CELEBRATING SALVATORIANS' 25TH ANNIVERSARY IN PYMBLE

"I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who was to come into this world."
John 11: 27

Prayer of Trust in the God Who Calls Us to Life

Loving God,
In the sorrow of Martha and Mary, You draw near to us with compassion.
In the tears of Jesus,
You reveal Your heart for all who suffer.
And in the call to Lazarus, You show that no darkness, no grief, and no tomb is beyond Your saving love.
Strengthen our faith in Your Son, the Resurrection and the Life, that we may trust Him in every trial and follow His voice into newness of life.
Unbind us from all that holds us back, renew our hope, and make us witnesses of Your glory in our world.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

 Pope Leo XIV's official prayer intention for February

For Disarmament and Peace

Let us pray that nations move toward effective disarmament, particularly nuclear disarmament, and that world leaders choose the path of dialogue and diplomacy instead of violence.

Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

Entrance Antiphon Cf Psalm 42: 1-2

Give me justice, O God, and plead my cause against a nation that is faithless.
From the deceitful and cunning rescue me, for you, O God, are my strength.

First Reading Ezekiel 37: 12-14

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel

The Lord says this: I am now going to open your graves; I mean to raise you from your graves, my people, and lead you back to the soil of Israel. And you will know that I am the Lord, when I open your graves and raise you from your graves, my people. And I shall put my spirit in you, and you will live, and I shall resettle you on your own soil; and you will know that I, the Lord, have said and done this – it is the Lord who speaks.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 129 R. v7

(R.) With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

1. Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord, Lord, hear my voice!
O let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleading. (R.) 2. If you, O Lord, should make our guilt, Lord, who would survive?
But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you. (R.) 3. My soul is waiting for the Lord, I count on his word.
My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.
(Let the watchman count on daybreak and Israel on the Lord.) (R.) 4. Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity. (R.)

Second Reading Roman 8: 8-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

People who are interested only in unspiritual things can never be pleasing to God. Your interests, however, are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him. Though your body may be dead it is because of sin, but if Christ is in you then your spirit is life itself because you have been justified; and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

Gospel Acclamation See John 11: 25, 26

Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!
I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord;
Whoever believes in me will not die for ever.
Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!

Gospel John 11: 3-7, 17, 20-27, 33-45 (shorter form)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

The sisters Martha and Mary sent this message to Jesus, ‘Lord, the man you love is ill.’ On receiving the message, Jesus said, ‘This sickness will end not in death but in God’s glory, and through it the Son of God will be glorified.’

Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus, yet when he heard that Lazarus was ill he stayed where he was for two more days before saying to the disciples, ‘Let us go to Judea.’

On arriving, Jesus found that Lazarus had been in the tomb for four days already. When Martha heard that Jesus had come she went to meet him. Mary remained sitting in the house. Martha said to Jesus, ‘If you had been here, my brother would not have died, but I know that even now, whatever you ask of God, he will grant you.’ ‘Your brother’ said Jesus to her ‘will rise again.’ Martha said, ‘I know he will rise again at the resurrection on the last day.’ Jesus said:

‘I am the resurrection and the life.
If anyone believes in me, even though he dies he will live, and whoever lives and believes in me will never die.
Do you believe this?’

‘Yes, Lord,’ she said ‘I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who was to come into this world.’ Jesus said in great distress, with a sigh that came straight from the heart, ‘Where have you put him?’ They said, ‘See how much he loved him!’ But there were some who remarked, ‘He opened the eyes of the blind man, could he not have prevented this man’s death?’ Still sighing, Jesus reached the tomb: it was a cave with a stone to close the opening. Jesus said, ‘Take the stone away.’ Martha said to him, ‘Lord, by now he will smell; this is the fourth day.’ Jesus replied, ‘Have I not told you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?’ So they took away the stone. Then Jesus lifted up his eyes and said:

‘Father, I thank you for hearing my prayer.
I knew indeed that you always hear me, but I speak for the sake of all these who stand round me, so that they may believe it was you who sent me.’

When he had said this, he cried in a loud voice, ‘Lazarus, here! Come out!’ The dead man came out, his feet and hands bound with bands of stuff and a cloth round his face.
Jesus said to them, ‘Unbind him, let him go free.’

Many of the Jews who had come to visit Mary and had seen what he did believed in him.

Gospel Reflection

At the heart of this narrative lies the close friendship Jesus had with the siblings Mary, Martha and Lazarus of Bethany. Jesus got a message that the man he loved was ill. By the time he arrived, Lazarus had been dead four days. Each sister in turn lamented, if only you had been here... Jesus was greatly distressed at the sight of their tears and he too wept for his friend. People remarked on how much Jesus loved them.

But John is not really concerned to tell this as a human-interest story. He frames his narrative with a much bigger purpose. This is the last of the great ‘signs’ Jesus gives. It occurs as he moves towards his death and prepares to enter Jerusalem. It leads to knowing Christ and believing in him.

Right from the beginning, as Jesus delays his visit to Judea, John has Jesus remark: This
glory! John sets up the misunderstanding between rest/sleep and death so that Jesus can remark, now you will believe. Then as he approaches Bethany, the conversation with Martha opens up the question of the resurrection on the last day. This gives Jesus the opportunity to say, I am the resurrection and the life! and to evoke from Martha a statement of belief in Jesus as the Christ. John makes it clear that Lazarus was not just in a coma but was indeed dead (he will smell – it is the fourth day) and has Jesus say again: Have I not told you that if you believe you will see the glory of God? Then after the dramatic and vivid image of Lazarus coming forth still bound in the burial cloths, John remarks that many came to believe in Jesus.

Dear Parishioners,

We take our responsibility to safeguard the vulnerable, whether they be children, the young, the elderly or the disabled very seriously. We work to ensure that no one is taken advantage of within our Parish.

If you have any concern about the treatment of a child, young person or anyone within our parish environment, please approach myself directly or Claudia within the parish office on 02 9144 2702.

Alternatively, you may wish to contact Pamela Sweeney, Safeguarding Manager (Chancery & Churches) on 02 8379 1651.

Children, the young, and the vulnerable must be safe

Supported by adults who ...

CARE

for us as we are a precious gift from God

RESPECT our rights, abilities, contributions, needs and wishes

ASK

us how we are feeling and what we are thinking, ask us what we need

LISTEN to what we are really saying

TELL us about dangers – and what's being done to protect us

SEE what other adults are doing, and how they are behaving

DO what they are supposed to do and what they say they will do

STEP UP AND SPEAK OUT when we are being hurt, bullied or treated badly.
