SACRED HEART & OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL SUCCOUR

Building a Christ-centred community of Love and Mercy

Pymble Parish is under the Pastoral care of the Salvatorian Fathers

"Take care to guard against all greed."

Luke 12:15

Prayer Inspired by Luke 12

Heavenly God,
we praise and glorify your Almighty name.
Please protect us at all times,
at all costs so that we can use
our lives in serving you.
May you always remind us that we should not focus our lives here on Earth for worldly things, but to live a life in accordance to Your will.
Please forgive our sins and trespasses that we have committed,
so that, we can be at least righteous before You.
Once again, we bring back all the glory, honour and praise unto You.
We asked these, in the name of our Lord
Jesus Christ, our Saviour,
Amen.

We welcome to Pymble Parish the newest member of our community

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION FOR JULY

ELDERLY

We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

Parish Prayer Zone

Praying for others gets our focus off ourselves and onto the needs of those around us. As we “carry each other’s burdens,” we “will fulfil the law of Christ” (Galatians 6:2). Praying for each other makes us stronger and helps us to grow our faith and Christian love.

Recently Deceased: Patricia Mooney, Barbara Makepeace, Jeremy Ward, Margaret Jean Starr, Mark Anthony Martin, Brian Francis Poole, Amelia Fernandes
Death Anniversaries: Norah Kneafsey, Gwen Tregear, Joseph Lin, Teresa Butler, John McLeod, Harold Burford, Margaret Kinie, Julian Pinto, Thelma Lavery
Prayers for the sick: Suzanne Brassil, Judith English, Wendy Tan, Alice Chapman, David Gardener
Weekly prayer intention: O God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations, through Christ our Lord. Amen. If you would like the names of your relatives to be included in the prayer list (anniversary of deaths, recently deceased, illnesses, wedding celebration or anniversaries, birthdays, etc.) please contact the Parish Office by midday each Wednesday. Remember that due to privacy policy, names of the sick can only be put on the bulletin with permission of the immediate family. This list will be updated every month and we would appreciate if we are advised of any updates. Thank you.

A Gift in your Will

Your LEGACY

After providing for family members in your Will, have you ever considered leaving a Gift directly to your local Parish? This is called a Legacy, Bequest of Gift in Will.

Over the years, many people who have left a special connection to their Faith have left part of their estate to the Parish. Like a gift to a charity, a gift in your Will to the Church ensures other members of our community receive the spiritual care and guidance that has been so important to you and your family.

Your PARISH

Many parishes are in need of funding to restore buildings, improve facilities and expand on services for the community. The pastoral outreach that has been important to you will continue for our children, our grandchildren and future generations to of Catholics.

If you would like more information on Gifts in Wills, please contact Fr. Ireneusz.

News from the Sacramental Program: First Eucharist

Congratulations to all of the candidates preparing for First Eucharist. These candidates have already been baptised, made their Confirmation and First Reconciliation. Join in celebrating this joyous event as these children are presented to our community this weekend. Please pray for these children and their families.

Homelessness Week: 1 August—8 August

In Australia there are over 116,000 people experiencing homelessness on any given night. Homelessness Week aims to raise awareness of the impact of homelessness on Australia via national and local community events, including providing information on the importance of housing as a solution and educating communities on how they can make a difference.

Homelessness Week 2022 will be taking place from Monday 1 to Sunday 7 August.

Few people choose to be homeless and the longer a person remains homeless, the more difficult it is to return to mainstream society. Just like Mary MacKillop saw a need and did something about it, at CatholicCare we work tirelessly to support people who are homeless or needing a helping hand. We offer a raft of services to help.

CatholicCare provide a women's refuge, transitional accommodation options, young parent's homelessness services and street sleeping outreach supports. We also operate Dom's Place in Hornsby and Mary Mac's in Woy Woy where we provide meals, a place to shower and wash clothes, and somewhere for people who are homeless or transient to come and to connect with supports and community.

Many people who access our services are lonely, and when they walk through our doors they are simply after a listening ear.

Please help us fundraise for CatholicCare's homelessness services. Envelopes will be available at the back of both Churches. All donations over $2 are tax deductible. Please give generously and support those in need within our community.

Music Co-ordinator & Liturgy Co-ordinator for Sacred Heart

Our Masses and Liturgies are enriched by the talent and time shared by our talented musicians of our Parish. We are currently looking for a Music Co-ordinator to assist with the organisation of music and rosters. We are also looking for a Liturgy Co-ordinator to assist with the rosters of readers.

If you are interested in helping out with either of the above roles, please contact the Parish Office on 9144 2702 or office@pymblecatholicparish.org.au.

CALL FOR NEW PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MEMBERS

The purpose of our Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) is to promote and support the evangelising mission of the Parish, working in collaboration with the Parish Priest to foster the spiritual and pastoral life of the parish community. The traditional hallmarks of Christianity – Word, Worship, Community and Service – guide the Council in the evaluation of needs and the parish's response to them.

THE PPC:

- Meets regularly with Fr, Ireneusz, usually monthly
- Reflects on the life of the parish community
- Acts as the body in the Parish from which Fr. Ireneusz seeks advice about the pastoral life and strategic direction of the Parish community
- Discerns key pastoral priorities and initiatives as part of parish pastoral planning
- Reflects on the 'signs of the times and the context of the Parish and considers how the Parish can best carry out its mission, as in our vision and purpose statements.
- Brings forth issues and considerations from the members of the Parish community which might shape the life and future of the Parish community

THE PARISH COUNCIL IS COMPRISED OF 12 PERSONS

- 10 members are appointed to the Council, by recommendation or by direct appointment
- The Principals of Sacred Heart and Our Lady of Perpetual Succour (OLPS) Primary Schools, are ex officio members of the Parish Pastoral Council

The members of the current Parish Pastoral Council who continue in their 4-year term are:

- Jo Burdajewicz (chair) (SH)
- Eric Leahy (secretary) (SH)
- Miguel Zaragoza (SH)
- Brian Symons (SH)
- Vanessa Mazzei (OLPS)
- Margaret Walz (OLPS)

Recommendations for 4- 5 new members are now invited from the community

The terms of membership of each of the new members will be a maximum of 4 years (membership is normally 2 years with a further 2-year option). This means, therefore, that the membership of our Parish Pastoral Council rotates with new members every 2 years.

THE PROCESS

Until Monday 22nd August recommendations for positions on the Parish Pastoral Council are called. Recommendations need to be of those who show:

- A commitment to the practice of the faith, to the parish community, and to the purpose and vision of Pymble Catholic Parish;
- Ability to commit to attending monthly meetings and actively participating
- To collaborate, consult and discern with others for the mission of the Church;
- Good communication and interpersonal skills;
- A capacity to think strategically toward the development of Parish Pastoral Plans.

Thank you for your consideration and participation. If you have any questions, please pray that the Holy Spirit will guide us all during this process of discernment.

KEY DATES
01 August 2022	Call for recommendations
22 August 2022	Recommendations close
5 September 2022	Discernment complete and new members advised

For further information regarding the role of the PPC, please read the "Guidelines for Parish Pastoral Councils in the Diocese of Broken Bay" at: <https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/parish-community/ministries/parish-pastoral-council>

If you have any questions, please feel free to speak to Father Irek or contact Jo Burdajewicz on 0449 840 602.

Please complete this Recommendation form and submit it in the box at the back of the church or return to the parish office.

Liturgy of the Word

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year C

Entrance Antiphon

O God, come to my assistance;
O Lord, make haste to help me!
You are my rescuer, my help;
O Lord, do not delay.

First Reading

Eccl 1: 2, 2: 21-23

A reading from the book of Ecclesiastes

Vanity of vanities, the Preacher says. Vanity of vanities. All is vanity!

For so it is that a man who has laboured wisely, skilfully and successfully must leave what is his own to someone who has not toiled for it at all. This, too, is vanity and great injustice; for what does he gain for all the toil and strain that he has undergone under the sun? What of all his laborious days, his cares of office, his restless nights? This, too, is vanity.

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

- 1. You turn men back into dust and say: ‘Go back, sons of men.’ To your eyes a thousand years are like yesterday, come and gone, no more than a watch in the night. (R.)
- 2. You sweep men away like a dream, like grass which springs up in the morning. In the morning it springs up and flowers: by evening it withers and fades. (R.)
- 3. Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart. Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever? Show pity to your servants. (R.)
- 4. In the morning, fill us with your love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days. Let the favour of the Lord be upon us; give success to the work of our hands. (R.)

Second Reading

Col 3: 1-5, 9-1

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God’s right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God’s right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

Gospel

Lk 12: 13-21

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

A man in the crowd said to Jesus, ‘Master, tell my brother to give me a share of our inheritance.’ ‘My friend,’ he replied, ‘who appointed me your judge, or the arbitrator of your claims?’ Then he said to them, ‘Watch, and be on your guard against avarice of any kind, for a man’s life is not made secure by what he owns, even when he has more than he needs.’

Then he told them a parable: ‘There was once a rich man who, having had a good harvest from his land, thought to himself, “What am I to do? I have not enough room to store my crops.” Then he said, “This is what I will do; I will pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and store all my grain and my goods in them, and I will say to my soul: My soul, you have plenty of good things laid by for many years to come; take things easy, eat, drink, have a good time.” But God said to him, “Fool! This very night the demand will be made for your soul; and this hoard of yours, whose will it be then?” So it is when a man stores up treasure for himself in place of making himself rich in the sight of God.’

Reflection

Have you ever tried to settle a money dispute or an inheritance issue? Inheritance disputes are rarely ever easy to resolve, especially when the relatives or close associates of the deceased benefactor cannot agree on who should get what and who should get the most. Why did Jesus refuse to settle an inheritance dispute between two brothers? He saw that the heart of the issue was not justice or fairness but rather greed and possessiveness.

Loving possessions rather than loving my neighbour

The ten commandments were summarized into two prohibitions - do not worship false idols and do not covet what belongs to another. It's the flip side of the two great commandments - love

God and love your neighbour. Jesus warned the man who wanted half of his brother's inheritance to "beware of all covetousness." To covet is to wish to get wrongfully what another possesses or to begrudge what God has given to another. Jesus restates the commandment "do not covet", but he also states that a person's life does not consist in the abundance of his or her possessions.

August of Hippo (354-430 AD) comments on Jesus' words to the brother who wanted more:

Greed wants to divide, just as love desires to gather. What is the significance of 'guard against all greed,' unless it is 'fill yourselves with love?' We, possessing love for our portion, inconvenience the Lord because of our brother just as that man did against his brother, but we do not use the same plea. He said, 'Master, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.' We say, 'Master, tell my brother that he may have my inheritance.' (Sermon 265.9)

The fool who was possessed by his riches

Jesus reinforces his point with a parable about a foolish rich man (Luke 12:16-21). Why does Jesus call this wealthy landowner a fool? Jesus does not fault the rich man for his industriousness and skill in acquiring wealth, but rather for his egoism and selfishness - it's mine, all mine, and no one else's. This parable is similar to the parable of the rich man who refused to give any help to the beggar Lazarus (Luke 16:19-31). The rich fool had lost the capacity to be concerned for others. His life was consumed with his possessions and his only interests were in himself. His death was the final loss of his soul! What is Jesus' lesson on using material possessions? It is in giving that we receive. Those who are rich towards God receive ample reward - not only in this life - but in eternity as well.

Where is your treasure?

In this little parable Jesus probes our heart - where is your treasure? Treasure has a special connection to the heart, the place of desire and longing, the place of will and focus. The thing we most set our heart on is our highest treasure. What do you treasure above all else?

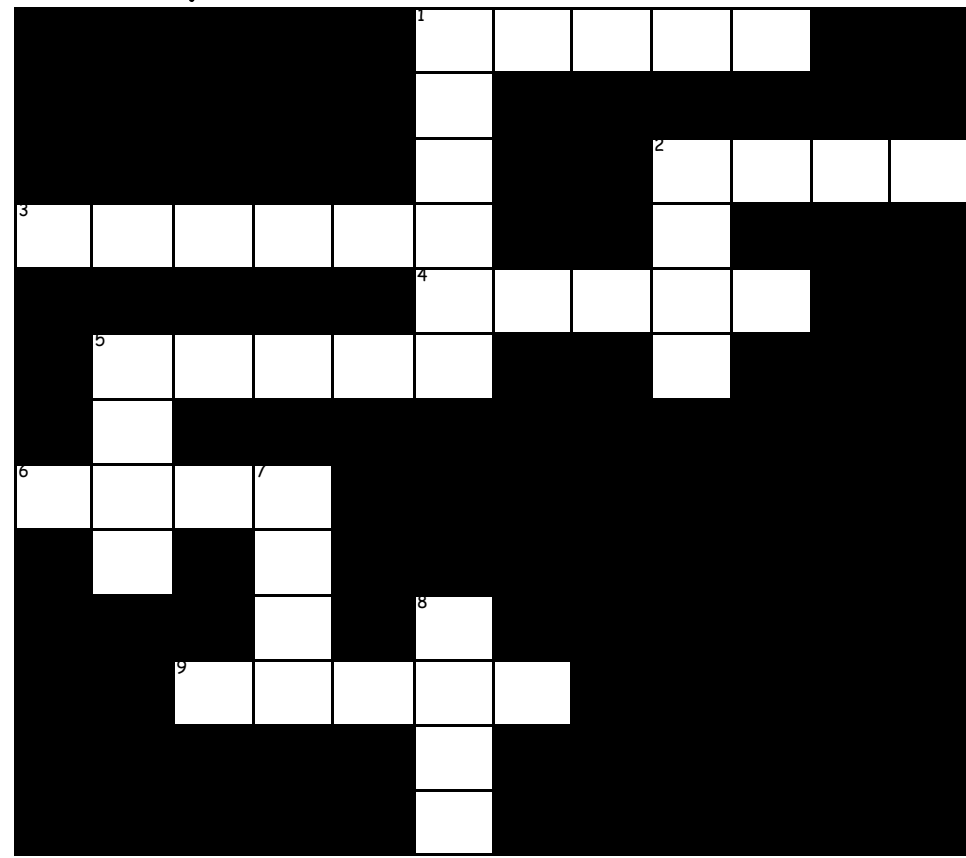

Lord Jesus, free my heart from all possessiveness and from coveting what belongs to another. May I desire you alone as the one true treasure worth possessing above all else. Help me to make good use of the material blessings you give me that I may use them generously for your glory and for the good of others.
