SACRED HEART & OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL SUCCOUR

Building a Christ-centred community of Love and Mercy

Pymble Parish is under the Pastoral care of the Salvatorian Fathers

I SAY TO YOU, NOT SEVEN TIMES BUT SEVENTY-SEVEN TIMES.

Lord, Please Help Us Forgive

Holy God, please help me to be more merciful with those who stumble.

Please help me to be graciously, yet firmly, persuasive with those who refuse to forgive, helping them see the need to be gracious.

Please give me a sense of balance so that I may know, celebrate, and proclaim your mercy in its radical glory.

In Jesus' name, I pray.

Amen.

Baptisms at Pymble Parish

Please contact the Parish office on 9144 2702 or via email on office@pymblecatholicparish.org.au for Baptism enquiries.

Our upcoming Baptism Formation Class will be held on:

Bookings are essential.

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION FOR SEPTEMBER

For People Living on the Margins

We pray for those persons living on the margins of society, in inhumane life conditions; may they no be overlooked by institutions and never considered of lesser importance.

A warm welcome to all our Parishioners who are celebrating the Eucharist with us this weekend.

Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

This week Stage 1M has been learning about social justice and mission in preparation for Socktober, where they will be supporting communities in Timor - Leste. We read ‘What Peace Feels Like’ by Vladamir Radunsky to start our discussion about the significance of peace and how we can help spread peace in the world.

We unpacked the scripture John 14:27 and discussed that the peace Jesus spoke about means rest, stillness and quiet in our hearts, the calming and comforting presence of Christ. Peace pushes us through the hard times in life and allows us to remain calm. This passage teaches us that true peace comes from our relationship with Jesus and trust in Him.

Students drew a symbol of peace or a time that they have felt peaceful and described the significance of peace in their lives.

Parish Prayer Zone

Praying for others gets our focus off ourselves and onto the needs of those around us. As we “carry each other’s burdens,” we “will fulfil the law of Christ” (Galatians 6:2). Praying for each other makes us stronger and helps us to grow our faith and Christian love.

Weekly prayer intention:

This week we pray for all fathers. Bless all fathers as they care for their families. Give them strength and wisdom, tenderness and patience; support them in the work they have to do, protecting those who look to them, as we look to you for love and salvation. Amen.

If you would like the names of your relatives to be included in the prayer list (anniversary of deaths, recently deceased, illnesses, wedding celebration or anniversaries, birthdays, etc.) please contact the Parish Office by midday each Wednesday. Remember that due to privacy policy, names of the sick can only be put on the bulletin with permission of the immediate family. This list will be updated every month and we would appreciate if we are advised of any updates. Thank you.

A GIFT IN YOUR WILL YOUR LEGACY

After providing for family members in your Will, have you ever considered leaving a Gift directly to your local Parish? This is called a Legacy, Bequest of Gift in Will.

Over the years, many people who have left a special connection to their Faith have left part of their estate to the Parish. Like a gift to a charity. a gift in your Will to the Church ensures other members of our community receive the spiritual care and guidance that has been so important to you and your family.

YOUR PARISH

Many parishes are in need of funding to restore buildings, improve facilities and expand on services for the community. The pastoral outreach that has been important to you will continue for our children, our grandchildren and future generations to of Catholics. If you would like more information on Gifts in Wills, please contact Fr. Ireneusz. Email: Fr.ireneusz@pymblecatholicparish.org.au

News from Pymble's Bible Study Group

Last Sunday our Bible Study Group met with Fr Irek for a social gathering at West Pymble.

Thank you to Pymble Bible Study Group members who donated $500 to the Blind and Deaf Orphanage "Yayasan Karya Murni Ruteng" in Ruteng, Indonesia.

If you'd like to join the Bible Study group, we're meeting on Zoom every Friday morning at 10am. Please contact the Parish office for further information.

Position Vacant - Clergy Care Coordinator

Are you looking for a truly meaningful role where you'll make a difference in our clergy's lives?

The Catholic Diocese of Broken Bay is seeking an experienced Care Coordinator to support our clergy in their health and medical requirements, optimising their independence and maintaining a quality of life and dignity as they age. In this permanent, full-time role you will be based at the Chancery offices in Pennant Hills but will be required to travel throughout the Diocese to provide care leadership and services to help our clergy live well and age positively.

You'll be required to have a comprehensive knowledge of principles for Aging in Place, Charter for Aged Care Rights and Positive Aging and knowledge of the Australian government aged care funding models and available packages. You'll have an understanding of the physiology and psychology underpinning aging and how to identify changes in retired clergy and have a proactive and practical ability to seek appropriate services.

If you have tertiary qualifications in aged care, nursing, social work or equivalent experience working in the aged or healthcare sector then we invite you to apply for the Care Coordinator role by sending your CV and a brief cover letter to recruitment@bbcatholic.org.au.

Applications close Friday 22 September 2023.

Want to know more about your Catholic faith? What is God's plan for your life?

The Parish R.C.I.A. program might be just what you are looking for.

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) program will give you an understanding of what the church teaches and how you can enjoy an AUTHENTIC and JOYFUL life as a Catholic.

We will be meeting once a week on Wednesday evenings 7:30pm – 9pm starting mid September, and concluding at Easter next year. Each session will look at a different aspect of our faith and have a discussion about it.

People who have done the course previously have said that it was a life-changing experience and they really enjoyed the interaction with other participants.

There is no cost for the course.

For more detail or to register please contact the Parish on: 9144 2702 or info@pymblecatholicparish.org.au

SERRA VOCATIONS MASS AND DINNER MEETING

Father Kelvin Lovegrove, Parish Priest of Holy Name Parish Wahroonga, will be celebrating Mass for Serra at Sacred Heart Church Pymble on Thursday 28 September 2023. Our recently ordained deacon, Deacon Richard Houwing will be assisting.

The evening commences with Mass at 6pm followed by a light meal and a short meeting. Following the meeting Father Kelvin and Deacon Richard will be speaking to us about their vocation journeys.

Everyone is welcome. Please "come and see".

Please remember to pray every day for vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, the consecrated life, ecclesial women, all seminarians and novices and for the perseverance of existing vocations. Please telephone: Terry Scanlan on 0438 887 295 or email terry_scanlan@bigpond.com if you would like to attend.

Liturgy of the Word

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year A

Entrance Antiphon

Give peace, O Lord, to those who wait for you,
that your prophets be found true.
Hear the prayers of your servant,
and of your people Israel.

First Reading

Sirach 27:30 - 28:7

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus

Resentment and anger, these are foul things,
and both are found with the sinner.
He who exacts vengeance will experience the vengeance of the Lord,
who keeps strict account of sin.
Forgive your neighbour the hurt he does you,
and when you pray, your sins will be forgiven.
If a man nurses anger against another,
can he then demand compassion from the Lord?
Showing no pity for a man like himself,
can he then plead for his own sins?
Mere creature of flesh, he cherishes resentment;
who will forgive him his sins?
Remember the last things, and stop hating, remember dissolution and death, and live by the commandments.
Remember the commandments, and do not bear your neighbour ill-will;
remember the covenant of the Most High, and overlook the offence.

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) The Lord is kind and merciful; slow to anger and rich in compassion.

- 1. My soul, give thanks to the Lord,
all my being, bless his holy name.
My soul, give thanks to the Lord
and never forget all his blessings. (R.)
- 2. It is he who forgives all your guilt, who heals every on of your ills,
who redeems your life from the grave,
who crowns you with love and compassion. (R.)
- 3. His wrath will come to an end;
he will not be angry for ever.
He does not treat us according to our sins
nor repay us according to our faults. (R.)
- 4. For as the heavens are high above the earth
so strong is his love for those who fear hi.
As far as the east is from the west
so far does he remove our sins. (R)

Second Reading

Romans 14: 7-9

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

The life and death of each of us has its influence on others; if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead

we belong to the Lord. This explains why Christ both died and came to life, it was so that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
I give you a new commandment:
love one another as I have loved you.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Mt 18: 21-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Peter went up to Jesus and said, ‘Lord, how often must I forgive my brother if he wrongs me? As often as seven times?’ Jesus answered, ‘Not seven, I tell you, but seventy-seven times.

‘And so the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who decided to settle his accounts with his servants. When the reckoning began, they brought him a man who owed ten thousand talents; but he had no means of paying, so his master gave orders that he should be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, to meet the debt. At this, the servant threw himself down at his master’s feet. “Give me time,” he said “and I will pay the whole sum.” And the servant’s master felt so sorry for him that he let him go and cancelled the debt. Now as this servant went out, he happened to meet a fellow servant who owed him one hundred denarii;
and he seized him by the throat and began to throttle him. “Pay what you owe me”, he said.
His fellow servant fell at his feet and implored
him, saying, “Give me time and I will pay you.”
But the other would not agree; on the contrary,
he had him thrown into prison till he should pay the debt. His fellow servants were deeply distressed when they saw what had happened, and they went to their master and reported the whole affair to him. Then the master sent for him. “You wicked servant,” he said. “I cancelled
all that debt of yours when you appealed to me.
Were you not bound, then, to have pity on your fellow servant just as I had pity on you?” And in his anger the master handed him over to the torturers till he should pay all his debt. And that is how my heavenly Father will deal with you unless you each forgive your brother from your heart.’

Gospel Reflection

No limit to granting forgiveness and pardon

Jesus makes it clear that there is no limit to giving and receiving forgiveness. He drove the lesson home with a parable about two very different kinds of debts. The first man owed an enormous sum of money - millions in our currency. In Jesus' time this amount was greater than the total revenue of a province - more than it would cost to ransom a king! The man who was forgiven such an incredible debt could not, however, bring himself to forgive his neighbour a very small debt which was about one-hundred-thousandth of his own debt. The contrast could not have been greater!

Jesus paid our ransom to set us free from the debt of sin

No offense our neighbour can do to us can compare with our own personal debt to God for offending him! We have been forgiven an enormous debt we could not repay on our own.
That is why the Father in heaven sent his only begotten Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, who freely and willing gave up his life for our sake to ransom us from slavery to sin, Satan, and death.
Paul the Apostle states, "you were bought with a price" and that price was Jesus' death on the cross. Through the shedding of his blood on the cross, Jesus not only brought forgiveness and pardon for our offenses, but release from our captivity to Satan and bondage to sin.

Set free from futile thinking and sinful living

The Lord Jesus sets us free from a futile mind and way of living in sin and spiritual darkness.
"You were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your fathers ...with the precious blood of Christ". Christ "gave himself to redeem us from all iniquity" (Titus 2:14). Iniquity describes the futile ways of wrong thinking, sinful attitudes and wrong behaviour, and disregarding or treating God's commandments lightly. We have been forgiven an enormous debt which we could never possibly repay. We owe God a debt of gratitude for the mercy and grace he has given us in his Son, Jesus Christ.

Forgiving others is a sacred duty

If God has shown mercy to us in granting us pardon for our sins, then we, in turn, must show mercy and forgiveness towards every person who has offended us. The willingness to forgive those who offend us is a sacred duty. If we expect God to pardon us and show us his mercy
when we sin and disobey his commandments, then we must be willing to let go of any resentment, grievance, or ill-will we feel towards our neighbour. Jesus teaches us to pray daily for the grace and strength to forgive others in the same measure in which God has forgiven us (Matthew 6:12,14-15). If we do not show mercy and forgiveness to our fellow human beings, how can we expect God to forgive us in turn? The Apostle James says that "judgment is without mercy to one who has shown no mercy" (James 2:13).
