CELEBRATING SALVATORIANS' 25TH ANNIVERSARY IN PYMBLE

A Heart Devoted to Love

Lord Jesus Christ, You taught us that the greatest commandment is to love the Lord our God with all our heart, with all our soul, and with all our mind, and to love our neighbour as ourselves.

Grant us the grace of the Holy Spirit so that our hearts may be untethered from selfishness and anchored entirely in Your love. Teach us to see Your image in every person we meet, serving them with compassion, patience, and humility. May our lives reflect the fullness of Your Law and fulfil the holy divine desire You have for us.

Amen.

Baptisms at Pymble Parish

Our upcoming Baptism Formation Class will be held on:

Pope Leo XIV's official prayer intention for October

For mental health ministry

Let us pray that the mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

Sacred Heart Catholic Primary School Year 3/4M Religious Studies

This term, we will be exploring prayer and how it helps us grow closer to God. The children will learn about different ways to pray, why prayer is important, and how Jesus taught us to pray. We will also discover how the Holy Spirit gives us the courage and strength to live as followers of Jesus. As it is the month of October our class has been focussing on praying the rosary as part of our daily prayer.

Through stories from Scripture and examples of people living out their faith, the children will see how prayer can inspire positive action in everyday life. We will also learn about the Liturgical Year and the special seasons and celebrations that are important to the Catholic Church.

Confirmation at Pymble Parish

This weekend, we joyfully welcome the children in our parish who are beginning their journey of preparation to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. At our Masses next weekend, these young candidates will be presented to our parish community.

As they take this meaningful step in deepening their faith and receiving the gifts of the Holy Spirit, please keep these children and their families in your prayers.

A Prayer for Our Confirmation Candidates

Loving God, send your Holy Spirit upon the children of our parish as they prepare to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation.
Open their hearts to your grace,
fill them with wisdom and courage,
and guide their families along this journey of faith.
May our community support them with love and prayer
as they grow closer to You.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Parish Prayer Zone

Praying for others gets our focus off ourselves and onto the needs of those around us. As we "carry each other's burdens," we "will fulfil the law of Christ" (Galatians 6:2). Praying for each other makes us stronger and helps us to grow our faith and Christian love.

Recently Deceased:

Beverley Shae, Leone Glynn, Lynn Dahl, Peter Cassidy, Joan Napoli, Teresa Słomka-Czech, Tom Duffy, Jean Ditchfield, Lucinda Coutinho, Rolando Salvi, Ryan Kim, Anne Bolton, Vinod Venkat, Alexander Ross, Troy Schufft, Jerzy Czech, Tatiana Seale, Jan Drobczyk, Lawrence Walter Cooke, Harry Wong, Barbara Tallis, Salvatore Cristaudo

Death Anniversaries:

Judith English, John English, Katherine Cashman, Yu Tso Kwong Tsui, Peter Goh, Paula Freeman, Constance & Elwyn Glazier. Graham Lynch, Antonio & Rosa Maria Dias, Jack Chan, Mary Costa Silva, Rodney Fernandes, Carmel Nola Conway

Prayers for the sick:

Timothy Wong, Eduardo Lopez, Carol Marriott, Felix Fung, Anny Tsang, Agnes Dazon, José Castro, Kathy (Ya Wen) Sun, Stan Brataniec, Daniel Fileman, Janusz Czech, Elliot Leahy

Monthly prayer intention:

This week we pray for peace and unity: We pray for peace in the midst of violence and tragedy in this world. May we have the patience to be understanding, the strength to be forgiving, and the grace to admit when we are wrong. Amen.

If you would like the names of your relatives to be included in the prayer list (anniversary of deaths, recently deceased, illnesses, wedding celebration or anniversaries, birthdays, etc.) please contact the Parish Office by midday each Wednesday. Remember that due to privacy policy, names of the sick can only be put on the bulletin with permission of the immediate family. This list will be updated every month and we would appreciate if we are advised of any updates. Thank you.

DAILY PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, we praise You for Your goodness and thank You for Your gifts. Help us respond to and live out our mission in the Church. Assist all Your people to know their vocation in life and help them to prepare for it. Call many to be priests, deacons and consecrated men and women for Your greater glory, and for the service of Your people. Give those whom You call the grace to respond generously and to persevere faithful.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Congratulations to our First Communicants

Last Sunday, our parish family was filled with immense joy as 71 of our young children received the Sacrament of First Holy Communion for the very first time. It was truly a sacred and wonderful celebration!

A heartfelt thank you goes out to our dedicated catechists, volunteers, parents, and everyone who lent a helping hand behind the scenes. Without your generosity, time, and hard work, this beautiful day would not have been possible.

Please keep these children and their families in your prayers as they continue to grow in faith and walk closely with the Lord.

November Masses: The Month of the Holy Souls

During the month of November, the Catholic Church traditionally pauses to remember and pray for the faithful departed. It is a powerful act of charity to offer our prayers and sacrifices for the Holy Souls in Purgatory, helping them on their journey to the full joy of Heaven.

A plenary indulgence is a grace granted by the Catholic Church through the merits of Jesus Christ to remove the temporal punishment due to sin. It is not a forgiveness of sin but the remission of punishment for sins already forgiven. It may apply either to oneself or to souls already in purgatory.

A plenary indulgence may be gained for the dead, daily, by visiting a Church on between 1—8 November, and praying the Lord's Prayer and the Creed. Three conditions are required for gaining the indulgence:

- Sacramental confession
- Eucharistic communion
- Prayer for the Pope's intentions

A Plenary indulgence may be obtained each day for one soul during this period.

November Masses

During the month of November we will pray for the deceased by offering a Mass every day for those whose names are on the special November envelopes. The envelopes are available at the back of both Churches. Please write their names on the envelopes and return to the Office or to Father Irek.

Fr Rozo Palić

Blessing of the Animals

Sunday, 25 October 9:30am

Sacred Heart Church, Pymble

In celebration of the Feast of St Francis of Assisi, the Patron Saint of Animals, we will be celebrating a special Mass for our pets and their owners.

Blessing of good health and wellbeing of our furry friends outside the Church and morning tea following Mass.

All animals must be leashed or in a crate, and must remain outside of the Church building at all times. Bring a photo of your pet if you can't bring your pet with you.

Everyone is welcome

Liturgy of the Word
Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year A

Entrance Antiphon Cf Psalm 104: 3-4

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice;
turn to the Lord and his strength;
constantly seek his face.

First Reading Exodus 22: 20-26

A reading from the book of Exodus

The Lord said to Moses, 'Tell the sons of Israel this, "You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans.

"If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him.

"If you take another's cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity.'"

Responsorial Psalm Ps 17: 2*4, 47, 51 R.v. 2

(R.) I love you, Lord, my strength.

1. I love you, Lord, my strength,
   my rock, my fortress, my saviour.
   My God is the rock where I take refuge;
   my shield, my mighty help, my strongfold.
   The Lord is worthy of all praise:
   when I call I am saved from my foes. (R.)

2. Long life to the Lord, my rock!
   Praised be the God who saves me.
   He has given great victories to his king
   and shown his love for his anointed. (R.)

Second Reading 1 Thessalonians 1: 5-10

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread – and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

Gospel Acclamation John 14: 23

Alleluia, alleluia!
All who love me will keep my words,
and my Father will love them and we will come to them.
Alleluia!

Gospel Matthew 22: 34-40

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the law?' Jesus said, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: you must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.'

Gospel Reflection

Meditation: What is the purpose of God's law and commandments? The Pharisees prided themselves in the knowledge of the law of Moses and the ritual requirements of the law. They made it a life-time practice to study the 613 precepts of the Torah - the books of the Old Testament containing the Law of Moses - along with the numerous rabbinic commentaries on the law. The religious authorities tested Jesus to see if he correctly understood the law as they did. Jesus startled them with his profound simplicity and mastery of the law of God and its purpose.

God's love rules all

Jesus summarized the whole of the law in two great commandments found in Deuteronomy 6:5 - "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might" - and Leviticus 19:18 - "you shall love your neighbor as yourself". God's love directs all that he does - His love is holy, just, and pure because it seeks only what is good, beneficial, and life-giving - rather than what is destructive, evil, or deadly. That is why he commands us to love - to accept and to give only what is good, lovely, just, and pure and to reject whatever is contrary.

God puts us first in his thoughts

God is love and everything he does flows from his love for us (1 John 3:1, 4:7-8, 16). God puts us first in his thoughts and concerns - do we put him first in our thoughts? God loved us first (1 John 4:19) and our love for him is a response to his exceeding goodness and kindness towards us. The love of God comes first and the love of neighbor is firmly grounded in the love of God. The more we know of God's love, truth, and goodness, the more we love what he loves and reject whatever is hateful and contrary to his will. God commands us to love him first above all else - his love orients and directs our thoughts, intentions, and actions to what is wholly good and pleasing to him. He wants us to love him personally, wholeheartedly, and without any reservation or compromise.

The nature of love - giving to others for their sake

What is the nature of love? Love is the gift of giving oneself for the good of others - it is wholly other oriented and directed to the welfare and benefit of others. Love which is rooted in pleasing myself is self-centered and possessive - it is a selfish love that takes from others rather than gives to others. It is a stunted and disordered love which leads to many hurtful and sinful desires - such as jealousy, greed, envy, and lust. The root of all sin is disordered love and pride which is fundamentally putting myself above God and my neighbor - it is loving and serving self rather than God and neighbor. True love, which is wholly directed and oriented to what is good rather than evil, is rooted in God's truth and righteousness (moral goodness).

How God loves us

God loves us wholly, completely, and perfectly for our sake - there is no limit, no holding back, no compromising on his part. His love is not subject to changing moods or circumstances. When God gives, he gives generously, abundantly, freely, and without setting conditions to the gift of his love. His love does not waver, but is firm, consistent, and constant. He loves us in our weakness - in our fallen and sinful condition. That is why the Father sent his only begotten Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, to redeem us from slavery to sin and its disordered cravings, desires, passions, and addictions. God the Father always seeks us out to draw us to his throne of mercy and help. God the Father corrects and disciplines us in love to free us from the error of our wrong ways of thinking and choosing what is harmful and evil rather than choosing what is good and wholesome for us. Do you freely accept God's love and do you willingly choose to obey his commandments?
