CELEBRATING SALVATORIANS' 25TH ANNIVERSARY IN PYMBLE

"He is not here, for he has risen, as he said he would."

Matthew 28:6

An Easter Prayer

Lord,
today I remember your resurrection this Easter, and rejoice in the victory you have won over death. You have given me the hope of eternal life, and I praise you because you took my pain and bore my suffering.

Amen.

 Pope Leo XIV's official prayer intention for February

For Disarmament and Peace

Let us pray that nations move toward effective disarmament, particularly nuclear disarmament, and that world leaders choose the path of dialogue and diplomacy instead of violence.

 Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

Parish Prayer Zone

Praying for others gets our focus off ourselves and onto the needs of those around us. As we "carry each other's burdens," we "will fulfil the law of Christ" (Galatians 6:2). Praying for each other makes us stronger and helps us to grow our faith and Christian love.

Recently Deceased:

David Seymour, Patrick Martin, Antoni Szczur, Simon Devitt, Chan Siew Gaik, Douglas Jacks, John Nolem, Cindy Cheung, Teresa Sit, Daisy Chiu

Death Anniversaries:

Santa Celio, Lilian Castilo, Rikki Doumit, Sergio Contardo, Joseph Matthew Lyons, Judy Carson, Nancy Dal Cin, Petra & Luciano Dumrique, Rita & David Roach, Patricia Grass, Antonius Djunaidi, Owen Thomas, Kerry Oei, Pertiwiningsih Arifui, Tenna Scanlan, Antonio, Faride, Carlos, Salim, Virginia, Salvadal Younes,

Prayers for the sick:

Kathy (Ya Wen) Sun, Stan Brataniec, Craig Shepherd, Daniel Fileman, Jan Drobczyk, Janusz Czech, Elliot Leahy

Monthly prayer intention:

This week we pray for peace and unity: We pray for peace in the midst of violence and tragedy in this world. May we have the patience to be understanding, the strength to be forgiving, and the grace to admit when we are wrong. Amen.

If you would like the names of your relatives to be included in the prayer list (anniversary of deaths, recently deceased, illnesses, wedding celebration or anniversaries, birthdays, etc.) please contact the Parish Office by midday each Wednesday. Remember that due to privacy policy, names of the sick can only be put on the bulletin with permission of the immediate family. This list will be updated every month and we would appreciate if we are advised of any updates. Thank you.

DAILY PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, we praise You for Your goodness and thank You for Your gifts. Help us respond to and live out our mission in the Church. Assist all Your people to know their vocation in life and help them to prepare for it. Call many to be priests, deacons and consecrated men and women for Your greater glory, and for the service of Your people. Give those whom You call the grace to respond generously and to persevere faithful. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Sacred Heart Car Park Disruption—Wednesday, 8 April

As we are preparing for the new Siena Catholic College, please note that there will be workers at the Sacred Heart School site with the demountable classrooms being removed during the day. The carpark will not be available in the morning. You may need to park on Bannockburn Road if attending morning Mass.

Please take care if you are attending the morning Mass at Sacred Heart Church next Wednesday morning. We thank you for your understanding.

Parish Golf Day 2026

Despite a rainy forecast, the weather was kind to us last Friday and our Parish Golf Day went ahead with great enthusiasm. We had 15 participants enjoying wonderful, friendly competition.

Congratulations to our winners: Louise Bunday (Ladies) and Amal Wahab (Men), and a heartfelt thank you to Gregory & Carr for once again supporting this much-loved parish event. Thank you also to Marie D'Alessandri for organising a great outing for our golf lovers.

Parish Office Closed

Please note that the Parish Office will be closed on Mondays (6 April, 13 April and 20 April) during the school holidays. You can still contact us on Mondays by email or phone. Thank you for your understanding.

Easter Message from Our Priests Alleluia! He is Risen!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With hearts full of joy, we greet you this Easter with the triumphant cry of the Church: Alleluia! Christ is Risen!

In the light of the Resurrection, we find renewed hope, peace, and the assurance that love has conquered death. The Resurrection is not only a mystery we celebrate - it is a truth we are called to live and proclaim. Like the disciples at the empty tomb, we are invited to rise with Christ and go forth to share His life-giving message.

As you know we are members of the Society of the Divine Saviour. Everyday Salvatorian charism helps us to see the face of the Risen Christ in everyone, especially in those who are forgotten, wounded, or searching for hope. However, we are all called to be apostles of His love, bringing His light into the darkest corners of the world - not just with words, but through acts of compassion, presence, and service. This Easter, may we open our hearts more fully to Jesus and continue to be a community of faith that welcomes, heals, and bears witness to the joy of the Gospel.

On behalf of our parish team, we wish you and your loved ones a blessed and grace-filled Easter. May the Risen Lord walk with you always, and may His peace remain in your hearts.

In the love of the Divine Saviour,

Fr. Ireneusz Czech SDS
Fr. Marek Pączka SDS

Bishop Anthony Randazzo appointed to role based in Rome

Pope Leo has appointed Bishop Anthony Randazzo, until now the Bishop of Broken Bay and Apostolic Administrator of the Personal Ordinariate of Our Lady of the Southern Cross in Australia, as Prefect of the Dicastery for Legislative Texts, with the personal title of Archbishop.

Archbishop Randazzo has served as the Bishop of the Diocese of Broken Bay for the past six and a half years, and will take up his role in the Roman Curia when he moves to the Vatican in three months. Until that time, he will be the Apostolic Administrator of the Diocese of Broken Bay.

As Prefect, Archbishop Randazzo will oversee the Dicastery's work in formulating authentic interpretations of universal Church law, offering authoritative clarifications on juridical questions, and assisting in the development and refinement of canonical legislation. He will also guide collaboration with other dicasteries, episcopal conferences, and canonists worldwide to ensure coherence and integrity in the Church's legal framework.

Please continue to pray for Archbishop Randazzo as he accepts this important post in Rome.

Liturgy of the Word

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Year A

Entrance Antiphon Cf Psalm 138: 18, 5-6

I have risen, and I am with you still, alleluia.
You have laid your hand upon me, alleluia.
Too wonderful for me, this knowledge,
alleluia, alleluia.

First Reading Acts 10: 34, 37-43

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

Responsorial Psalm Ps 117: 1-2, 16-17, 22-23 R. v.24

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

1. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end.
Let the sons of Israel say:
'His love has no end.' (R.)
2. The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up.
I shall not die, I shall live
And recount his deeds. (R.)
3. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.
This is the work of the Lord,
a marvel in our eyes. (R.)

Second Reading Colossians 3: 1-4

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

Sequence

Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer sacrifice and praise.
The sheep are ransomed by the Lamb;
and Christ, the undefiled,
hath sinners to his Father reconciled.
Death with life contended: combat strangely ended!
Life's own Champion, slain, yet lives to reign.
Tell us, Mary: say what thou didst see upon the way.
The tomb the Living did enclose;
I saw Christ's glory as he rose!
The angels there attesting;
shroud with grave-clothes resting.
Christ, my hope, has risen: he goes before you into Galilee.
That Christ is truly risen from the dead we know.
Victorious king, thy mercy show!

Gospel Acclamation 1 Corinthians 5: 7-8

Alleluia, alleluia!
Christ has become our paschal sacrifice;
let us feast with joy in the Lord.
Alleluia!

Gospel John 20: 1-9

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

Gospel Reflection

There is excitement. People are running. But at the centre of this story is the quiet enigma of an empty tomb. The setting is mysterious – very early, still dark. The very ambiguity invites us to wonder with the disciples what is going on.

The wrapping cloths of Jesus' burial are the symbol of Jesus' resurrection. That is enough for Peter and John – and presumably Mary of Magdala – to come to understand what has happened and to believe.

In what follows in John's gospel, Mary encounters the risen Lord in the garden, at first thinking he is the gardener. It is a pity we do not hear this part of the story today. (It is read next Tuesday.)

Still, we have the whole Easter season to uncover the real presence of the risen Lord. The ambiguity of this account of the resurrection actually fits our own experience well, for we encounter the risen Lord in the mystery of word and sacrament.

Parish Safeguarding

Dear Parishioners,

We take our responsibility to safeguard the vulnerable, whether they be children, the young, the elderly or the disabled very seriously. We work to ensure that no one is taken advantage of within our Parish.

If you have any concern about the treatment of a child, young person or anyone within our parish environment, please approach myself directly or Claudia within the parish office on 02 9144 2702.

Alternatively, you may wish to contact Pamela Sweeney, Safeguarding Manager (Chancery & Churches) on 02 8379 1651.

Yours in Christ,

Fr Ireneusz Czech SDS

Children, the young, and the vulnerable must be safe

Supported by adults who ...

CARE for us as we are a precious gift from God

RESPECT our rights, abilities, contributions, needs and wishes

ASK us how we are feeling and what we are thinking, ask us what we need

LISTEN to what we are really saying

TELL us about dangers – and what's being done to protect us

SEE what other adults are doing, and how they are behaving

DO what they are supposed to do and what they say they will do

STEP UP AND SPEAK OUT when we are being hurt, bullied or treated badly.

"Christ has no hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which he looks with compassion on this world."
