Help us to Listen & Respond

God of New Beginnings, you see beyond our words and into the choices we make.
When our yes is easy but
our action is harder,
give us courage to take the next step.
Challenge our comfort, open our eyes to what needs to change
and turn our good intentions into lives that make your love visible.
Help us to listen, respond and begin again whenever we need to.

Amen.

Pope Leo XIV's
official prayer intention for September

For the care of water

Let us pray for a just and sustainable management of water, a vital resource, so that everyone
may have equal access to it.

Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

PYMBLE CATHOLIC PARISH

2 RICHARD PORTER WAY PYMBLE

Our Lady of Perpetual Succour Primary School—Stage 1

In Religion this fortnight, Stage 1M learnt about the parable of The Good Samaritan. We learnt that the Good Samaritan is a parable that teaches us that we should help those who are in need.

Students listened to the parable, then they responded through collage, playdough, painting, drawing and re-reading the parable before they reflected in their student journals.

Breana said that she could help others by standing up for people and being kind. Travis and Charlie want to be like the Good Samaritan because they want to help people. Aria was wondering how much money the Samaritan gave to the inn owner.

Siena Catholic College – Building Works Update Important CarPark Information

As our two Parish Primary Schools combine to form Siena Catholic College, the Pymble site is preparing to welcome Years 5–12. A new two-storey modular building will be constructed in the coming months.

Site preparation is now underway, and the following car parking adjustments are in effect:

- Internal Driveway Access: Driveway access to the Bobbin Head Road car park from the Bannockburn Road car park is closed.
- Weekend Parking: The car park on Bobbin Head Road remains open on weekends.
- Pedestrian Access: Pedestrian access from the Bannockburn Road car park is restricted. Pedestrians will need to walk through the school to reach the church.
- Construction Zone: The extended parking section beyond the gate adjacent to the church is now a designated construction site reserved for building works.

These temporary changes reduce the number of parking spaces available near the Sacred Heart Church. To help our adjustment to these changes, please consider:

- Leaving parking spots near the church for those with limited mobility or greater need.
- Parking along Bannockburn Road when attending Mass.
- Carpooling with fellow parishioners.
- Using the limited remaining space for quick passenger drop-off rather than car parking.

We understand these adjustments lessen parking convenience, and further updates may be required as construction progresses. We apologise for the inconvenience, appreciate your patience and cooperation, and invite you to contact the Parish Office with any questions.

Accessing the Church from the Bobbin Head Road and Lower Carpark

You can access the Church from the Bobbin Head Road Carpark and Lower Carpark by walking through the school, and following the blue arrows as shown below.

Liturgy of the Word

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year A

Entrance Antiphon Daniel 3: 31,29-30, 42-43

All that you have done to us, O Lord,
you have done with true judgement,
for we have sinned against you
and not obeyed your commandments.
But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

First Reading Ezekiel 18:25-28

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel

The word of the Lord was addressed to me as follows: ‘You object, “What the Lord does is unjust.” Listen, you House of Israel: is what I do unjust? Is it not what you do that is unjust? When the upright man renounces his integrity to commit sin and dies because of this, he dies because of the evil that he himself has committed. When the sinner renounces sin to become law-abiding and honest, he deserves to live. He has chosen to renounce all his previous sins; he shall certainly live; he shall not die.’

Responsorial Psalm Ps24: 4-9 R. v. 6

(R.) Remember your mercies, O Lord.

1. Lord, make me know your ways.
Lord, teach me your paths.
Make me walk in your truth, and teach me:
for you are God my saviour. (R.)
2. Remember your mercy, Lord, and the love you have shown from of old.
Do not remember the sins of my youth.
In your love remember me,
because of your goodness, O Lord. (R.)
3. The Lord is good and upright.
He shows the path to those who stray,
he guides the humble in the right path;
he teaches his way to the poor. (R.)

Second Reading Philippians 2: 1-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

If our life in Christ means anything to you, if love can persuade at all, or the Spirit that we have in common, or any tenderness and sympathy, then be united in your convictions and united in your love, with a common purpose and a common mind. That is the one thing which would make me completely happy. There must be no competition among you, no conceit; but everybody is to be self-effacing. Always consider the other person to be better than yourself, so that nobody thinks of his own interests first but everybody thinks of other people’s interests instead. In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus:

His state was divine, yet he did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to Assume the condition of a slave, and became as men are; and being as all men are, he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross. But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Gospel Acclamation John 10:27

Alleluia, alleluia!
My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord;
I know them, and they follow me.
Alleluia!

Gospel Matthew 21:28-32

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, ‘What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He went and said to the first, “My boy, you go and work in the vineyard today.” He answered, “I will not go,” but afterwards thought better of it and went. The man then went and said the same thing to the second who answered, “Certainly, sir,” but did not go. Which of the two did the father’s will?’ ‘The first’ they said. Jesus said to them, ‘I tell you solemnly, tax collectors and prostitutes are making their way into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you, a pattern of true righteousness, but you did not believe him, and yet the tax collectors and prostitutes did. Even after seeing that, you refused to think better of it and believe in him.’

Gospel Reflection

Meditation: What kind of future are you preparing for? Jesus encourages us to think - to think about the consequences of our choices, especially the choices and decisions that will count not just for now but for eternity as well. The choices we make now will affect and shape our future, both our future on earth as well as in the life of the age to come.

Repaying a debt of gratitude and showing respect where it is due

Jesus tells a simple story of two imperfect sons to illustrate the way of God's kingdom. The father amply provided for his sons food, lodging, and everything they needed. Everything the father had belonged to them as well. The father also rewarded his sons with excellent work in his own vineyard. He expected them to show him gratitude, loyalty, and honor by doing their fair share of the daily work.

Converting both heart and will to do what is good and pleasing to God

The "rebellious" son told his father to his face that he would not work for him. But afterwards he changed his mind and did what his father commanded him. The "good" son said he would work for his father, but didn't follow through. He sought his own pleasure, contrary to his father's will. Now who was really the good son? Both sons disobeyed their father - but one repented and then did what the father told him. Jesus makes his point clear - Good intentions are not enough. And promises don't count unless they are performed.

A transformed heart filled with gratitude and respect

God wants to change our hearts so that we will show by our speech and by our actions that we respect his will and do it. God offers each one of us the greatest treasure possible - indestructable peace, joy, and friendship with him in his everlasting kingdom. We can lose that treasure if we refuse the grace - the free gift of God's blessing and strength - which the Lord Jesus has won for us through his victory on the cross. The Lord Jesus fills us with the gift of the Holy Spirit who works in and through us for the glory of God. Do you seek to please God and respect his will and loving plan for your life? Allow the Holy Spirit to fill your heart with the peace, joy, and righteousness of God's kingdom (Romans 14:17).

Lord Jesus, changemy heart that I may only desire that which is pleasing to you. Help me to respect your will and give me the strength, joy and perseveranceto carry it out wholeheartedly.
