CELEBRATING SALVATORIANS' 25TH ANNIVERSARY IN PYMBLE

Blessed in the Quiet Places

Lord Jesus,
You sat upon the mount and revealed the true depth of Your Father's grace.
Grant us humble hearts that recognise our need for You, and teach us to walk gently alongside those who mourn and suffer.
May we hunger and thirst for Your righteousness in all we do, offering mercy freely, seeking peace, and keeping our spirits pure.
When we face hardship or trials for holding fast to Your name, remind us of the promise that Your heavenly kingdom is our true home.
Help us to reflect Your beatitudes in our daily lives,
bless our neighbours,
and glorify You in all our actions.
Amen.

Baptisms at Pymble Parish

Our upcoming Baptism Formation Class will be held on:

Sunday, 6 December 2026
at 10:30am
at Sacred Heart Church

Bookings are essential, please contact the Parish office on 9144 2702 or via email on office@pymblecatholicparish.org.au

Pope Leo XIV's official prayer intention for November

For mental health ministry

Let us pray that the mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

Serra Mass and Meeting

Thank you to everyone who joined us for our Serra Mass and Meeting last week! We were privileged to welcome Fr Joey Frez, Director of Vocations for the Diocese of Broken Bay, who delivered an inspiring and insightful talk on vocations in our diocese. Following the Mass and talk, everyone enjoyed a wonderful evening of great conversation and good food together.

The Serra Group meets monthly and its mission is to promote and support priestly vocations and encourage vocations to consecrated religious life.

If you are interested in learning more or joining Serra, please contact Terry. You can learn more about Serra's mission, activities and future plans by watching this video, in which Terry gave a presentation on Serra by scanning the QR code, or visiting tinyurl.com/yamcuyrb.

Parish Prayer Zone

Praying for others gets our focus off ourselves and onto the needs of those around us. As we "carry each other's burdens," we "will fulfil the law of Christ" (Galatians 6:2). Praying for each other makes us stronger and helps us to grow our faith and Christian love.

Recently Deceased:

Beverley Shea, Leone Glynn, Lynn Dahl, Peter Cassidy, Joan Napoli, Teresa Słomka-Czech, Tom Duffy, Jean Ditchfield, Lucinda Coutinho, Rolando Salvi, Ryan Kim, Anne Bolton, Vinod Venkat, Alexander Ross, Troy Schufft, Jerzy Czech, Tatiana Seale

Monthly prayer intention:

This week we pray for peace and unity: We pray for peace in the midst of violence and tragedy in this world. May we have the patience to be understanding, the strength to be forgiving, and the grace to admit when we are wrong. Amen.

If you would like the names of your relatives to be included in the prayer list (anniversary of deaths, recently deceased, illnesses, wedding celebration or anniversaries, birthdays, etc.) please contact the Parish Office by midday each Wednesday. Remember that due to privacy policy, names of the sick can only be put on the bulletin with permission of the immediate family. This list will be updated every month and we would appreciate if we are advised of any updates. Thank you.

DAILY PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, we praise You for Your goodness and thank You for Your gifts. Help us respond to and live out our mission in the Church. Assist all Your people to know their vocation in life and help them to prepare for it. Call many to be priests, deacons and consecrated men and women for Your greater glory, and for the service of Your people. Give those whom You call the grace to respond generously and to persevere faithful.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Divine Mercy Chapel in Sacred Heart

When you next visit the Divine Mercy Chapel at Sacred Heart, you'll notice a beautiful new addition: a hand-painted image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, generously created and donated by our parishioner, Christine.

We invite you to spend a quiet moment with our Lord and enjoy this lovely piece of art the next time you prayer in our Chapel.

Piety Store

We have some beautifully hand-made cards in our Piety Store at present; these are selling $5-$8 each.

If you are looking for a rosary, a Children's Missal, a Miraculous Medal or a small religious gift for someone special, our Piety Store is open before and after our 9:30am Mass at Sacred Heart.

November Masses: The Month of the Holy Souls

During the month of November, the Catholic Church traditionally pauses to remember and pray for the faithful departed. It is a powerful act of charity to offer our prayers and sacrifices for the Holy Souls in Purgatory, helping them on their journey to the full joy of Heaven.

A plenary indulgence is a grace granted by the Catholic Church through the merits of Jesus Christ to remove the temporal punishment due to sin. It is not a forgiveness of sin but the remission of punishment for sins already forgiven. It may apply either to oneself or to souls already in purgatory.

A plenary indulgence may be gained for the dead, daily, by visiting a Church on between 1—8 November, and praying the Lord's Prayer and the Creed. Three conditions are required for gaining the indulgence:

- Sacramental confession
- Eucharistic communion
- Prayer for the Pope's intentions

A Plenary indulgence may be obtained each day for one soul during this period.

November Masses

During the month of November we will pray for the deceased by offering a Mass every day for those whose names are on the special November envelopes. The envelopes are available at the back of both Churches. Please write their names on the envelopes and return to the Office or to Father Irek.

Pets Mass

Thank you to everyone who joined us for our wonderful Blessing of the Pets Mass last Sunday! It was a joy to celebrate Franciscan Feast Day together with so many beloved animals and their families. WYD SEOUL 2027

World Youth Day Seoul 2027

Young adults aged 18 and over are invited to join the Salvatorian group travelling with the Diocese of Bunbury to World Youth Day in Seoul, South Korea, in 2027.

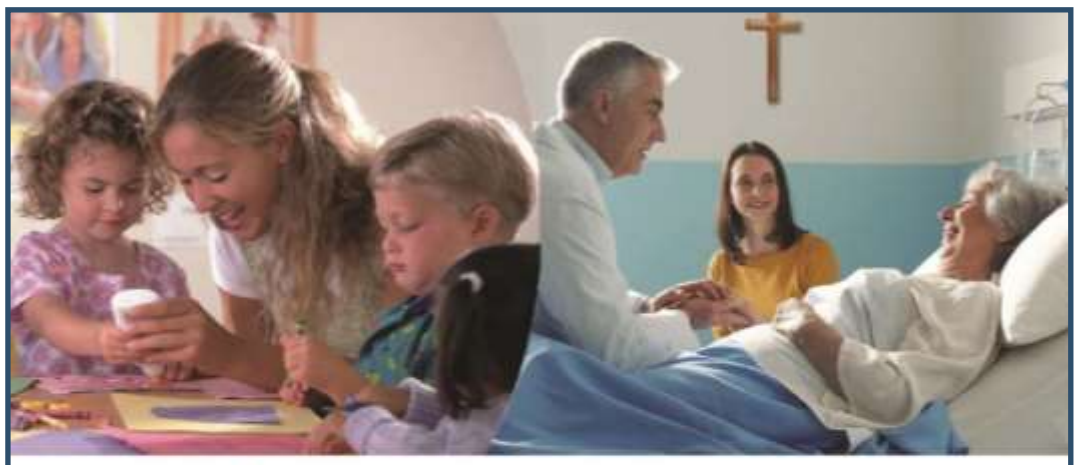

This pilgrimage offers a wonderful opportunity to deepen your faith, meet young Catholics from around the world and celebrate the joy of belonging to the universal Church. The journey will also include a mission trip, serving alongside our brothers and sisters in need.

Proposed dates are 27 July–11 August 2027, with an estimated cost of $7,000.
Dates and costs are subject to change.

Expressions of interest are open until 9 November.
Please email an expression of interest to spirituality@sds.org.au with the subject line WYD2027. You will then receive information for a Zoom meeting, where further details about the pilgrimage will be shared.

Take the first step towards this exciting pilgrimage with Christ.

Liturgy of the Word
All Saints Day

Year A

Entrance Antiphon

Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in honour of all the Saints, at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

First Reading Revelation 7: 2-4, 9-14

A reading from the book of Apocalypse

I, John, saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea, 'Wait before you do any damage on land or at sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.' Then I heard how many were sealed: a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel.

After that I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. They shouted aloud, 'Victory to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!' And all the angels who were standing in a circle round the throne, surrounding the elders and the four animals, prostrated themselves before the throne, and touched the ground with their foreheads, worshipping God with these words, 'Amen. Praise and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen.'

One of the elders then spoke, and asked me, 'Do you know who these people are, dressed in white robes, and where they have come from?' I answered him, 'You can tell me, my Lord.' Then he said, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb.'

Responsorial Psalm Ps 23: 1-6 R. seev. 6

(R.) Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

1. The Lord's is the earth and its fullness,
the world and all its peoples.
It is he who set it on the seas;
on the waters he made it firm. (R.)

2. Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
The man with clean hands and pure heart,
who desires not worthless things. (R.)

3. He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him.
Such are the men who seek him,
seek the face of the God of Jacob. (R.)

Second Reading 1 John 3: 1-3

A reading from the first letter of St John

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children; and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us. My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall se him as he really is. Surely everyone who entertains this hope must purify himself, must try to be as pure as Christ.

Gospel Acclamation Matthew 11: 28

Alleluia, alleluia!
Come to me, all you that labour and are burdened, and I will give you rest, says the Lord.
Alleluia!

Gospel Matthew 5: 1-12

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

'How happy are the poor in spirit:
Theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Happy the gentle: they shall have the earth for their heritage.
Happy those who mourn: they shall be comforted.
Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right: they shall be satisfied.
Happy the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them.
Happy the pure in heart: they shall see God.
Happy the peacemakers: they shall be called sons of God.
Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right: theirs is the kingdom of heave.

'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

Gospel Reflection

Misguided zeal and pride

Jesus warned the scribes and Pharisees, the teachers and rulers of Israel, to teach and serve their people with humility and sincerity rather than with pride and self-seeking privileges and honor. They went to great lengths to draw attention to their religious status and practices. In a way they wanted to be good models of observant Jews. "See how well we observe all the ritual rules and regulations of our religion!" In their misguided zeal for religion they sought recognition and honor for themselves rather than for God. They made the practice of their faith a burden rather than a joy for the people they were supposed to serve.

True respect for God inclines us to humble ourselves and to submit to his wisdom and guidance. We cannot be taught by God unless we first learn to listen to his word and then obey his instruction.

One Father and Teacher

Was Jesus against calling anyone a rabbi, the Jewish title for a teacher of God's word (Matthew 23:7-8), or a father? The law of Moses in Scripture specifically instructed all fathers to be teachers and instructors for their children to help them understand and obey God's instructions (Deuteronomy 6:7)? Why did Jesus rebuke the scribes and Pharisees, the religious authorities of the Jewish people, in the presence of his disciples? Jesus wanted to warn both his own disciples and the religious leaders about the temptation to seek honors and titles that draw attention to ourselves in place of God and his word. Pride tempts us to put ourselves first above others.

The Scriptures give ample warning about the danger of self-seeking pride: Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall (Proverbs 16:18). God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble (James 4:6; Proverbs 3:24).

True humility

Respect for God and for his ways inclines us to humility and to simplicity of heart - the willing readiness to seek the one true good who is God himself. What is the nature of true humility and why should we embrace it as essential for our lives? We can easily mistake humility as something demeaning or harmful to our sense of well-being and feeling good about ourselves. True humility is not feeling bad about yourself, or having a low opinion of yourself, or thinking of yourself as inferior to all others. True humility frees us from preoccupation with ourselves, whereas a low self-opinion tends to focus our attention on ourselves. Humility is truth in self-understanding and truth in action. Viewing ourselves honestly, with sober judgment, means seeing ourselves the way God sees us (Psalm 139:1-4).

Blessed are those who grieve...	...they will be treated with mercy.
Blessed are the merciful...	...they will be called God's children.
Blessed are those who make peace...	...they will see God.
Blessed are those with pure hearts...	...they will find comfort.

Parish Safeguarding

Dear Parishioners,

We take our responsibility to safeguard the vulnerable, whether they be children, the young, the elderly or the disabled very seriously. We work to ensure that no one is taken advantage of within our Parish.

If you have any concern about the treatment of a child, young person or anyone within our parish environment, please approach myself directly or Claudia within the parish office on 02 9144 2702.

Alternatively, you may wish to contact Pamela Sweeney, Safeguarding Manager (Chancery & Churches) on 02 8379 1651.

Yours in Christ,

Fr Ireneusz Czech SDS
