WELCOME TO THE ASSEMBLY

Good morning/evening, everyone. My name is _____, and I warmly welcome you to our celebration of the Eucharist on this Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time – a time to listen to God’s Word and be renewed in our commitment to live as His disciples.

All masses: We welcome all children and their families who are here for the Rite of Enrolment for First Reconciliation.

9:30am Mass only: Children’s Liturgy will be taking place during mass today- parents are welcome to join and can the children here for The Rite of Enrolment please remain in the church and not go to Children’s Liturgy today.

5pm Mass only: We welcome the children and their families from St Kieran’s. All parishioners are invited to join the school community in the playground for a light supper after mass.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus teaches us about the depth of God’s law, calling us to live not only by rules but with hearts transformed by love. May this celebration strengthen us to walk in His ways with sincerity and joy.

Before we begin, we acknowledge the Traditional Custodians of this land and their enduring connection to its lands and waterways. We pay our respects to Elders past and present, and extend that respect to all First Nations people in our community.

As we begin our celebration, I now invite you to stand, warmly greet those around you, and join wholeheartedly in singing our Entrance Hymn.

(pause)

And now, let us welcome our presider for this Mass, Father _____.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

PRESIDER God's wisdom surpasses all human understanding, and his law is written on our hearts. With confidence in his mercy and a desire to walk in his ways, we bring our petitions before him.

RESPONSE Lord, hear our prayer.

For the Holy Church: That she may always be a beacon of God's wisdom in a world of confusion, and that her leaders be guided by the Holy Spirit to teach the depths of God's love. Lord, hear us! R.

For World Leaders and Legislators: May they choose the "fire" of justice rather than the "water" of indifference, making choices that protect the dignity of every human life from conception to natural death. Lord, hear us! R.

For a Spirit of True Reconciliation: That we may take to heart the teachings of Jesus in the Gospel: to cast out anger, to seek forgiveness, and to be people of our word whose "Yes" means "Yes." Lord, hear us! R.

For those Struggling with Temptation: That those who feel overwhelmed by the choices before them may find strength and insight in God's grace. Lord, hear us! R.

For our Local Parish Community: That we may not settle for a superficial observance of the law but strive for the "greater righteousness" that comes from a heart truly converted to Christ. Lord, hear us! R.

For Project Compassion Sunday and for ourselves: that we may bear witness as God's children, reflecting the glory of Christ in all we say and do. Lord, hear us! R.

We pray for those preparing for their sacraments: The children preparing for Reconciliation and those preparing for Baptism at Easter time. May they open their hearts to God's grace at this time.
Lord, hear us.

We pray for our Catechists starting a new teaching year: May the Holy Spirit guide them as they pass their faith on to the children of our parish. Lord, hear us.

May those who have died in the present wars and through captivity find life in God. We remember those who have died recently: June Cochrane, Margaret Walker, Karen Bailey, John Ambrose Keating, Kevin Murphy and those whose anniversaries occur: Corinne Jackson, Let us pray! R.

PRESIDER Heavenly Father, you give us the freedom to choose life and the grace to follow your commandments. Hear the prayers of your people and grant us the wisdom of your Spirit, that we may remain faithful to you in all things. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

First Reading

Sirach 15:15-20

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus

He never commanded anyone to be godless.

If you wish, you can keep the commandments,
to behave faithfully is within your power.
He has set fire and water before you;
put out your hand to whichever you prefer.
Man has life and death before him;
whichever a man likes better will be given him.
For vast is the wisdom of the Lord;
he is almighty and all-seeing.
His eyes are on those who fear him,
he notes every action of man.
He never commanded anyone to be godless,
he has given no one permission to sin.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 118:1-2. 4-5. 17-18. 33-34. R. v.1

(R.) Happy are they who follow the law of the Lord!

1. They are happy whose life is blameless, who follow God's law!
They are happy those who do his will,
seeking him with all their hearts. (R.)
2. You have laid down your precepts to be obeyed with care.
May my footsteps be firm to obey your statutes. (R.)
3. Bless your servant and I shall live and obey your word.
Open my eyes that I may consider the wonders of your law. (R.)
4. Teach me the demands of your statutes and I will keep them to the end.
Train me to observe your law,
to keep it with my heart. (R.)

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 2:6-10

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

God in his wisdom predestined our glory before the ages began.

We have a wisdom to offer those who have reached maturity: not a philosophy of our age, it is true, still less of the masters of our age, which are coming to their end. The hidden wisdom of God which we teach in our mysteries is the wisdom that God predestined to be for our glory before the ages began. It is a wisdom that none of the masters of this age have ever known, or they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory; we teach what scripture calls: the things that no eye has seen and no ear has heard, things beyond the mind of man, all that God has prepared for those who love him.

These are the very things that God has revealed to us through the Spirit, for the Spirit reaches the depths of everything, even the depths of God.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

See Matthew 11:25

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 5:17-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Such was said to your ancestors; but I am speaking to you.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Do not imagine that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I have come not to abolish them but to complete them. I tell you solemnly, till heaven and earth disappear, not one dot, one little stroke, shall disappear from the Law until its purpose is achieved. Therefore, the man who infringes even one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be considered the least in the kingdom of heaven; but the man who keeps them and teaches them will be considered great in the kingdom of heaven.

‘For I tell you, if your virtue goes no deeper than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never get into the kingdom of heaven.

‘You have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not kill; and if anyone does kill he must answer for it before the court. But I say this to you: anyone who is angry with his brother will answer for it before the court; if a man calls his brother “Fool” he will answer for it before the Sanhedrin; and if a man calls him “Renegade” he will answer for it in hell fire. So then, if you are bringing your offering to the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your offering there before the altar, go and be reconciled with your brother first, and then come back and present your offering. Come to terms with your opponent in good time while you are still on the way to the court with him, or he may hand you over to the judge and the judge to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. I tell you solemnly, you will not get out till you have paid the last penny.

‘You have learnt how it was said: You must not commit adultery. But I say this to you: if a man looks at a woman lustfully, he has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye should cause you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of you than to have your whole body thrown into hell. And if your right hand should cause you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of you than to have your whole body go to hell.

‘It has also been said: Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a writ of dismissal. But I say this to you: everyone who divorces his wife, except for the case of fornication, makes her an adulteress; and anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

‘Again, you have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not break your oath, but must fulfil your oaths to the Lord. But I say this to you: do not swear at all, either by heaven, since that is God’s throne; or by the earth, since that is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, since that is the city of the great king. Do not swear by your own head either, since you cannot turn a single hair white or black. All you need say is “Yes” if you mean yes, “No” if you mean no; anything more than this comes from the evil one.’

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
