WELCOME TO THE ASSEMBLY

My name is _____ and I wish you all a good evening/morning.

We acknowledge the Traditional Custodians of this land and their ongoing connection to the lands and waterways. We pay our respect to their elders past and present, and to all First Nations people in our community.

Today is the Fifth Sunday of Easter. At the Last Supper, before his departure, Jesus leaves a sign by which the disciples will be known as his very own: their love for one another. The measure of this love is the love of Jesus for them which makes Jesus stoop to wash their feet and to die on the cross.

The seal of our belonging to Christ remains the same: our love for the Lord and for one another. May we remain faithful to this commandment.

Please stand together with us now as we greet one another and begin our Mass.
(PAUSE)

Thank you.

The priest presiding at this Mass is Fr. _____

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

PRESIDER Sincere and practical love of neighbor should be the hallmark of all our communities and of each of us. We know how challenging this can be. Therefore, with humble trust, let us ask the Lord's help:

RESPONSE Lord, hear our prayer.

That the Church and her leaders may constantly uphold the primacy of love among all values, inspire us with a life patterned after that of Jesus,
Let us pray R.

That our Christian communities may rise above the predominant attitudes of individualism, indifference, and selfishness; forgive those who offended us and refrain from harboring grudge and feelings of revenge, Let us pray R.

That we may not fail to show loving concern for our neighbor, especially the sick, the poor, and the marginalized, Let us pray R.

For our broken world torn by war and all the people everywhere: May all conflict and all suffering come to an end and peace be restored. May despair and pain be lifted from every heart, Let us pray! R.

That God might look upon and bless our efforts for our 2025 Catholic Appeal, as we strive to proclaim and witness to the Gospel in our parish,
Let us pray R.

May those who have died in the present wars and through captivity find life in God. We remember those who have died recently: Louise Hughes, Fr Thomas A Peyton MM, Ivy Mascarenhas, Jamie Dowsett, Mary Moran, Mary Carmen Bonavia, Geoff Moorcroft, and those whose anniversaries occur: Peter Keogh, Henry Gawecki, Barbara Gawecka, Helen Richardson, Barry Koorey Let us pray! R.

PRESIDER Lord Jesus Christ, grant us the grace to show our love through acts of compassion, generosity and forgiveness, in imitation of you who continue to love and care for ever and ever. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sound System

A friendly reminder that the second stage of our sound system upgrade to St Kieran's Church will take place this week, from 19-23 May. To allow technicians full access to the church over these days, Masses will be held in Centre 1 in the Parish Centre. Thank you for your understanding.

School Mass & CLOW

Next weekend, St Kieran's Stage 3 will lead us in their School Mass at 5PM on Sunday evening. We will also hold Children's Liturgy of the Word during all Masses, which offers a great opportunity for your children to participate in the liturgy through music, prayer and activities. All are welcome.

Pentecost Sunday

Pentecost Sunday falls on June 8, and this year we will celebrate with a special parish Mass at 9:30AM at St Kieran's, followed by an international food festival. Please bring some food from your culture to share on the day. If you would like to share a song, dance, poem or joke from your culture, please contact Ursula or Fr Jojo.

Pentecost Baking

In celebration of Pentecost Sunday, we are calling for volunteer bakers to help us make dove cookies to share at our parish events that weekend. The recipe, cookie cutters and decorations will be provided. If you would like to help or want some more information, please contact the Parish Office.

AFA Membership and Save the Date

Membership fees for the Augustinian Formation Association are now due, and can be paid through direct deposit or in cash through the parish office. Account details are in the bulletin. If you would like to join AFA, please contact Adriana.

AFA's upcoming Christmas in July fundraiser will be held on Saturday, 19 July in the Parish Centre. We look forward to seeing you there! We'd also like to express a big thank you to those who supported our Sue Colwell Walk and Talk Fundraiser. Even though the walk didn't go ahead due to bad weather, we raised $2,842 to support Augustinians in formation. Thank you!

Pastoral Works Broken Bay

This weekend, we have the Pastoral Works May Appeal which supports various charities throughout the diocese.

This financial year, our quota is $47,091 and to date we have raised less than 10% of this amount. Envelopes are on the pews, or you can use the tap and go machines labelled special collections.. All donations over $2 are tax-deductible. Thank you for your generosity.

We will now watch a brief video from the Diocese about the Appeal.

5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER, YEAR C

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 14:21-27

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

They assembled the church and gave an account of all that God had done with them.

Paul and Barnabas went back through Lystra and Iconium to Antioch. They put fresh heart into the disciples, encouraging them to persevere in the faith. 'We all have to experience many hardships' they said 'before we enter the kingdom of God.' In each of these churches they appointed elders, and with prayer and fasting they commended them to the Lord in whom they had come to believe.

They passed through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. Then after proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia and from there sailed for Antioch, where they had originally been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now completed.

On their arrival they assembled the church and gave an account of all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith to the pagans.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 144:8-13. R. cf. v.1

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

1. The Lord is kind and full of compassion,
slow to anger, abounding in love.
How good is the Lord to all,
compassionate to all his creatures. (R.)
2. All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing.
They shall speak of the glory of your reign
and declare your might, O God,
to make known to men your mighty deeds
and the glorious splendour of your reign. (R.)
3. Yours is an everlasting kingdom;
your rule lasts from age to age. (R.)

Second Reading

Revelation 21:1-5

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

He will wipe away all the tears from their eyes.

I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth; the first heaven and the first earth had disappeared now, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the holy city, and the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, as beautiful as a bride all dressed for her husband. Then I heard a loud voice call from the throne, 'You see this city? Here God lives among men. He will make his home among them; they shall be his people, and he will be their God; his name is God-with-them. He will wipe away all tears from their eyes; there will be no more death, and no more mourning or sadness. The world of the past has gone.'

Then the One sitting on the throne spoke: 'Now I am making the whole of creation new.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 13:34

Alleluia, alleluia!

I give you a new commandment:
love one another as I have loved you.
Alleluia!

Gospel

John 13:31-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

I give you a new commandment: love one another.

When Judas had gone Jesus said:

‘Now has the Son of Man been glorified,
and in him God has been glorified.
If God has been glorified in him,
God will in turn glorify him in himself,
and will glorify him very soon.
My little children,
I shall not be with you much longer.
I give you a new commandment:
love one another;
just as I have loved you,
you also must love one another.
By this love you have for one another,
everyone will know that you are my disciples.’

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
