SACRED HEART & OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL SUCCOUR

Building a Christ-centred community of Love and Mercy

Pymble Parish is under the Pastoral care of the Salvatorian Fathers

...the Son of Man has come to seek out and save what was lost...

Luke 19: 10

Heavenly Father,
Thank You that You came to seek and to save a lost sinner like me and for the amazing love and grace You have bestowed upon me.
Thank You for forgiving my sins, for bringing salvation into my heart, and for making it Your dwelling place.
Keep me humble in heart, meek in spirit, and submissive to Your Holy Spirit, and may I be used to Your greater glory in all I say and do today.
In Your Name I pray,

Amen.

A warm welcome to all our Parishioners who are celebrating the Eucharist with us this weekend.

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION FOR OCTOBER

A Church Open to Everyone

We pray for the Church, ever faithful to and courageous in preaching the Gospel. May the Church be a community of solidarity, fraternity, and welcome, always living in an atmosphere of synodality.

Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

Religious Education in Yr 1 at Our Lady of Perpetual Succour

Term 4's Stage 1 Religious Education unit is, "Mission – Loving God and Others Like Jesus".

As part of this unit, Year 1 viewed the video "We Are Still Here" from Catholic Mission. They responded to a call from Pope Francis, inspired by Acts 4:20: "For we cannot keep from speaking about what we have seen and heard."

The students shared how they could speak out about acts of kindness and how we should act towards one another. Through Biblical Micrography they responded to this verse and represented how they come to experience God's presence in others through their acts of kindness.

Examples of their Biblical Micrography drawings and writing are attached.

We have also created an 'OLPS Act of Kindness' vine on which we place leaves with handwritten acts of kindness that they witness. Students are learning that acts of kindness help make their playground space a better place to play with each other.

A GIFT IN YOUR WILL

Leave a Legacy

YOUR LEGACY

After providing for family members in your Will, have you ever considered leaving a Gift directly to your local Parish?

This is called a Legacy, Bequest of Gift in Will.

Over the years, many people who have left a special connection to their Faith have left part of their estate to the Parish. Like a gift to a charity, a gift in your Will to the Church ensures other members of our community receive the spiritual care and guidance that has been so important to you and your family.

YOUR PARISH

Many parishes are in need of funding to restore buildings, improve facilities and expand on services for the community. The pastoral outreach that has been important to you will continue for our children, our grandchildren and future generations to of Catholics.

If you would like more information on Gifts in Wills, please contact Fr. Ireneusz.

Our Lady of Fátima

On Saturday, 15 October, our Parish gathered at Sacred Heart Church to pray the Rosary together. The morning began with Fr Irek celebrating Mass, which was followed by the Rosary.

It was a beautiful morning and a big thank you to Andree Nash, who helped organise the important event as we reflected on the message of Fátima and in the month of October coinciding with the month of the last appearance of the Blessed Virgin Mary to the three shepherd children in Fátima.

Liturgy of the Word

Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Antiphon

Forsake me not, O Lord, my God;
be not far from me!
Make haste and come to my help,
O Lord, my strong salvation!

First Reading

Wis 11:22—12:2

A reading from the book of Wisdom

In your sight, Lord, the whole world is like a grain of dust that tips the scales, like a drop of morning dew falling on the ground.
Yet you are merciful to all, because you can do all things and overlook men's sins so that they can repent.
Yes, you love all that exists, you hold nothing of what you have made in abhorrence, for had you hated anything, you would not have formed it.
And how, had you not willed it, could a thing persist, how be conserved if not called forth by you? You spare all things because all things are yours, Lord, lover of life, you whose imperishable spirit is in all.
Little by little, therefore, you correct those who offend, you admonish and remind them of how they have sinned, so that they may abstain from evil and trust in you, Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

- I will give you glory, O God my King, I will bless your name for ever. I will bless your day after day and praise your name for ever. (R.)
- The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love. How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures. (R.)
- All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, And your friends shall repeat their blessing. They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God. (R.)
- The Lord is faithful in all his words and loving in all his deeds. The Lord supports all who fall and raises who are bowed down. (R.)

Second Reading

2 Thes 1: 11—2: 2

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

We pray continually that our God will make you worthy of his call, and by his power fulfil all your desires for goodness and complete all that you have been doing through faith; because in this way the name of our Lord Jesus Christ will be glorified in you and you in him, by the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We pray continually that our God will make you worthy of his call, and by his power fulfil all your desires for goodness and complete all that you have been doing through faith; because in this way the name of our Lord Jesus Christ will be glorified in you and you in him, by the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
God loved the world so much, he gave us his only Son,
that all who believe in him might have eternal life.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Lk 19: 1-10

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus entered Jericho and was going through the town when a man whose name was Zacchaeus made his appearance; he was one of the senior tax collectors and a wealthy man. He was anxious to see what kind of man Jesus was, but he was too short and could not see him for the crowd; so he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to catch a glimpse of Jesus who was to pass that way. When Jesus reached the spot he looked up and spoke to him: 'Zacchaeus, come down. Hurry, because I must stay at your house today.' And he hurried down and welcomed him joyfully. They all complained when they saw what was happening. 'He has gone to stay at a sinner's house' they said. But Zacchaeus stood his ground and said to the Lord, 'Look, sir, I am going to give half my property to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody I will pay him back four times the amount.' And Jesus said to him, 'Today salvation has come to this house, because this man too is a son of Abraham; for the Son of Man has come to seek out and save what was lost.'

Gospel Reflection

Meditation: What would you do if Jesus knocked on your door and said, "I must stay at your home today"? Would you be excited or embarrassed? Jesus often "dropped-in" at unexpected times and he often visited the "uninvited" - the poor, the lame, and even public sinners like Zacchaeus, the tax collector! Tax collectors were despised and treated as outcasts, no doubt because they over-charged people and accumulated great wealth at the expense of others.

Zacchaeus was a chief tax collector and was much hated by all the people. Why would Jesus single him out for the honour of staying at his home? Zacchaeus needed God's merciful love and forgiveness. In his encounter with Jesus he found more than he imagined possible. He shows the depth of his repentance by deciding to give half of his goods to the poor and to use the other half for making restitution for fraud. Zacchaeus' testimony included more than words. His change of heart resulted in a change of life, a change that the whole community could experience as genuine.

Faith welcomes Christ in our heart and home
Saint Augustine of Hippo (354-430 AD) urges us to climb the sycamore tree like Zacchaeus that we might see Jesus and embrace his cross for our lives:.

The Lord Jesus is always ready to make his home with each one of us. Do you make room for him in your heart and in every area of your life?

Lord Jesus, come and stay with me. Fill my life with your peace, my home with your presence, and my heart with your praise. Help me to show kindness, mercy, and goodness to all, even to those who cause me ill-will or harm.
