you."

John 20:21

Pentecost Prayer

Breathe in me O Holy Spirit that my thoughts may all be holy;
Act in me O Holy Spirit that my works, too, may be holy;
Draw my heart O Holy Spirit that I love but what is holy;
Strengthen me O Holy Spirit
to defend that is holy;
Guard me then O Holy Spirit that I always may be holy.

Thoughts of Blessed Francis Jordan

Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

PLANNED GIVING

The First Collection goes to the upkeep of the clergy, Salvatorian Regional Office and the Broken Bay Diocese sustentation funds.

The Second Collection goes towards maintaining our Churches and the upkeep of the Parish, supporting the ministries of our Parish (including our Sacramental programs and Catechist work), helping us continue our good works and loving outreach.

We are so grateful for your ongoing support.

First Collection

Second Collection

Parish Prayer Zone

Praying for others gets our focus off ourselves and onto the needs of those around us. As we "carry each other's burdens," we "will fulfil the law of Christ" (Galatians 6:2). Praying for each other makes us stronger and helps us to grow our faith and Christian love.

Recently Deceased:

Anne Maxworthy, Peter Tansey, Pope Francis, Dianne McGirr, Grace Calvi, Jannatta Cox, Dee Baumgart, Joan O'Donnell

Death Anniversaries:

Paul Pribila, Thelma Lavery, Andrew Patterson, Kathleen Mary Morrison, Andrew Patterson, Roy Freeman, Odette McLeod

Prayers for the sick:

Iris Garate-Marchant, Antonios Ghabach, Mrs Mary Sidaway, Pamela Seaman, Joseph Hendryjanto, Margaret Browne, Danny Ung

Weekly prayer intention:

This week we pray for our new shepherd, Pope Leo XIV, give him a spirit of courage and right judgment, a spirit of knowledge and love. Amen.

If you would like the names of your relatives to be included in the prayer list (anniversary of deaths, recently deceased, illnesses, wedding celebration or anniversaries, birthdays, etc.) please contact the Parish Office by midday each Wednesday. Remember that due to privacy policy, names of the sick can only be put on the bulletin with permission of the immediate family. This list will be updated every month and we would appreciate if we are advised of any updates. Thank you.

DAILY PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, we praise You for Your goodness and thank You for Your gifts. Help us respond to and live out our mission in the Church. Assist all Your people to know their vocation in life and help them to prepare for it. Call many to be priests, deacons and consecrated men and women for Your greater glory, and for the service of Your people. Give those whom You call the grace to respond generously and to persevere faithful. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Planned Giving program within the Parish is an opportunity for parishioners to support Parish finances with a commitment to donate funds at regular intervals. Parishioners can join our traditional envelope donation system or can donate through monthly credit or debit card donations.

Please support the work of our Parish and help carry the load by joining the Planned Giving Program. Registration forms are available at the back of the church. Alternatively, you can complete the form electronically at the following link: tinyurl.com/4djx9kdv

If you are already on our planned giving program, envelopes for the 2025/26 year are ready to be picked up at the back of both Churches.

Please contact the Parish Office if you would like to receive some envelopes for the year ahead.

Our Roof Repairs Have Begun!

As many of you know, recent heavy rains have caused significant leaks in our church roof. This week, scaffolding has gone up, and repair work has begun to safeguard our place of worship.

We humbly ask for your support in helping cover the costs of this essential work. Your generosity, big or small, will make a difference in protecting our church for years to come.

If you feel you are able to contribute, donations can be made online or through the office. We are deeply grateful for your kindness, generosity and prayers during this time.

Thank you for your continuous support.

Religious Education in 1M at Sacred Heart

This term, Year One has been immersed in the new K-2 Religious Education Syllabus, where students are learning to know Christ and grow in his faith.

In this week's learning, we have explored the Liturgical Calendar of the Church. Year 1 discovered that there are two times of the year when the church is purple; they are Advent and the beginning of the Liturgical Year and Lent.

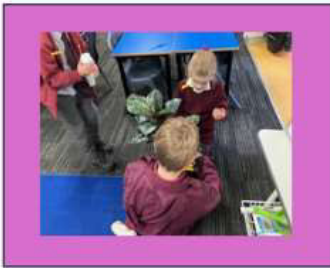

Here are some examples of 1M interacting with the materials. During this time the students may choose a presentation that has previously been taught to reflect upon. This time enables the students to connect themselves to the Bible scriptures and imagine Christ's teachings and experiences.

Here the students are interacting with diorama for the resurrection of Jesus.

Here the students are painting and reflecting on their chosen presentation.

Practical life skills are a chance for the students to be calm and think about their chosen presentation.

Prayer Space and Religion Room during reflection time.

Youth off the Streets Meals Program

A 30 year parish program supporting the disadvantaged has ended

3 June 2025

In the early 1990s, Fr Chris Riley started the Youth off the Streets charity. Their initial work was a Food Van that went out every night and provided meals and other services to disadvantaged youth in central Sydney. To support the Food Van, Fr Riley called for meal donations.

In those early days 30 years ago, a group associated with our Pymble parish started a program to collect home cooked frozen meals and deliver them to Youth off the Streets on a monthly basis. Other organisations did the same. Over those 30 years, the Pymble meal donors have delivered hundreds of meals annually to Youth off the Streets in Marrickville.

Youth off the Streets have made a strategic decision to redirect their youth outreach toward the south-west and away from frozen meals. There are now many "food van" services in and about central Sydney. As time went on, the Youth off the Streets program was providing more services to homeless adults rather than youth. Those same youth problems that Fr Chris Riley saw in Sydney are now in the south west and other places. Their new youth program will still provide food at locations about the south west but it will be more of a BBQ rather than an individual meal.

And Youth off the Streets is a different organisation now. It has six specialist high schools at Cordeaux Heights (Years 9-12), Macquarie Fields (Years 9-12), Merrylands (Years 9-12), Redfern (Years 9-10), Maroubra (Years 9-10), and Blue Haven (Years 9-10). It has youth refuge and housing services and various programs to support disadvantaged youth.

So now, after 30 years, our Pymble parish meals donation work has been completed. The last parish delivery was on Friday, 16 May 2025.

We remain grateful for the generous parish community donations of time and materials that have directly benefited disadvantaged youth. On behalf of the Parish and the young lives impacted, we extend our gratitude to the program donors within the parish for their contributions that have significantly enhanced the well-being of those encountered by the Youth off the Streets program. While the full scope of this vital work will remain unknown, our parish community support has been invaluable in fostering a brighter future for these young people.

Entrance Antiphon Wisdom 1: 7

The Spirit of the Lord has filled the whole world and that which contains all things understands what is said, alleluia.

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 2: 1-11

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

Responsorial Psalm Ps 103: 1, 24, 29-31 R. v. 30

(R.) Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

1. Bless the Lord, my soul!
Lord God, how great you are,
How many are your works, O Lord!
The earth is full of your riches. (R.)
2. You take back your spirit, they die, return to the dust from which they came.
You send forth your spirit, they are created;
and you renew the face of the earth. (R.)
3. May the glory of the Lord last for ever!
May the Lord rejoice in his works!
May my thoughts be pleasing to him.
I find my joy in the Lord. (R.)

Second Reading Romans 8: 8-17

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

People who are interested only in unspiritual things can never be pleasing to God. Your interests, however, are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him. Though your body may be dead it is because of sin, but if Christ is in you then your spirit is life itself because you have been justified; and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live.

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

Sequence

Holy Spirit, Lord of light,
From the clear celestial height
Thy pure beaming radiance give.

Come, thou Father of the poor,
Come with treasures which endure;
Come, thou light of all that live!

Thou, of all consolers best,
Thou, the soul's delightful guest,
Dost refreshing peace bestow;

Thou in toil art comfort sweet;
Pleasant coolness in the heart;
Solace in the midst of woe.

Light immortal, light divine,
Visit thou these hearts of thine,
And our inmost being fill:

If thou take thy grace away,
Nothing pure in man will stay;
All his good is turned to ill.

Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
On our dryness pour thy dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away:

Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.

Thou, on us who ever more
Thee confess and thee adore,
With thy sevenfold gifts descend:

Give us comfort when we die;
Give us life with thee on high;
Give us joys that never end.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come, Holy Spirit; fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.
Alleluia!

Gospel John 14: 15-16, 23-26

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to his disciples

'If you love me you will keep my commandments.

I shall ask the Father

And he will give you another Advocate

To be with you for ever.

If anyone loves me he will keep my word,
and my Father will love him,
and we shall come to him
and make our home with him.

Those who do not love me do not keep my words.

And my word is not my own;
it is the word of the one who sent me.

I have said these things to you
while still with you;

but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit,
whom the Father will send in my name,
will teach you everything and remind you of all that I have said to you.'

Gospel Reflection

The gift of Pentecost - the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and the spiritual gifts and blessings of God - are made possible through the death, resurrection, and ascension of the Lord Jesus. After his resurrection Jesus "breathed" on his disciples and gave them the Holy Spirit. Just as God breathed life into Adam, so the gift of the Holy Spirit is an impartation of "new life" for his people. With the gift of the Holy Spirit a new creation begins. God recreates us for his glory. Jesus' gift of peace to his disciples was more than an absence of trouble. His peace included the forgiveness of sins and the fullness of everything good. Do you want power to live a faith-filled life as a disciple of Jesus? Ask the Father to fill you with the power of his Holy Spirit (Luke 11:13).

Lord Jesus, I thank you for the gift of Pentecost and for the new life you offer in the Holy Spirit. Fill me with your Holy Spirit and set my heart ablaze with the fire of your love that I may serve you in joy and freedom.

Children's Liturgy – Sunday, 1st June

During Children's Liturgy on Sunday, the children learned about the Ascension of Jesus. To help them connect with the story, they watched balloons float up into the sky—just as the disciples watched Jesus rise into heaven. It was a powerful, visual way for the children to imagine what that moment might have felt like. Each child wrote a special message on a balloon, expressing their thoughts and feelings about Jesus' ascension. The room was filled with excitement, wonder, and joy as the balloons rose, reminding everyone of the hope and promise of Jesus' return.

Each person was able to hear the message of the Gospel in their own language. See if you can decipher the language below to read the special message.
