Building a Christ-centred community of Love and Mercy

Pymble Parish is under the Pastoral care of the Salvatorian Fathers

“Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture.”

John 10:9

The Lord is our Good Shepherd

*Heavenly Father, thank You that Jesus is all we need for life and godliness. Thank You that in Him are the words of eternal life and that He is the Good Shepherd of the sheep and the singular Door into the sheepfold. Thank You that in Him we have been made Your sons and daughters and that the many promises of God are ours, through faith in Him - not only in this world but in the ages to come. May I live and work to Your praise and glory.
In Jesus' name I pray, AMEN.*

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION FOR APRIL

For a culture of peace and non-violence

We pray for the spread of peace and non-violence, by decreasing the use of weapons by States and citizens.

A warm welcome to all our Parishioners who are celebrating the Eucharist with us this weekend.

Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

Parish Prayer Zone

Praying for others gets our focus off ourselves and onto the needs of those around us. As we "carry each other's burdens," we "will fulfil the law of Christ" (Galatians 6:2). Praying for each other makes us stronger and helps us to grow our faith and Christian love.

Parish Safeguarding

Dear Parishioners,

We take our responsibility to safeguard the vulnerable, whether they be children, the young, the elderly or the disabled very seriously. We work to ensure that no one is taken advantage of within our Parish.

If you have any concern about the treatment of a child, young person or anyone within our parish environment, please approach myself directly or Daniela Foote within the parish office on 02 9144 2702.

Alternatively, you may wish to contact Ana Cosi, Safeguarding Manager (Chancery & Churches) on 02 8379 1651.

Yours in Christ,

Fr Ireneusz Czech SDS

Children, the young, and the vulnerable must be safe

Supported by adults who ...

CARE for us as we are a precious gift from God

RESPECT our rights, abilities, contributions, needs and wishes

ASK us how we are feeling and what we are thinking, ask us what we need

LISTEN to what we are really saying

TELL us about dangers – and what's being done to protect us

SEE what other adults are doing, and how they are behaving

DO what they are supposed to do and what they say they will do

STEP UP AND SPEAK OUT when we are being hurt, bullied or treated badly.

Confirmation Formation has Commenced

We are blessed to have Confirmation celebrations at our Parish on the 21st of May 2023.

We have 85 candidates who have commenced their formation.

These candidates will be guided on their faith journey primarily by parents, sponsors, godparents, and families, and further supported by their schools and the Pymble Parish Sacramental Team.

Confirmation builds upon and strengthens what began at Baptism.

Confirmation grounds us more deeply in our relationship with God, unites us more firmly to Christ, and through the Holy Spirit draws the candidates more intimately to the community of faith.

Please pray for the candidates, their parents, families and sponsors as they prepare to receive this important Sacrament.

PARENTS AND CANDIDATES FOR CONFIRMATION ATTENDED A WELCOME EVENING AT SACRED HEART CHURCH FOR THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE PROGRAM.

THANK YOU TO OUR YOUTH LEADERS FOR ASSISTING IN THE FORMATION OF OUR CANDIDATES FOR CONFIRMATION.

THE YOUTH LEADERS GUIDED THE CANDIDATES IN A SERIES OF ACTIVITIES THROUGH THE SEVEN GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT.

IT WAS A SUCCESSFUL EVENING OF FUN, ACTIVITIES, SINGING AND FAITH.

Seeking a lovely granny flat or studio. Quiet clean for a responsible and tidy lady. Approx $350 per week ASAP.

Please call Daniela at Parish office and she will forward details for confidential discussion.

Blessings of Homes

Dear Parishioners, following Easter, our Priests will be available to bless your homes. If you would like them to come to your place, please contact the parish office or directly speak to one of them indicating your preferred day. Thank you.

RCIA Testimony Eugenie MacFarlane

Being part of the RCIA program at Sacred Heart Pymble Parish has been truly life changing. Even though I attended a Catholic high school and grew up going to mass, I was pleasantly surprised at how much I still learnt and took away from the program. Through my preparation for Confirmation, I have come to have a greater appreciation for the power and beauty of the sacrament, and the significance it holds in the Church.

In receiving the gift of the Holy Spirit, I was filled with a sense of gratitude and joy and feel that I have been strengthened and empowered to live out my faith with greater conviction and purpose. For my confirmation name, I chose 'Gianna', after Saint Gianna Beretta Molla, a woman of faith and courage who lived out her calling as a wife, mother, and physician with great love and devotion. As I reflect on the life of Saint Gianna, I am in awe of her unwavering commitment to love and serve others, even in the face of great suffering and sacrifice. Her example challenges me to live with greater courage and selflessness, and to always put the needs of others before my own. I recognize that this is not always easy, but I am confident that with the help of the Holy Spirit and the guidance of Saint Gianna, I can continue to grow in faith and service.

Overall, my experience of receiving the sacrament of Confirmation has been powerful and transformative. It has given me a renewed sense of purpose and a deeper connection to God and the rich tradition and teachings of the Catholic faith. I am so grateful for the support and guidance of my RCIA mentors (Roman and Collette), sponsors, and for the friendships that I have formed along the way with the other candidates. I am excited about the journey ahead, and the many opportunities to deepen my relationship with God and grow in love and service to others.

Salvatorian Collection

Each year in our Salvatorian parishes, we ask for support for our seminaries in the Australian region and Poland.

Your generous contributions help in the training and education of our young seminarians and the upkeep of our seminaries.

The Seminary is a place for Salvatorian candidates to study and reflect on their vocation to priesthood and religious life. The Australian Salvatorian community has a close connection with two Salvatorian seminaries. One in Poland were most of our members concluded formation towards priesthood and a second in the Philippines were young candidates from east Asia receive their spiritual and intellectual nourishment.

We invite you to unite in prayer for our young Seminarians as well as for vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life.

Thank you in anticipation for your generosity and God bless you all, Fr Irek and Fr Paul.

Salvatorian donation envelopes will be available this weekend you are welcome to take it home and bring it back with you next week.

Entrance Antiphon

The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth;
By the word of the Lord the heavens were made, alleluia.

First Reading

Acts 2: 14, 36-41

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

On the day of Pentecost Peter stood up with the Eleven and addressed the crowd with a loud voice: 'The whole House of Israel can be certain that God has made this Jesus whom you crucified both Lord and Christ.'

Hearing this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the apostles, 'What must we do, brothers?' 'You must repent,' Peter answered 'and every one of you must be baptised in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. The promise that was made is for you and your children, and for all those who are far away, for all those whom the Lord our God will call to himself.' He spoke to them for a long time using many arguments, and he urged them, 'Save yourselves from this perverse generation.' They were convinced by his arguments, and they accepted what he said and were baptised. That very day about three thousand were added to their number.

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

- The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me,
to revive my drooping spirit. (R.)
- He guides me along the right path;
he is true to his name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness
no evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
with these you give me comfort. (R.)
- You have prepared a banquet for me
in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing. (R.)
- Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell
for ever and ever. (R.)

Second Reading

1 Pt 2: 20-25

A reading from the first letter of St Peter

The merit, in the sight of God, is in bearing punishment patiently when you are punished after doing your duty.

This, in fact, is what you were called to do, because Christ suffered for you and left an example for you to follow the way he took. He had not done anything wrong, and there had been no perjury in his mouth. He was insulted and did not retaliate with insults; when he was tortured he made no threats but he put his trust in the righteous judge. He was bearing our faults in his own body on the cross, so that we might die to our faults and live for holiness; through his wounds you have been healed. You had gone astray like sheep but now you have come back to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;
I know my sheep, and mine know me.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Jn 10: 1-10

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said: 'I tell you most solemnly, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold through the gate, but gets in some other way is a thief and a brigand. The one who enters through the gate is the shepherd of the flock; the gatekeeper lets him in, the sheep hear his voice, one by one he calls his own sheep and leads them out. When he has brought out his flock, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow because they know his voice. They never follow a stranger but run away from him: they do not recognise the voice of strangers.'

Jesus told them this parable but they failed to understand what he meant by telling it to them.

So Jesus spoke to them again:

'I tell you most solemnly,
I am the gate of the sheepfold.
All others who have come
are thieves and brigands;
but the sheep took no notice of them.
I am the gate.
Anyone who enters through me will be safe:
he will go freely in and out
and be sure of finding pasture.
The thief comes
only to steal and kill and destroy.
I have come
so that they may have life
and have it to the full.'

Gospel Reflection

Meditation: Do you know the peace and security of the Good Shepherd who watches over his own? The Old Testament often speaks of God as shepherd of his people, Israel. The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock! We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. The Messiah is also pictured as the shepherd of God's people: He will feed his flock like a shepherd, he will gather the lambs in his arms. Jesus says he is the Good Shepherd who will risk his life to seek out and save the stray sheep. He is the Shepherd and Guardian of our souls.

The Good Shepherd and Guardian of our souls

What can shepherding teach us about God and our relationship with him? At the end of each day the shepherd brought his sheep into shelter. They knew the voice of their shepherd and came at his beckoning. So familiar was the shepherd and his sheep, that each was called by a distinct name. In the winter the sheep were usually brought to a communal village shelter which was locked and kept secure by a guardian. In the summer months the sheep were usually kept out in the fields and then gathered into a fold at night which was guarded by a shepherd throughout the night. He was literally the door through which the sheep had to pass.

The Scriptures describe God as a shepherd who brings security and peace to his people. The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and for evermore. Even the leaders of God's people are called shepherds: they shall lead them out and bring them in; that the congregation of the Lord may not be as sheep which have no shepherd. Just as a shepherd kept watch over his sheep and protected them from danger, so Jesus stands watch over his people as the Shepherd and Guardian of our souls. Do you know the peace and security of a life fully submitted to God?

Jesus willingly laid down his life for us - the sheep he ransomed with his own blood

St. Augustine of Hippo (354-430 AD) writes: "He has accomplished what he taught us: He has shown us what He commanded us to do. He laid down his own life for his sheep, that within our mystery he might change his body and blood into food, and nourish the sheep he had redeemed with the food of his own flesh. He has shown us the way we must follow, despite fear of death. He has laid down the pattern to which we must conform ourselves. The first duty laid on us is to use our material goods in mercy for the needs of his sheep, and then, if necessary, give even our lives for them. He that will not give of his substance for his sheep, how shall he lay down his life for them?" (Tr. 46 in John). Do you look to Jesus the Good Shepherd, to receive the strength and courage you need to live and serve as his disciple?

Children's Corner

Jesus is our good shepherd and we know that we must follow him. What are some of the things our shepherd has told us to do?

A thief has stolen some letters from the passage of text below. Use these letters to discover something that Jesus said to his disciples.

"I __ T__ GAT_
FOR T__ ____ P.
__LL W_O CO__ IN
T_ROUG_ __ WILL
B_ __V_D."

Help the sheep find its way to the gate. Keep a look out for thieves!

Jesus is the Good Shepherd who knows each of his sheep by name. Draw a flock of sheep in the sheep pen and write your name in the speech bubble so Jesus can call out your name.
