Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

Sacred Heart - Term 2 Kindergarten News

Kindergarten are very excited to be back at school. This term we will be discovering many wonderful passages from the Bible through our play-based approach using the new K-2 Religious Education Syllabus. The students will also be learning about The Empty Tomb, Spreading the Easter Light, Baptism, Pentecost and The Holy Trinity. We are also praying the Angelus everyday at 12:00. The students are starting to memorise parts of this prayer each day and are interested in being part of a very special whole school prayer.

Praying the Rosary during the Month of May

May is the month of Mary. We encourage you to use this month as an opportunity to renew your relationship with our spiritual Mother. Please join us in the Marian Devotion (Loreto Litany) after each weekday morning Mass, followed by the Rosary.

Pilgrim Virgin Statue Home Visitation

The Pilgrim Virgin Statue is a Blessed replica of our Lady of the Rosary. From May to October (Commencing 1st May) and by request only, you are welcome to transport and install the statue in your home to create a prayerful, sanctifying space where family and friends are encouraged to pray the Rosary. The statue will remain in your home for one week. You are then asked to bring her back for the next family to take her.

Praying for others gets our focus off ourselves and onto the needs of those around us. As we "carry each other's burdens," we "will fulfil the law of Christ" (Galatians 6:2). Praying for each other makes us stronger and helps us to grow our faith and Christian love.

What is a Confirmation name?

A Confirmation name is best thought of as a name that God – and only God – calls you by. It is not a name that other people call you by, like a baptismal name. Ideally, a Confirmation name should be the name of a Saint whom you know something about, or who inspires you, or whose virtues you want to imitate. It is the name of a saint who will accompany you through life. It is a reminder of the day of your Confirmation, when you were anointed with the oil of the Holy Spirit.

Please pray for these children, in the name of their selected saints below, as they prepare for their Confirmation.

Confirmation names selected by our children:

Mary, Mother of Jesus, St Achilleus, St Adelaide, St Albertus Magnus, St Aloysius Gonzaga, St Anastasia, St Anne, St Bernadette, St Carina, St Carmen Salles, St Catherine of Alexandria, St Catherine of Bologna, St Catherine of Siena, St Christopher, St David, St Elizabeth of Hungary, St Elizabeth of Portugal, St Flora, St Francis de Sales, St Francis of Assisi, St Gemma Galgani, St James The Greater, St Jerome, St John Bosco, St John the Baptist, St Joseph of Nazareth, St Joseph, St Kevin, St Leo, St Lorenzo Ruiz, St Lucy, St Luke, St Madeleine Sophie Barat, St Maria Fatima, St Mary MacKillop, St Matthew, St Michael the Archangel, St Mildred, St Nicholas, St Nicolas Steno, St Patrick, St Paul, St Peter, St Rita, St Rose of Lima, St Sebastian, St Sofia, St Teresa of Calcutta, St Theresa of Coudere, St Therese of Lisieux, St Thomas Aquinas, St Ursula, St Veronica, and St Zita of Lucca.

RCIA Testimony My Journey to Catholicism Edward Man

My name is Ed. I'm turning 39 in May this year and wanted to share my journey on becoming a Catholic.

My path has been unusual as I spent my formative years at a Catholic Jesuit school (St Aloysius' College) from years 5 to 12, so I've always been surrounded by the Catholic community and I've always subconsciously adhered to core Catholic values.

Serendipitously most of my friends and colleagues are Catholics, so it was inevitable at some stage I would formalise my conversion.

Growing up, I didn't realise it that I was one of a handful of non-Catholics to attend Aloysius, but I suspect it had something to do with the late Father Anthony Smith SJ wanting to give opportunities to kids from lower socio economic backgrounds from different walks of life an opportunity to succeed in life, so I've always had time for the Catholic Church and admired their social justice values and helping those in need.

The plan was to convert to Catholicism after school, but life got in the way (e.g. university studies, marriage, kids, busy career). It also didn't help when a couple of close friends from school passed away in their early 20s, so I was an angry young man that was skeptical about the existence of God.

Despite a successful career in the IT industry and ticking off a number of "material" goals, there was a big void in my life that was missing and after realising the errors of my way, I signed up for the RCIA program at Sacred Heart (Pymble Parish).

Throughout the RCIA program, the journey has been a salient reminder of what I was taught during my time at high school and the well crafted Symbolon videos were extremely effective in explaining the Catholic Faith.

After becoming a Catholic, I felt complete and it's inspired me to become a better person and place a bigger importance on helping others in need and serving the community.

It's also reminded me not to become fixated on material wealth and individual goals. Rather there's a renewed focus more on serving others and having a positive impact on those around me.

Regards,

Ed

I work as a Business Consultant in the IT Industry.
I am married and have 2 children (9 yr old daughter and 7 yr old son).

First Reading

Acts 6: 1-7

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

About this time, when the number of disciples was increasing, the Hellenists made a complaint against the Hebrews: in the daily distribution their own widows were being overlooked. So the Twelve called a full meeting of the disciples and addressed them, 'It would not be right for us to neglect the word of God so as to give out food; you, brothers, must select from among yourselves seven men of good reputation, filled with the Spirit and with wisdom; we will hand over this duty to them, and continue to devote ourselves to prayer and to the service of the word.' The whole assembly approved of this proposal and elected Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, together with Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus of Antioch, a convert to Judaism. They presented these to the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

The word of the Lord continued to spread: the number of disciples in Jerusalem was greatly increased, and a large group of priests made their submission to the faith.

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

1. Ring out your joy to the Lord, O you just; for praise is fitting for loyal hearts. Give thanks to the Lord upon the harp, with a ten-stringed lute sing him songs. (R.)
2. For the word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. (R.)
3. The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. (R.)
4. Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever. (R.)

Second Reading

1 Pt 2: 4-9

A reading from the first letter of St Peter

The Lord is the living stone, rejected by men but chosen by God and precious to him; set yourselves close to him so that you too, the holy priesthood that offers the spiritual sacrifices which Jesus Christ has made acceptable to God, may be living stones making a spiritual house. As scripture says: See how I lay in Zion a precious cornerstone that I have chosen and the man who rests his trust on it will not be disappointed. That means that for you who are believers, it is precious; but for unbelievers, the stone rejected by the builders has proved to be the keystone, a stone to stumble over, a rock to bring men down. They stumble over it because they do not believe in the word; it was the fate in store for them.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a consecrated nation, a people set apart to sing the praises of God who called you out of the darkness into his wonderful light.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the way, the truth, and the life, says the Lord;
no one comes to the Father, except through me.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Jn 14: 1-12

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to his disciples:

'Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God still, and trust in me. There are many rooms in my Father's house; if there were not, I should have told you. I am now going to prepare a place for you, and after I have gone and prepared you a place, I shall return to take you with me; so that where I am you may be too. You know the way to the place where I am going.'

Thomas said, 'Lord, we do not know where you are going, so how can we know the way?' Jesus said:

'I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No one can come to the Father except through me. If you know me, you know my Father too. From this moment you know him and have seen him.'

Philip said, 'Lord, let us see the Father and then we shall be satisfied.' 'Have I been with you all this time, Philip,' said Jesus to him 'and you still do not know me?

'To have seen me is to have seen the Father, so how can you say, "Let us see the Father"? Do you not believe That I am in the Father and the Father is in me?

The words I say to you I do not speak as from myself; it is the Father, living in me, who is doing this work.

You must believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; believe it on the evidence of this work, if for no other reason.

'I tell you most solemnly, whoever believes in me will perform the same works as I do myself, he will perform even greater works, because I am going to the Father.'

Gospel Reflection

Mutual Indwelling

The disciples are full of premonitions that their beloved leader was about to be cruelly done to death, leaving them abandoned. Yet he tells them: 'Let not your hearts be troubled.'

Why shouldn't their hearts, our hearts, be troubled by the disappearance of Our Lord's physical presence? The answer is because there is a purpose to his passage through death. It was to bring about a situation where our Risen Lord could share his life in ever more intimate fashion with his followers.

How does this come about?

At every Mass, after the gifts are brought to the altar, I pour a little water into the chalice of wine, saying: 'By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ, who humbled himself to share in our humanity.'

What a powerful verb! By grace, we can participate in the Divine Life of the Risen Lord.

As the Greek saints of the early church used to say in very daring fashion: 'God became human so that humans might become God.'

We anticipate this at every Holy Communion when, as Pope John Paul II used to say: 'We digest, as it were, the secret of the Resurrection.'

We could pause for a moment after Communion to reverence the Divine Life dwelling in us, a truly Holy Communion!

Alleluia!
