Building a Christ-centred community of Love and Mercy

Pymble Parish is under the Pastoral care of the Salvatorian Fathers

“Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!”

Matthew 21:9

Palm Sunday Prayer

Jesus, I love you!

When you rode into Jerusalem
the people waved palms with shouts of joy.
I am so happy that you came to me as well!
Please keep this love and joy in my heart also when it gets difficult.
Let me walk with you, be by your side always,
even when those people with the palms go away and leave you alone;
even on your way to the cross, when no one seems to help you,
even on the cross, where you feel all alone.
Just as I know, that you are always by my side,
walking hand in hand with me,
I will never leave your side!
Jesus, I love you and I want to love you always!
Amen.

Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

Election Day at Sacred Heart

Last weekend was the NSW Election Day. The Parish and Sacred Heart School combined forces to put together a Democracy Sausage Sizzle and Cake Stall. It was a great community event, and a huge thank you to all the volunteers who assisted with the BBQ and cake stall on the day, as well as those who provided special baked treats for sale. In total we raised just over $500.

Arden Liceralde, a Yr 6 student from Sacred Heart School, also set up a plant stall to sell plants and bonsais, to raise money for our Parish to help pay for the cost of repairing our leaking roof. This is such a wonderful initiative and we would like to extend our gratitude and thanks to Arden for her kindness and amazing generosity. Arden was able to raise $575 to go towards funding our roof repairs. What a wonderful result!

A message from Arden to our Parish:

Hi parishioners! My name is Arden and I am an altar server and School Captain at Sacred Heart Pymble. On Election Day, I ran a 'Roof-Raiser Plant Stall' at my school. I raised money towards the cost of repairing our leaking roof at Pymble Church by selling a variety of plants, including bonsais. It was lovely to see familiar faces from my local community come to support my plant stall.

I raised $575 from the stall! This will be fully donated to our church to help cover the cost of the roof repairs. I was so overwhelmed with the power of kindness from our parish community. Fr. Irek and Fr. Paul are very thankful for all of your generosity and community spirit.

To all the families who brought home a new plant or bonsai, I wish you well and I hope that taking care of your new family member is as rewarding as gardening is for me.

Church Repairs

As part of the ongoing repair work due to the water damage, this week the Church and Office areas are being re-painted and new carpet is being laid. We thank you all immensely for your patience while these works are being completed.

Church Working Bee

As a result of all the Church repair work these several weeks, we are putting a call out for people to assist with the cleaning of the Church and offices, moving all the furniture back etc, and have the Church back to order in time for Easter.

If you are able to spare some time to help, please come by either this weekend, or Monday or Tuesday next week outside of Mass times. We would be grateful for any help you are able to offer. Please bring along your cloths, brooms and mops, or even a vacuum cleaner.

Palm Sunday 1 & 2 April

Every day, more than 200 million children miss out on school, around 690 million people go hungry and 2.2 billion people cannot access clean drinking water. In recent years, COVID-19 has also devastated vulnerable communities already living in poverty, with the health and economic impacts to reverberate for years to come.

It's through the generous support of people like you that we are able to continue to help lift vulnerable communities out of poverty – support that is needed now more than ever.

Thank you for your continued support for Project Compassion – past, present and future. Together, we can help vulnerable communities face their challenges today and build a better tomorrow For All Future Generations.

Please donate to Project Compassion 2023 to help continue empowering vulnerable communities around the world to lift themselves and their communities out of poverty.

Together, we can help vulnerable communities face their challenges today and build a better tomorrow For All Future Generations. You can donate through Project Compassion donation boxes and envelopes available from the back the church, by visiting caritas.org.au/project-compassion, or by calling 1800 024 413.

RCIA at Pymble Parish

RCIA
A Journey In Faith

Our Catechumens Erryn Lloyd-Jones and Edward Man, and candidates Douglas Jack, Eugenie MacFarlane and Joshua Knox, have now completed the formal part of the RCIA preparation program. They will be initiated into our Catholic community at the Easter Vigil later this month. We pray especially for them in their final preparations. Strengthen them in faith, that they may know you, the one true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent.

We would also like to take this opportunity to thank Roman Pazniewski and Collette Keir for their time and commitment dedicated to running the RCIA program for our Parish.

Serra at Sacred Heart

The Serrans gathered last Thursday for our monthly Serra Mass and Meeting. Fr Irek was our guest speaker this month, and spoke about his vocation journey and Salvatorian Spirituality, and provided us with some live music on his guitar. Serrans meet once a month at Sacred Heart Church.

Our next Mass and meeting is scheduled for Thursday, 27 April 2023 at 6pm. More information will be available in due course. All are welcome to join us.

Prayer for Pope Francis

We pray especially for Pope Francis at this time as he has been hospitalised this week.

Loving God,

We ask you to look with favour on your servant Francis, who has served you as a Jesuit, a priest, an archbishop, a cardinal and now as a pope.

Most of all, he has served you as a faithful Christian, sharing the love, mercy and compassion that your Son showed to all he encountered, especially those who were poor or struggling.

As Francis faces this new illness, help the doctors and nurses who care for him, help him to bear any pain with grace and help him to heal quickly.

We ask this in your Holy Name. Amen.

Divine Mercy Sunday is Sunday, 16 April 2023.

St Faustina's Diary (Divine Mercy in My Soul), contains at least 14 passages in which Our Lord is quoted as requesting that a "Feast of Mercy" be formally established in the Church.

Leading up to Divine Mercy Sunday, in the week of 11 –15 April, we will pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet after all Masses during the week.

Additionally, on Divine Sunday there will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at 3pm in the Sacred Heart Church Pymble with an opportunity for Reconciliation.

We will then pray The Chaplet of Divine Mercy before Benediction at 4pm.

A reminder that daylight savings ends this Sunday, 2 April. Please wind your clocks back on Saturday evening.

Parish Golf Day

Last Friday was perfect weather for a group of our parishioners to gather and display their amazing golfing skills.

The overall champions on the day were Alison O'Brien and Amal Wahab. Fr Irek won both Closest to the Pin and Longest drive for the Men's, while Alison O'Brien and Mary Orenstein won the Longest Drive and Closest to The Pin respectively for the Women's!.

We will have another golf day next year so we can all challenge our champions again! Thank you to everyone who attended and a special thank you to Marie D'Allesandri for organising the event.

Liturgy of the Word

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Year A

First Reading

Is 50: 4-7

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The Lord has given me a disciple's tongue.
So that I may know how to reply to the wearied
he provides me with speech.
Each morning he wakes me to hear,
to listen like a disciple.
The Lord has opened my ear.
For my part, I made n resistance, neither did I turn away.
I offered my back to those who struck me,
my cheeks to those who tore at my beard;
I did not cover my face against insult and spittle.
The Lord comes to my help,
so that I am untouched by the insults.
so, too, I set my face like flint;
I know I shall not be shamed.

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

- All who see me deride me.
They curl their lips, they toss their heads.
'He trusted in the Lord, let him save him;
Let him release him if this is his friend.' (R.)
- Many dogs have surrounded me,
a band of the wicked beset me.
They tear holes in my hands and my feet.
I can count every one of my bones. (R.)
- They divide my clothing among them.
They cast lots for my robe.
O Lord, do not leave me alone,
my strength, make haste to help me! (R.)
- I will tell o your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled.
'You who fear the Lord give him praise;
all sons of Jacob, give him glory.
Revere him, Israel's sons.' (R.)

Second Reading

Phil 2: 6-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

His states was divine, yet Christ Jesus did not cling to his equality with God
but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave and became as men are,
and being as all men are,
he was humbler yet,
even to accepting death,
death on a cross.
Bug God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names
so that all beings
in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld,

should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim
Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Gospel Acclamation

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Christ became obedient for us even to death dying on the cross.

Therefore God raised him on high
And gave him a name above all other names.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Gospel

Mt 27: 11-54

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus was brought before Pontius Pilate, the governor, and the governor put to him this question, 'Are you the king of the Jews?' Jesus replied, 'It is you who say it.' But when he was accused by the chief priests and the elders he refused to answer at all. Pilate then said to him,
'Do you not hear how many charges they have brought against you?' But to the governor's complete amazement, he offered no reply to any of the charges.

At festival time it was the governor's practice to release a prisoner for the people, anyone they chose. Now there was at that time a notorious prisoner whose name was Barabbas. So when the crowd gathered, Pilate said to them, 'Which do you want me to release for you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?' For Pilate knew it was out of jealousy that they had handed him over.

Now as he was seated in the chair of judgement, his wife sent him a message, 'Have nothing to do with that man; I have been upset all day by a dream I had about him.'

The chief priests and the elders, however, had persuaded the crowd to demand the release of Barabbas and the execution of Jesus. So when the governor spoke and asked them, 'Which of the two do you want me to release for you?'
they said 'Barabbas'. 'But in that case,' Pilate said to them 'what am I to do with Jesus who is called Christ?' They all said, 'Let him be crucified!' 'Why?' he asked 'What harm has he done?' But they shouted all the louder, 'Let him be crucified!' Then Pilate saw that he was making no impression, that in fact a riot was imminent. So he took some water, washed his hands in front of the crowd and said, 'I am innocent of this man's blood. It is your concern.'
And the people, to a man, shouted back, 'His blood be on us and on our children!' Then he released Barabbas for them. He ordered Jesus to be first scourged and then handed over to be crucified.

The governor's soldiers took Jesus with them into the Praetorium and collected the whole cohort around him. Then they stripped him and made him wear a scarlet cloak, and having twisted some thorns into a crown they put this on his head and placed a reed in his right hand.

To make fun of him they knelt to him saying,
'Hail, king of the Jews!' And they spat on him and took the reed and struck him on the head with it. And when they had finished making fun of him, they took off the cloak and dressed him in his own clothes and led him away to crucify him.

On their way out, they came across a man from Cyrene, Simon by name, and enlisted him to carry his cross. When they had reached a place called Golgotha, that is, the place of the skull, they gave him wine to drink mixed with gall, which he tasted but refused to drink. When they had finished crucifying him they shared out his clothing by casting lots, and then sat down and stayed there keeping guard over him.

Above his head was placed the charge against him; it read: 'This is Jesus, the King of the Jews.' At the same time two robbers were crucified with him, one on the right and one on the left.

The passers-by jeered at him; they shook their heads and said 'So you would destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days! Then save yourself! If you are God's son, come down from the cross!' The chief priests with the scribes and elders mocked him in the same way. 'He saved others,' they said 'he cannot save himself. He is the king of Israel; let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him. He put his trust in God; now let God rescue him if he wants him. For he did say,
'I am the son of God.'" Even the robbers who were crucified with him taunted him in the same way.

From the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour, Jesus cried out in a loud voice, 'Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?' that is, 'My God, my God, why have you deserted me?' When some of those who stood there heard this, they said,
'The man is calling on Elijah,' and one of them quickly ran to get a sponge which he dipped in vinegar and putting it on a reed, gave it him to drink. 'Wait!' said the rest of them 'and see if Elijah will come to save him.' But Jesus again crying out in a loud voice, yielded up his spirit.

At that, the veil of the Temple was torn in two from top to bottom; the earth quaked; the rocks were split; the tombs opened and the bodies of many holy men rose from the dead, and these, after his resurrection, came out of the tombs, entered the Holy City and appeared to a number of people. Meanwhile the centurion, together with the others guarding Jesus, had seen the earthquake and all that was taking place, and they were terrified and said, 'In truth this was a son of God.' ⁶
