33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR C

16 November 2025

WELCOME TO THE ASSEMBLY

Good morning/evening, everyone. My name is _____, and I warmly welcome you to our celebration of the Eucharist on this Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time.

We begin by acknowledging the Traditional Custodians of this land and their enduring connection to its lands and waterways. We pay our respects to Elders past and present, and extend that respect to all First Nations people in our community.

As we near the end of the liturgical year, today's readings invite us to reflect on how we use the gifts and opportunities God has entrusted to us. We are reminded to live with faithfulness, vigilance, and generosity — always ready to meet the Lord when He comes.

As we gather around the table of the Lord, may this Eucharist strengthen us to live each day with purpose and hope.

5pm Mass only: "We welcome the families from St Kieran's and all new families joining St Kieran's next year. All parishioners are welcome to join the school community in the playground for a light supper after mass."

Let us now stand and greet one another as we prepare to begin our celebration.

(PAUSE)

Thank you.

The priest presiding at this Mass is Fr_____.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

PRESIDER Celebrating the World Day of the Poor, let us turn to God with hearts full of compassion and humility, lifting up the needs of the poor and marginalized, and committing ourselves to live out Christ's call to love and serve.

RESPONSE Lord, hear our prayer.

For the Church: That the Church may continue to be a voice for the voiceless, a refuge for the marginalized, and a tireless advocate for justice and dignity for the poor. Let us pray! R.

For the Holy Father, our bishops, and priests working in our parish: May they guide the people of God by being an inspiration to all with their holiness, wisdom, and courage. Let us pray! R.

For families and our on-going Parish Renewal: May young families contribute to our on-going parish renewal by intentionally raising their children in the faith and modeling Jesus' love, thereby strengthening the foundation of our entire community. Let us pray! R.

For the spiritually poor, the sick, the suffering, and the marginalized: May they feel the powerful love and support coming from us, the living community of believers at North Harbour Parish. Let us pray! R.

For the faithful departed of our parish: May our deceased brothers and sisters, especially those who built our parish church at North Harbour, be welcomed into the eternal, perfected temple of God in heaven. Let us pray! R.

May those who have died in the present wars and through captivity find life in God. We remember those who have died recently: Gerald O'Brien, Harrison Foresto, Paul Daly, Gerard Say, and those whose anniversaries occur: Marcelo Estanislao, Amelia Barbosa Guimaraes, Rosemeire Cerqueira Santos--, Let us pray! R.

PRESIDER Loving God, hear our prayers and inspire us to act with courage and compassion. May we grow in love and service, following Christ's example of solidarity with the poor. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR C

First Reading

Malachi 3:19-20

A reading from the prophet Malachi

The sun of righteousness will shine on you.

The day is coming now, burning like a furnace; and all the arrogant and the evil-doers will be like stubble. The day that is coming is going to burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, leaving them neither root nor stalk. But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will shine out with healing in its rays.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 97:5-9. R. see v.9

(R.) The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice.

1. Sing psalms to the Lord with the harp with the sound of music.
With trumpets and the sound of the horn acclaim the King, the Lord. (R.)
2. Let the sea and all within it, thunder;
the world, and all its peoples.
Let the rivers clap their hands and the hills ring out their joy at the presence of the Lord. (R.)
3. For the Lord comes,
he comes to rule the earth.
He will rule the world with justice and the peoples with fairness. (R.)

Second Reading

2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

Do not give anyone food who refuses to work.

You know how you are supposed to imitate us: now we were not idle when we were with you, nor did we ever have our meals at anyone's table without paying for them; no, we worked night and day, slaving and straining, so as not to be a burden on any of you. This was not because we had no right to be, but in order to make ourselves an example for you to follow.

We gave you a rule when we were with you: not to let anyone have any food if he refused to do any work. Now we hear that there are some of you who are living in idleness, doing no work themselves but interfering with everyone else's. In the Lord Jesus Christ, we order and call on people of this kind to go on quietly working and earning the food that they eat.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Luke 21:28

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lift up your heads and see;
your redemption is near at hand.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 21:5-19

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Your endurance will win you your life.

When some were talking about the Temple, remarking how it was adorned with fine stonework and votive offerings, Jesus said, 'All these things you are staring at now – the time will come when not a single stone will be left on another: everything will be destroyed.' And they put to him this question: 'Master,' they said, 'when will this happen, then, and what sign will there be that this is about to take place?'

'Take care not to be deceived,' he said, 'because many will come using my name and saying, "I am he" and, "The time is near at hand." Refuse to join them. And when you hear of wars and revolutions, do not be frightened, for this is something that must happen but the end is not soon.' Then he said to them, 'Nation will fight against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be great earthquakes and plagues and famines here and there; there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven.

'But before all this happens, men will seize you and persecute you; they will hand you over to the synagogues and to imprisonment, and bring you before kings and governors because of my name – and that will be your opportunity to bear witness. Keep this carefully in mind: you are not to prepare your defence, because I myself shall give you an eloquence and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to resist or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relations and friends; and some of you will be put to death. You will be hated by all men on account of my name, but not a hair of your head will be lost. Your endurance will win you your lives.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
