CELEBRATING SALVATORIANS' 25TH ANNIVERSARY IN PYMBLE

“Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me.”

John 14:1

Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled

Lord Jesus, You who calm troubled hearts and open the way to the Father, steady my spirit today. When fear rises, speak again Your promise:

“Do not let your hearts be troubled; trust in God, trust also in me.”

Draw me into the confidence that You are the Way that leads me, the Truth that guides me, and the Life that sustains me.

Help me to believe—not only in Your works, but in the greater things You call me to share through faith.

Make my heart a dwelling place for Your peace, my hands instruments of Your compassion, and my life a witness to Your love.

Amen.

Baptisms at Pymble Parish

Pope Leo XIV's official prayer intention for May

That Everyone Might Have Food

Let us pray that everyone, from large producers to small consumers, be committed to avoid wasting food, and to ensure that everyone has access to quality food.

Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

Children's Liturgy at Sacred Heart

Today, after reading the Gospel at Children's Liturgy, we spoke about how sheep need a shepherd to take care of them, and that the sheep know their shepherd's voice. We then compared it to the children knowing their parents' voices and how they care for them. We then spoke about how we can tell the voice of Jesus, and how He will always care for us. This led us to discussions about how we trust Jesus and live by the way He taught us to be kind and loving.

Thank you to all the children who joined us at Children's Liturgy and took an active role in our session, making it a fun way to learn about the Gospel.

DAILY PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, we praise You for Your goodness and thank You for Your gifts. Help us respond to and live out our mission in the Church. Assist all Your people to know their vocation in life and help them to prepare for it. Call many to be priests, deacons and consecrated men and women for Your greater glory, and for the service of Your people. Give those whom You call the grace to respond generously and to persevere faithful. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Guest Speaker

Father John Puliparambil
A Journey in Faith and Service

Fr John Puliparambil, originally from the Archdiocese of Verapoly, Cochin (Kerala, India), was ordained in 1998 after formation at St Peter's Pontifical Seminary, Bangalore, India. He comes from a family of six children and is blessed with three surviving sisters and one brother. His parents, Xavier and Chinnamma, and his sister Jessy, are now with the Lord.

Fr John has served in parish ministry and family apostolate work in India, contributing to various pastoral roles in the Archdiocese of Verapoly, Cochin.

For the past eight years, he has served in the Diocese of Broken Bay. In Australia, his ministry has included hospital chaplaincy at Hornsby Public Hospital and parish service in Wahroonga, Manly, and Chatswood.

Fr John brings a compassionate and experienced pastoral presence, grounded in faith and committed to accompanying people in their spiritual journey. His desire is to serve, to listen, and to foster communities where the love of Christ is encountered and shared.

Fr John is now the Assistant Priest at Terrigal Catholic Parish.

All Welcome

Join us for an evening of faith, vocation, and fellowship.

Meeting our Recently Baptised RCIA Candidates— Why did I become a Catholic?

My name is Charles, and I am a 24-year-old university student currently completing my degree in Information Technology at Macquarie University. My journey to becoming a Catholic began when I started attending Mass with my partner and her family. Before this, I did not have a strong sense of faith or a personal relationship with God, and religion was not something that played a significant role in my life. What initially started as a way to share in something important, gradually became something much more meaningful to me spiritually. Through my experiences at Mass, I found myself increasingly drawn to the Catholic faith, and over time my belief in God deepened in a genuine and lasting way.

As I continued to learn more about the teachings and traditions of the Faith, I discovered a compelling sense of belonging, structure, and purpose that truly resonated with me. I came to appreciate not only the spirituality of the faith but also the meaning it brings to everyday life. I have been inspired by the example of those around me - my partner and her family, fellow parishioners, and church leaders - who live out their faith with sincerity and commitment.

Becoming Catholic represents a very important step in my life. It is both a personal commitment to continued growth in my relationship with God and the beginning of a new chapter - one where I aim to deepen my relationships with those important to me under the spiritual guidance of Christ and the values and teachings of the Church.

God Bless,
Charles

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

On Sunday 7 June, as we celebrate the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) Sunday, we will be commissioning our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion at all weekend Masses.

The term Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion describes anyone who assists in the distribution of Communion. This may include taking Communion to the sick, to residents in nursing homes or distributing Communion during Mass. Being commissioned is a necessary prerequisite to serving in this ministry.

If you are interested in becoming an Extraordinary Minister or you feel you need a refresher, a training session will be held:

Date: Sunday, 31 May 2026

Time: 10:30am (following 9:30am Mass)

Venue: Sacred Heart Church

RENEWAL

Entrance Antiphon Cf Psalm 97: 1-2

O sing a new song to the Lord,
for he has worked wonders;
in the sight of the nations
he has shown his deliverance, alleluia.

First Reading Acts 6: 1-7

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

About this time, when the number of disciples was increasing, the Hellenists made a complaint against the Hebrews: in the daily distribution their own widows were being overlooked. So the Twelve called a full meeting of the disciples and addressed them, 'It would not be right for us to neglect the word of God so as to give out food; you, brothers, must select from among yourselves seven men of good reputation, filled with the Spirit and with wisdom; we will hand over this duty to them, and continue to devote ourselves to prayer and to the service of the word.' The whole assembly approved of this proposal and elected Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, together with Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus of Antioch, a convert to Judaism. They presented these to the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

The word of the Lord continued to spread: the number of disciples in Jerusalem was greatly increased, and a large group of priests made their submission to the faith.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 32: 1-2, 4-5, 18-19 R.v. 22

(R.) Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

1. Ring out your joy to the Lord, O you just; for praise is fitting for loyal hearts. Give thanks to the Lord upon the harp, with a ten-stringed lute sing him songs. (R.)
2. For the word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. (R.)
3. The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. (R.)

Second Reading 1 Peter 2: 4-9

A reading from the first letter of St Peter

The Lord is the living stone, rejected by men but chosen by God and precious to him; set yourselves close to him so that you too, the holy priesthood that offers the spiritual sacrifices which Jesus Christ has made acceptable to God, may be living stones making a spiritual house. As scripture says: See how I lay in Zion a precious cornerstone that I have chosen and the man who rests his trust on it will not be disappointed. That means that for you who are believers, it is precious; but for unbelievers, the stone rejected by the builders has proved to be the keystone, a stone to stumble over, a rock to bring men down. They stumble over it because they do not believe in the word; it was the fate in store for them.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a consecrated nation, a people set apart to sing the praises of God who called you out of the darkness into his wonderful light.

Gospel Acclamation John 14: 6

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the way, the truth and the life,
says the Lord;
no one comes to the Father,
except through me.
Alleluia!

Gospel John 14: 1-12

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to his disciples:

'Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God still, and trust in me. There are many rooms in my Father's house; if there were not, I should have told you. I am now going to prepare a place for you, And after I have gone and prepared you a place, I shall return to take you with me; so that where I am you may be too. your know the way to the place where I am going.'

Thomas said, 'Lord, we do not know where you are going, so how can we know the way?' Jesus said:

'I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No one can come to the Father except through me. If you know me, you know my Father too. From this moment you know him and have seen him.'

Philip said, 'Lord, let us see the Father and then we shall be satisfied.' 'Have I been with you all this time, Philip,' said Jesus to him 'and you still do not know me?

'To have seen me is to have seen the Father, so how can you say, "Let us see the Father"? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words I say to you I do not speak as from myself: it is the Father, living in me, who is doing this work.

You must believe me when I say That I am in the Father and the Father is in me; believe it on the evidence of this work, if for no other reason.

'I tell you most solemnly, whoever believes in me will perform the same works as I do myself, he will perform even greater works, because I am going to the Father.'

Gospel Reflection

This is part of Jesus' long farewell discourse to his disciples after he has washed their feet at the Last Supper. It has a poetic, rather other-worldly feel to it. His wise reassurance is spoken with earnest sincerity.

In typical Johannine style, it is broken up with very concrete questions that really miss the point but give Jesus the opportunity for further reflection.

Thomas' 'We don't know the way' leads to Jesus' lapidary declaration: 'I am the Way, the Truth and the Life.' Philip's 'Let us see the Father' produces Jesus' strong affirmation that he is in the Father and the Father is in him. He points out that this is evident in what he does – it is God the Father who works through him.

The gospel reader, with a sharp change of tone and style, should ensure that these questions are set apart from the discourse itself. They help to maintain people's interest and involvement in the reading and help to move the discourse forward.

Parish Safeguarding

Dear Parishioners,

We take our responsibility to safeguard the vulnerable, whether they be children, the young, the elderly or the disabled very seriously. We work to ensure that no one is taken advantage of within our Parish.

If you have any concern about the treatment of a child, young person or anyone within our parish environment, please approach myself directly or Claudia within the parish office on 02 9144 2702.

Alternatively, you may wish to contact Pamela Sweeney, Safeguarding Manager (Chancery & Churches) on 02 8379 1651.

Yours in Christ,

Fr Ireneusz Czech SDS

Children, the young, and the vulnerable must be safe

Supported by adults who ...

CARE for us as we are a precious gift from God

RESPECT our rights, abilities, contributions, needs and wishes

ASK us how we are feeling and what we are thinking, ask us what we need

LISTEN to what we are really saying

TELL us about dangers – and what's being done to protect us

SEE what other adults are doing, and how they are behaving

DO what they are supposed to do and what they say they will do

STEP UP AND SPEAK OUT when we are being hurt, bullied or treated badly.

"Christ has no hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which he looks with compassion on this world."
