice and are glad. (R.)
3. O Lord, grant us salvation;
O Lord grant success.
Blessed in the name of the Lord
is he who comes.
We bless you from the house of the Lord;
the true God is our light. (R.)

Second Reading

Revelation 1:9-13, 17-19

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

I was dead and now I am to live for ever and ever.

My name is John, and through our union in Jesus I am your brother and share your sufferings, your kingdom, and all you endure. I was on the island of Patmos for having preached God's word and witnessed for Jesus; it was the Lord's day and the Spirit possessed me, and I heard a voice behind me, shouting like a trumpet, 'Write down all that you see in a book.' I turned round to see who had spoken to me, and when I turned I saw seven golden lamp-stands and, surrounded by them, a figure like a Son of man, dressed in a long robe tied at the waist with a golden girdle.

When I saw him, I fell in a dead faint at his feet, but he touched me with his right hand and said, 'Do not be afraid; it is I, the First and the Last; I am the Living One. I was dead and now I am to live for ever and ever, and I hold the keys of death and of the underworld. Now write down all that you see of present happenings and things that are still to come.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 20:29

Alleluia, alleluia!

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me;
happy those who have not seen me, but still believe!

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 20:19-31

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

After eight days Jesus came in and stood among them.

In the evening of that same day, the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you,' and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you.'

'As the Father sent me,
so am I sending you.'

After saying this he breathed on them and said:

'Receive the Holy Spirit.
For those whose sins you forgive,
they are forgiven;
for those whose sins you retain,
they are retained.'

Thomas, called the Twin, who was one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. When the disciples said, 'We have seen the Lord', he answered, 'Unless I see the holes that the nails made in his hands and can put my finger into the holes they made, and unless I can put my hand into his side, I refuse to believe.' Eight days later the disciples were in the house again and Thomas was with them. The doors were closed, but Jesus came in and stood among them. 'Peace be with you' he said. Then he spoke to Thomas, 'Put your finger here; look, here are my hands. Give me your hand; put it into my side. Doubt no longer but believe.' Thomas replied, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him:

'You believe because you can see me.
Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.'

There were many other signs that Jesus worked and the disciples saw, but they are not recorded in this book. These are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing this you may have life through his name.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
