CELEBRATING SALVATORIANS' 25TH ANNIVERSARY IN PYMBLE

"Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way."

Matthew 22:16

Render Unto God What Is God's

Lord Jesus,

*You teach us with wisdom and truth,
reminding us of where our true allegiance belongs.*

*Help us to fulfil our duties in this world
with honesty and integrity,*

*while giving to You what is rightfully Yours:
our hearts, our lives, and our whole being.*

*Stamp Your divine image
deeply upon our souls,*

*so that in all we say and do,
we may reflect Your love
and glorify Your Holy Name.*

Amen.

persons with mental illnesses.

Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

Looking for Catholic Vocations

Discussion

A review of vocations in the Broken Bay Diocese

Born in the Philippines, Fr Joey Frez sensed a call to the priesthood as a young boy. Although financial circumstances prevented him from entering the seminary, God continued to guide his extraordinary progression.

After emigrating to the United States and working as a programmer, he entered Mount Angel Seminary in Oregon, served as a deacon at St Cecilia Catholic Church, Beaverton, and was ordained to the priesthood on 29 May 2010 for the Diocese of Salt Lake City.

In 2019, he moved to Australia and joined the Diocese of Broken Bay, serving in Epping, Carlingford, Wahroonga, and Chatswood. In January 2025, he was appointed Diocesan Director for Vocations for the Diocese of Broken Bay.

Praying the Rosary Together

Last Saturday morning, parishioners gathered at Our Lady of Perpetual Succour (OLPS) Church to pray the Rosary together. It was a wonderful time of shared faith and a beautiful dedication to Our Lady.

As October is traditionally dedicated to the Holy Rosary, everyone is encouraged to continue praying the Rosary throughout this special month—whether individually, as a family, or together in prayer groups.

May Our Lady intercede for our parish family and bring our intentions to her Son.

Parish Prayer Zone

Praying for others gets our focus off ourselves and onto the needs of those around us. As we “carry each other’s burdens,” we “will fulfil the law of Christ” (Galatians 6:2). Praying for each other makes us stronger and helps us to grow our faith and Christian love.

Recently Deceased: Leone Glynn, Lynn Dahl, Peter Cassidy, Joan Napoli, Teresa Słomka-Czech, Tom Duffy, Jean Ditchfield, Lucinda Coutinho, Rolando Salvi, Ryan Kim, Anne Bolton, Vinod Venkat, Alexander Ross, Troy Schufft, Jerzy Czech, Tatiana Seale, Jan Drobczyk, Lawrence Walter Cooke, Harry Wong, Barbara Tallis, Salvatore Cristaudo
Death Anniversaries: Yu Tso Kwong Tsui, Peter Goh, Paula Freeman, Constance & Elwyn Glazier. Graham Lynch, Antonio & Rosa Maria Dias, Jack Chan, Mary Costa Silva, Rodney Fernandes, Carmel Nola Conway, Elsie Kenna, Chehade Challita, John English, Bob & Dolly McCann
Prayers for the sick: Eduardo Lopez, Carol Marriott, Felix Fung, Anny Tsang, Agnes Dazon, José Castro, Kathy (Ya Wen) Sun, Stan Brataniec, Daniel Fileman, Janusz Czech, Elliot Leahy
Monthly prayer intention: This week we pray for peace and unity: We pray for peace in the midst of violence and tragedy in this world. May we have the patience to be understanding, the strength to be forgiving, and the grace to admit when we are wrong. Amen. If you would like the names of your relatives to be included in the prayer list (anniversary of deaths, recently deceased, illnesses, wedding celebration or anniversaries, birthdays, etc.) please contact the Parish Office by midday each Wednesday. Remember that due to privacy policy, names of the sick can only be put on the bulletin with permission of the immediate family. This list will be updated every month and we would appreciate if we are advised of any updates. Thank you.

DAILY PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, we praise You for Your goodness and thank You for Your gifts. Help us respond to and live out our mission in the Church. Assist all Your people to know their vocation in life and help them to prepare for it. Call many to be priests, deacons and consecrated men and women for Your greater glory, and for the service of Your people. Give those whom You call the grace to respond generously and to persevere faithful. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

First Eucharist at Pymble

This weekend, our parish family celebrates a joyful and sacred milestone as 71 of our young parishioners receive their First Holy Communion!

Receiving the Eucharist for the first time is a pivotal step in their Catholic faith journey. We pray that these children open their hearts wholeheartedly to Jesus, feeling His deep love and joy, and that they continue to grow closer to Christ every day.

Please keep these children and their families in your prayers during this special and grace-filled moment in their lives.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone involved in helping the children prepare their sacrament, our Sacramental Coordinator, our parents and families, readers, musicians, altar servers and any one who has helped. None of this is possible without your help and support. We are so grateful for your dedication and service.

Prayers & Blessings for our Year 12 Students

Last Saturday, our parish family gathered for a special Mass to pray for our Year 12 students as they began their HSC exams this week. Father offered a beautiful prayer and blessing over the students, encouraging them as they take this next big step. Afterwards, we celebrated their hard work and achievements with a fantastic parish BBQ.

A warm thank you to Louise for her wonderful work in helping organise the event, and to everyone who joined us. Please keep our HSC students in your prayers throughout the coming weeks!

Mission Sunday

This week, you are invited to partner with Catholic Mission and the Church in Malawi as we support families rebuilding after devastating floods and help children access education close to home.

Through projects like St Peter's Nyamikuta Primary School, the Church is creating a place where children can learn, be nourished, and grow with dignity, regardless of their background or beliefs.

As we celebrate 100 years of World Mission Day, we are reminded by Pope Leo XIV that we are 'One in Christ, United in Mission'.

Join with us in celebration and action by supporting this work with a compassionate gift. Use the provided appeal envelope, scan the QR code, or visit our website to make a difference today.

Everyone is welcome

Liturgy of the Word

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year A

Entrance Antiphon Cf Psalm 16: 6, 8

To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God; turn your ear to me; hear my words.
Guard me as the apple of your eye;
in the shadow of your wings protect me.

First Reading Isaiah 45: 1, 4-6

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whom he has taken by his right hand to subdue nations before him and strip the loins of kings, to force gateways before him that their gates be closed no more:

It is for the sake of my servant Jacob, of Israel my chosen one, that I have called you by your name, conferring a title though you do not know me. I am the Lord, unrivalled; there is no other God besides me. Though you do not know me, I arm you that men may know from the rising to the setting of the sun that, apart from me, all is nothing.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 95: 1, 3-5, 7-10 R.v. 7

(R.) Give the Lord glory and honour.

- O sing a new song to the Lord,
sing to the Lord all the earth.
Tell among the nations his glory
and his wonders among all the peoples. (R.)
- The Lord is great and worthy of praise,
to be feared above all gods;
the gods of the heathens are naught.
It was the Lord who made the heavens. (R.)
- Give the Lord, you families of peoples,
give the lord glory and power,
give the Lord the glory of his name.
Bring an offering and enter his courts. (R.)
- Worship the Lord in his temple.
O earth, tremble before him.
Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king.'
He will judge the peoples in fairness. (R.)

Second Reading 1 Thessalonians 1: 1-5

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

From Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonika which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; wishing you grace and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We always mention you in our prayers and thank God for you all, and constantly remember before God our Father how you have shown your faith in action, worked for love and persevered through hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ.

We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction.

Gospel Acclamation Philippians 2: 15, 16

Alleluia, alleluia!
Shine on the world like bright stars;
you are offering it the word of life.
Alleluia!

Gospel Matthew 22: 15-21

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with the Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because a man's rank means nothing to you. Tell us your opinion, then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?' But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, 'You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me? Let me see the money you pay the tax with.' They handed him a denarius, and he said, 'Whose head is this? Whose name?' 'Caesar's' they replied. He then said to them, 'Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar – and to God what belongs to God.'

Gospel Reflection

Meditation: What do we owe God and our neighbor? Scripture tells us to give to everyone whatever is their due and to "owe no one anything, except to love one another" (Romans 13:6-8). The Jewish authorities sought to trap Jesus in a religious-state issue. The Jews resented their foreign rulers and despised paying taxes to Caesar. They posed a dilemma to test Jesus to see if he was loyal to them and to their understanding of religion. If Jesus answered that it was lawful to pay taxes to a pagan ruler, then he would lose credibility with the Jewish nation who would regard him as a coward and a friend of Caesar. If he said it was not lawful, then the Pharisees would have grounds to report him to the Roman authorities as a political trouble-maker and have him arrested.

Coins inscribe the owner's name and authority on them

Jesus avoided their trap by confronting them with the image of a coin. Coinage in the ancient world had significant political power. Rulers issued coins with their own image and inscription on them. In a certain sense the coin was regarded as the personal property of the ruler. Where the coin was valid the ruler held political sway over the people. Since the Jews used the Roman currency, Jesus explained that what belonged to Caesar must be given to Caesar.

We have been "stamped" with God's image and likeness

This story has another deeper meaning as well. We, too, have been stamped with God's image since we are created in his own likeness - "God created man in his own image ..male and female he created them" (Genesis 1:26-27). We rightfully belong not to ourselves, but to God who created us and redeemed us in the precious blood of his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ (see 1 Corinthians 6:19-20). Paul the Apostle says that we are to present our bodies as a living sacrifice to God (Romans 12:1). Do you acknowledge that your life and everything you possess belongs to God and not to yourself? And do you give to God what rightfully belongs to him?

Lord, because you have made me, I owe you the whole of my love; because you have redeemed me, I owe you the whole of myself; because you have promised so much, I owe you all my being. Moreover, I owe you as much more love than myself as you are greater than I, for whom you gave yourself and to whom you promised yourself. I pray you, Lord, make me taste by love what I taste by knowledge; let me know by love what I know by understanding. I owe you more than my whole self, but I have no more, and by myself I cannot render the whole of it to you. Draw me to you, Lord, in the fullness of love. I am wholly yours by creation; make me all yours, too, in love. (prayer of Anselm, 1033-1109 AD)

Give to God what belongs to God.

Jesus tells us that we belong to God. We can give ourselves to God by following Jesus’ teachings and loving others as he did. Draw a picture of yourself doing something as Jesus would have done.

Color in the shapes that contain dots to reveal something that Jesus wants us to show others.

Parish Safeguarding

Dear Parishioners,

We take our responsibility to safeguard the vulnerable, whether they be children, the young, the elderly or the disabled very seriously. We work to ensure that no one is taken advantage of within our Parish.

If you have any concern about the treatment of a child, young person or anyone within our parish environment, please approach myself directly or Claudia within the parish office on 02 9144 2702.

Alternatively, you may wish to contact Pamela Sweeney, Safeguarding Manager (Chancery & Churches) on 02 8379 1651.

Yours in Christ,

Fr Ireneusz Czech SDS

Children, the young, and the vulnerable must be safe

Supported by adults who ...

CARE for us as we are a precious gift from God

RESPECT our rights, abilities, contributions, needs and wishes

ASK us how we are feeling and what we are thinking, ask us what we need

LISTEN to what we are really saying

TELL us about dangers – and what's being done to protect us

SEE what other adults are doing, and how they are behaving

DO what they are supposed to do and what they say they will do

STEP UP AND SPEAK OUT when we are being hurt, bullied or treated badly.
