WELCOME TO THE ASSEMBLY

Good morning/evening, everyone. My name is _____, and I warmly welcome you to our celebration of the Eucharist on this Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

We begin by acknowledging the Traditional Custodians of this land and their enduring connection to its lands and waterways. We pay our respects to Elders past and present, and extend that respect to all First Nations people in our community.

Today, the Word of God reminds us of the heart of our Christian life: love — love of God and love of neighbour. Jesus teaches that these two commandments are inseparable and form the foundation of all the law and the prophets.

As we gather around the table of the Lord, may we be renewed in our commitment to live out this love in our daily lives — with compassion, mercy, and justice.

At the 9am St Cecilia's, 9:30am and 5pm only- We will run Children's Liturgy during today's/tonight's mass- all children are welcome to join us and can bring their parents if they would like.

At 5pm Mass only- We will also be serving pizzas after mass tonight- all are welcome!

Today we are collecting for the Mission Appeal – envelopes are at the church entrances and donations are tax deductible.

Let us now stand and greet one another as we prepare to begin our celebration.

(PAUSE)

Thank you.

The priest presiding at this Mass is Fr. _____.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

PRESIDER Encouraged by the Lord's acceptance of the tax collector, let us humbly submit our petitions to Him for our needs, and especially of our missionaries:

RESPONSE Lord, hear our prayer.

For the Holy Father, the bishops, priests, and religious: May they see the growing need for the Church to constantly witness to a compassionate Christ whose forgiveness restored us back to the Father's embrace. Let us pray! R.

For our world leaders: May they respond with wisdom and generosity to the present crisis caused by the evil of selfishness, greed and exploitation. Let us pray! R.

For Catholic Mission Appeal: May we be inspired by the witness of missionaries and may we support their work through prayer and generosity. Let us pray! R.

For all priests, religious brothers, nuns and lay volunteers who work in the foreign missions especially here in our parish: May they be brave heralds of the Gospel and never grow discouraged by the meager results of their labors but constantly trust in the Lord. Let us pray! R.

For all of us, gathered to thank the Lord for His goodness: May we constantly manifest our gratitude through a life of dedicated service to Him and our neighbor. Let us pray! R.

May those who have died in the present wars and through captivity find life in God. We remember those who have died recently: Lorna McMahon, Joseph Do, Antonuzza Nesci, Alan Burrige, Helen Barnett, and those whose anniversaries occur: Stephen Jackson, Irene & Harry Hurrell, Marina Cooney, Sid Riddington, Anthony Pace, Vincent Flett, Nikola, Ante & Kata Jovic Let us pray! R.

PRESIDER Lord, Your love for us is much greater than our sins. May You grant us the humility to recognize our shortcomings and the need for Your mercy and forgiveness. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

30th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR C

First Reading

Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus

The prayer of the humble will penetrate the heavens.

The Lord is a judge who is no respecter of personages.
He shows no respect of personages to the detriment of a poor man,
he listens to the plea of the injured party.
He does not ignore the orphan's supplication,
nor the widow's as she pours out her story.

The man who with his whole heart serves God will be accepted, his petitions will carry to the clouds.

The humble man's prayer pierces the clouds,
until it arrives he is inconsolable
nor will he desist until the Most High takes notice of him, acquits the virtuous and delivers judgement.

And the Lord will not be slow,
nor will he be dilatory on their behalf.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 32:2-3. 17-19. 23. R. v.7

(R.) The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad. (R.)
2. The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth.
The just call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress. (R.)
3. The Lord is close to the broken-hearted;
those whose spirit is crushed he will save.
The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants.
Those who hide in him shall not be condemned. (R.)

Second Reading

2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy

All that remains is the crown of righteousness reserved for me.

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing.

The first time I had to present my defence, there was not a single witness to support me. Every one of them deserted me – may they not be held accountable for it. But the Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me, and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

2 Corinthians 5:19

Alleluia, alleluia!

God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself;
and the Good News of reconciliation he has entrusted to us.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 18:9-14

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

The publican returned to his home justified; the pharisee did not.

Jesus spoke the following parable to some people who prided themselves on being virtuous and despised everyone else, 'Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee, the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood there and said this prayer to himself, "I thank you, God, that I am not grasping, unjust, adulterous like the rest of mankind, and particularly that I am not like this tax collector here. I fast twice a week; I pay tithes on all I get." The tax collector stood some distance away, not daring even to raise his eyes to heaven; but he beat his breast and said, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." This man, I tell you, went home again at rights with God; the other did not. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the man who humbles himself will be exalted.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
