WELCOME TO THE ASSEMBLY

Good morning/evening, everyone. My name is _____, and I warmly welcome you to our celebration of the Eucharist on this Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time.

We begin by acknowledging the Traditional Custodians of this land and their enduring connection to its lands and waterways. We pay our respects to Elders past and present, and extend that respect to all First Nations people in our community.

In today's Gospel, the disciples ask Jesus to increase their faith. His response reminds us that even faith as small as a mustard seed can do great things when rooted in trust and humility. We are invited to reflect on how we live out our faith—not in grand gestures, but in daily acts of service, love, and perseverance.

As we gather today, may we be encouraged to nurture our faith, especially in moments of doubt or difficulty, and to remain faithful in the small things that build up the Kingdom of God.

Let us now stand and greet one another as we prepare to begin our celebration.

(PAUSE)

Thank you.

The priest presiding at this Mass is Fr. _____.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

PRESIDER Challenged by the Lord to grow in faith, and trusting only in His merciful love, let us humbly present our petitions to Him:

RESPONSE Lord, hear our prayer.

For the Church, the great family of believers all over the world: May she always be guided by a spirit of faith, which sees God's providential presence even in the most confusing and uncertain events. Let us pray! R.

For the Holy Father, our bishops, and priests: May they continue to inspire us with their persevering faith and their hard work for the good of all the people entrusted to their care. Let us pray! R.

For all those afflicted by sickness or big disappointments: May their faith in a loving and all-wise God be their strength as they strive to rebuild their lives. Let us pray! R.

For our missionaries, the heroes of our faith: May they never grow discouraged by the meager results of their labors but constantly trust in the Lord. Let us pray! R.

For our broken world torn by war and all the people everywhere: May all conflict in the Middle East cease; all suffering, especially in Gaza-Palestine come to an end. May despair and pain be lifted from every heart. Let us pray! R.

May those who have died in the present wars and through captivity find life in God. We remember those who have died recently: Charles Hawksley, Adrienne Leonard, Brian Tierney, and those whose anniversaries occur: Violetta Filacuridi, Maria Campbell, Let us pray! R.

PRESIDER Lord God, yours is the field in which we are called to work, and Yours is the energy we need to fruitfully labor in it. Grant us the humility we need to acknowledge this, and the indispensable faith to persevere in Your service. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Parish Rosary Prayer

October is the month of the Rosary and we encourage you to join us in praying the rosary after the 8.30am mass at St Kieran's on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays. We have been praying especially for our parish renewal since October last year and would love for you to pray with us.

READINGS 5th October - 27th Sunday

First Reading

Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4

A reading from the prophet Habakkuk

The just will live by faithfulness.

How long, Lord, am I to cry for help
while you will not listen;
to cry 'Oppression!' in your ear
and you will not save?

Why do you set injustice before me,
why do you look on where there is tyranny?
Outrage and violence, this is all I see,
all is contention, and discord flourishes.

Then the Lord answered and said,

 'Write the vision down,
 inscribe it on tablets to be easily read,
 since this vision is for its own time only:
 eager for its own fulfilment, it does not deceive;
 if it comes slowly, wait, for come it will, without fail.
 See how he flags, he whose soul is not at rights,
 but the upright man will live by his faithfulness.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 94:1-2. 6-9. R. v.8

(R.) If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

1. Come, ring out our joy to the Lord;
hail the rock who saves us.
Let us come before him, giving thanks,
with songs let us hail the Lord. (R.)
2. Come in; let us bow and bend low;
let us kneel before the God who made us
for he is our God and we
the people who belong to his pasture,
the flock that is led by his hand. (R.)
3. O that today you would listen to his voice!
'Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
as on that day at Massah in the desert
when your fathers put me to the test;
when they tried me, though they saw my work.' (R.)

Second Reading

2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy

Never be ashamed of witnessing the Lord.

I am reminding you to fan into a flame the gift that God gave you when I laid my hands on you. God's gift was not a spirit of timidity, but the Spirit of power, and love, and self-control. So you are never to be ashamed of witnessing to the Lord, or ashamed of me for being his prisoner; but with me, bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News, relying on the power of God.

Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. You have been trusted to look after something precious; guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

1 Peter 1:25

Alleluia, alleluia!

The word of the Lord stands for ever;
it is the word given to you, the Good News.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 17:5-10

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

If you had faith!

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you.'

'Which of you, with a servant ploughing or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal immediately"? Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper laid; make yourself tidy and wait on me while I eat and drink. You can eat and drink yourself afterwards"? Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty."'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
